WELL, the Dillingham and Hazlehurst families certainly had a surprise, idn't they? When Bessie Dillingham came from Catonsville to spend a week with grandmother, Mrs. Dillingham, and was ting, as her family thought, to be arried in April, they little dreamed that he and Ned Haziehurst would just decide to wait till April, but would proceed marry during that very week. Such s to have been the case, however, for, igh both families approved of the match there was no objection of any kind, principals evidently thought they ald just clope and not wait. So they ave gone blisafully away on a wedding and that is all anybody knows yet. Senis is very pretty and Ned Hazlehurst is some good looker, too.
