

HEXAMER

STOLEN FROM TAILOR'S

THIEVES CLEAN OUT SHOP ON SOUTH FIFTH STREET FOLLOWING POOLMAN'S LAST RUMOR

Woolens amounting in value to $14,000 were stolen from the French tailoring and sporting establishment of Maur Levin, at 228 South Fifth street, this morning.

DOUBTS WHETHER KAISER MADE STATEMENT

Reply to Charge in Senate That Emperor Clashed Him as "King"

Efforts failed today to obtain a reply from Dr. C. Hexamer, former president of the National German American Alliance, to charges that he had been before the Kaiser as a representative of the German people in the Kaiser's study at the latter's residence in Berlin. The charges were made before the subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Judiciary, at Washington, which is hearing evidence in order to ascertain the truth about the Kaiser's alleged statement that he had "clashed" with the emperor.

Dr. Hexamer, who remained in Philadelphia today, said that he had never seen the Kaiser, and that he had never been in Berlin. He said that he had never been in the Kaiser's study, and that he had never been in the Kaiser's study. He said that he had never been in the Kaiser's study, and that he had never been in the Kaiser's study.

16,000,000 CHILDREN OF NATION DEFECTIVE

Alarming Statistics Presented National Educational Meet by Health Experts

By MLISS ATLANTIC CITY, Feb. 26. Startling statistics were flashed to members of the National Educational Association and the thirty auxiliary bodies convening with it in Atlantic City today, when it was pointed out that the total number of pupils enrolled in schools and colleges is but 22,000,000.

The school children of the nation, it was pointed out, are suffering from a variety of defects, most of which are remedial. The school children of the nation, it was pointed out, are suffering from a variety of defects, most of which are remedial.

TRANSIT LEASE FILED WITH SERVICE BOARD

Commission to Set Date for Hearing, Probably in Next Month

The Smith-McCormick lease, whereby the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company is to operate the city's high-speed transit system, was filed with the Public Service Commission at Harrisburg this afternoon.

George T. Atkinson, assistant director of transit, went to the State capital this morning with the agreement and application for a hearing before the Public Service Commission, which was signed by Mayor Smith and other city officials.

BLACK HAND CAUGHT RED-HANDED BY COP

Negro's Story of Accidental Hold on Friend's Money Not Convincing

Just because his hand was found in the pocket of the trousers worn by Allen Brown is not proof that Bill Johnson is a peddler, he says. Johnson's hand was found in the pocket of the trousers worn by Allen Brown.

Johnson was arrested by a police officer who found his hand in the pocket of the trousers worn by Allen Brown. Johnson was arrested by a police officer who found his hand in the pocket of the trousers worn by Allen Brown.

WIND AND RAIN STORM PRECEDE FLOOD HERE

Continued from Page One

The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast.

The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast. The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast.

DAM AT NORRISTOWN MAY BREAK IN FLOOD

Investigation now revealed that the dam at Norristown, Pa., is in a dangerous condition.

Investigation now revealed that the dam at Norristown, Pa., is in a dangerous condition. The dam at Norristown, Pa., is in a dangerous condition.

Investigation now revealed that the dam at Norristown, Pa., is in a dangerous condition. The dam at Norristown, Pa., is in a dangerous condition.

CITY WATER FRONT WELL GUARDED AGAINST ALIEN

U. S. Official Finds Methods Here Efficient and Model for Other Ports

The guard tower which Philadelphia officials are erecting at the city's water front, is being built as a model for other ports.

The guard tower which Philadelphia officials are erecting at the city's water front, is being built as a model for other ports. The guard tower which Philadelphia officials are erecting at the city's water front, is being built as a model for other ports.

COAL SURPLUS HERE; BUY FOR NEXT WINTER

Completion of Municipal Pier 78 and Four Quartermaster's Warehouses Assured by May

With the completion of Municipal Pier No. 78, at McKean street, on the Delaware, as well as the four warehouses opposite that pier, the United States Quartermaster's Department will have at its disposal a significant overseas depot.

With the completion of Municipal Pier No. 78, at McKean street, on the Delaware, as well as the four warehouses opposite that pier, the United States Quartermaster's Department will have at its disposal a significant overseas depot.

SHIPPING BOARD ASKED FOR INSTRUCTION SHIP

Graduates of School for Marine Engineers Need Practical Knowledge, Albrecht Writes

The Philadelphia Board of Marine Engineers has asked the Shipping Board for instruction ships to be used for the training of graduates of the school for marine engineers.

The Philadelphia Board of Marine Engineers has asked the Shipping Board for instruction ships to be used for the training of graduates of the school for marine engineers.

WORKERS COMPLIMENTED

Naval Auxiliary of Red Cross at Lit Store Hears Addresses

Members of the High Branch of the Naval Auxiliary of the Red Cross, composed of employees of the "Six Brothers" store, are today giving added impetus to the work of turning out garments for the boys in the navy.

Members of the High Branch of the Naval Auxiliary of the Red Cross, composed of employees of the "Six Brothers" store, are today giving added impetus to the work of turning out garments for the boys in the navy.

UNABLE TO SOLVE MYSTERY

Coroner's Jury Fails to Place Blame for Auto Tragedy

A Coroner's jury today failed to place the blame for the murder of Francis Clements, twenty-six years old, 150 North Seventeenth street, who was shot by auto bandits February 8, Detective William Callahan told the Coroner.

A Coroner's jury today failed to place the blame for the murder of Francis Clements, twenty-six years old, 150 North Seventeenth street, who was shot by auto bandits February 8, Detective William Callahan told the Coroner.

WOMAN FATALLY BURNED

Mrs. Madeline Beach, forty years old, of 221 Easton street, Camden, was probably fatally burned today when her clothing caught fire.

Mrs. Madeline Beach, forty years old, of 221 Easton street, Camden, was probably fatally burned today when her clothing caught fire.

PEDESTRIANS STRUGGLE AGAINST FEBRUARY "BLOW"

WIND AND RAIN STORM PRECEDE FLOOD HERE

WIND AND RAIN STORM PRECEDE FLOOD HERE

The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast. The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast.

WIND AND RAIN STORM PRECEDE FLOOD HERE

The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast. The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast.

WIND AND RAIN STORM PRECEDE FLOOD HERE

The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast. The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast.

WIND AND RAIN STORM PRECEDE FLOOD HERE

The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast. The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast.

WIND AND RAIN STORM PRECEDE FLOOD HERE

The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast. The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast.

WIND AND RAIN STORM PRECEDE FLOOD HERE

The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast. The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast.

WIND AND RAIN STORM PRECEDE FLOOD HERE

The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast. The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast.

WIND AND RAIN STORM PRECEDE FLOOD HERE

The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast. The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast.

WIND AND RAIN STORM PRECEDE FLOOD HERE

The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast. The wind and rain storm which preceded the flood here today, was the result of a low pressure system moving across the Atlantic coast.

MOTHER AND THREE CHILDREN FLEE FLAMES

Driven From Their Home Into Furious Storm When House Catches Fire

Mrs. Fannie Tschuchman was forced to flee to the street with her three small children as the middle of the second story of her home at 157 Market street caught fire this morning.

HE FIGHTS FOR PEACE

"Jedge" Hears Negro's Romantic Tale With Stony Skepticism and Holds Him for Court

The last, the envious herald of the dawn, was still slumbering at 2 o'clock this morning when the West Philadelphia version of Romeo and Juliet was "pulled off." Likewise Jim Lee, a Sino-que from birth and a catalyst of all the virtues of a laundryman by choice, lay sleeping in a room over his laundry at 611 Market street. All was peace.

MORE BALLOT FRAUDS IN 28TH ARE CHARGED

Town Meeting Man Says Federal Agents Had Evidence in 1916—Kane Cryptic

The statement at the Town Meeting party rally of the Twenty-eighth Ward by Frank H. Schrenk, an attorney, with office in the Policy Building, that evidence was gathered by agents of the Department of Justice showed that gross frauds were committed in the South Philadelphia wards in the election of 1916.

ARREST IS BOYS AS CAR THIEVES, 10 MORE KNOWN

Lads Accused by Police Tell of Others Who They Say Stole Merchandise

Eighteen boys, arrested by the police of the Twenty-eighth ward and Woodland avenue, for robbing boys' carts on the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railway, are in the House of Detention and the police say they will introduce evidence against them.

LITTLE THING LIKE FIRE FAILS TO EXCITE THEM

Salzman Family Calm in Presence of Danger From Flame and Smoke

Magistrate Harris, at the Thirty-first and Thompson street police station later today, Archie said earnestly that he had come to Philadelphia from Atlantic City, his only intention being to see his mother, Mrs. Archie Salzman, who was a young colored woman whom he knew to have been employed by Jim Lee.

17 INCOME TAX OFFICES TO RELIEVE CONGESTION

Collector Lederer Opens Branch Stations to Take Burden From Federal Building

Seventeen additional income tax offices have been opened in various parts of the city to relieve the congestion at the Federal Building.

ESTATE GOES TO LITTLE SISTERS OF POOR

After Death of Testatrix's Brother

Contingent upon the death of a brother, the will of Kate S. Melcher, 2845 West Huntingdon street, leaves an estate of $100,000 to the Little Sisters of the Poor, an orphan home, and the Little Sisters of the Poor, an orphan home, and the Little Sisters of the Poor, an orphan home.

WAR FUND OVERSUBSCRIBED

Lutherans Here Raise $5000 Above $30,000 Allotment

Frank M. Ritter, treasurer of the Lutheran War Commission for Soldiers and Sailors, announced today that the quota for the Lutheran War Fund here had been oversubscribed by $5000, the sum of $35,000 having been raised to date.

39 WOULD BE LIUTENANTS

Detectives and Sergeants Qualify for Police Bureau Vacancies

Thirty-nine detectives and sergeants of the Police Bureau are qualified for the position of lieutenant.

WATCHMAN ACCUSED OF STEALING COAL

Mysterious disappearance of coal from the yard of the Williams Coal Company, at Twenty-fifth and Dauphin streets, during the last few weeks has been cleared up by the arrest last night of John Seaman, of 2111 Gordon street, the night watchman at the yard.

WOMAN FATALLY BURNED

Mrs. Madeline Beach, forty years old, of 221 Easton street, Camden, was probably fatally burned today when her clothing caught fire.

Mrs. Madeline Beach, forty years old, of 221 Easton street, Camden, was probably fatally burned today when her clothing caught fire.