MAJOR SMITH TODAY VOICED HIS ATTITUDE ON THE SUBWAY BOND SITUATION AS FOLLOWS:

"The forces which tried to charge me with murder are back of the bonding agitation. I am not in the bonding business. If the contractor can't get his bond, that is up to him. I am absolutely impervious to newspaper criticism and you papers can go as far as you like. I think you are barking up the wrong tree. There is no responsibility until contracts are executed and approved. It is true these contracts were awarded to the Keystone State Construction Company, but it is up to the contractor to furnish his own bond, and if he fails in that, that's his lookout. You want to get your story from the contractor. As Mayor of the city I am naturally very much interested in these contracts for the Broad Street Subway, but only as Mayor of the city.

IF FOR ANY REASON THE BONDING COMPANY OBJECTS TO THESE BONDS, THAT IS A MATTER WHICH IS ENTIRELY UP TO THE CONTRACTORS THEMSELVES. AS TO WHY THE CONTRACTS HAVE NOT BEEN EXECUTED, YOU WILL HAVE TO ASK DIRECTOR TWING OF THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION. I CANNOT KEEP ALL THESE CONTRACTS IN MIND, AND I AM NOT GOING TO DISCUSS THE REASONS FOR DELAY.

"YOU TELL ME THERE IS TROUBLE WITH THE BONDS. I HAVE NOTHING TO SAY ABOUT THAT. I AM NOT GOING TO DISCUSS ANY BONDING BUSINESS UNTIL THE COUNCILMANIC COMMITTEE GETS STARTED. THEN I'LL GIVE THEM ALL MY VIEW."

MAJOR ON BONDING PROB:

"This is the best advertisement to business I can have. No insurance policy will be more welcome. I am quite willing to have the District Attorney investigate me or some person selected by the newspaper or whoever is behind this scheme."

THE QUESTION BEARD ON ALL SIDES IN POLITICAL CIRCLES:

Will Councilmanic committee on the "Police-Killer" case be a success? The question is being asked in political circles.
