

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

By FONTAINE FOX

PERSONS AND EVENTS LOOMING LARGE IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY

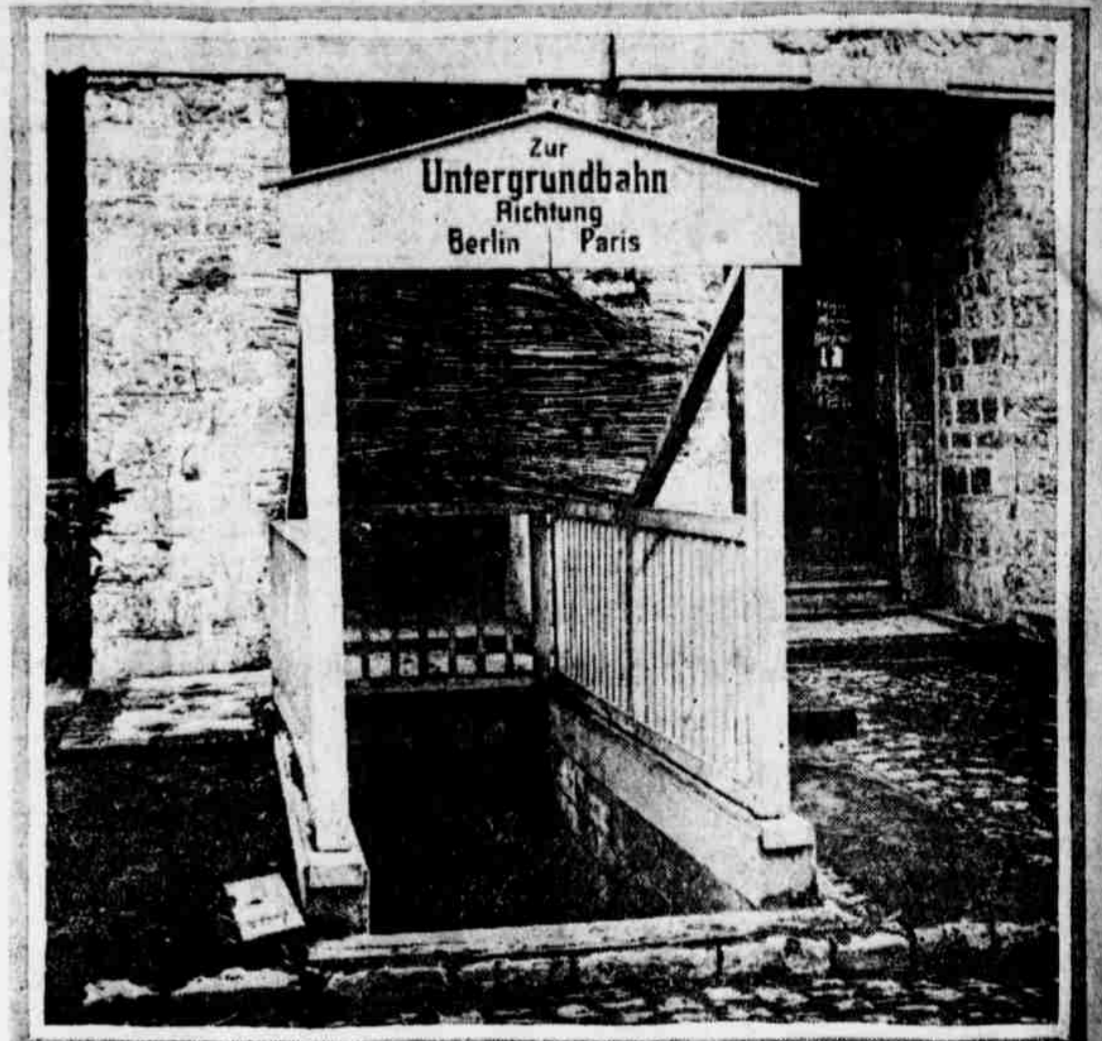

IT IS VERY ADVISABLE ONCE IN A WHILE TO CHANGE THE ARRANGEMENT OF THE FURNITURE AND ORNAMENTS OF A LIVING ROOM.

(Copyright.)

The First Member of Congress to Fly Over the Capitol Was Senator Harry E. New (Standing), Who Accompanied Colonel Charles L. Lee, of the British Flying Corps.

The Germans Were So Sure That They Would Get to Paris Through Verdun That They Constructed Subway Stations for a Paris-Berlin Transit System. One of These, Shown Above, Fell Into the Hands of the French During the Latter's Counter-Offensive.

Citizens Dissatisfied With the Condition of Streets in Their Neighborhood May Find a Solution in the Example of the Walter Bradley Coal Company Which Set Its Employees to Work Today Cleaning Thompson Street Between Eighth and Ninth Streets When Complaints to the City Brought No Response.

Members of Troop Seventeen, Girl Scouts of Philadelphia, Who Under the Leadership of Captain Rebecca T. Mayer and Lieutenant Marion L. Rose Sold $7173.25 Worth of War-Savings Stamps.

"IT'S AN ILL WIND, ETC."

"It is usually felt in the trade that the cigarette smoker will first, and most noticeably, feel the pinch."

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

I haven't will enough to keep my time for worthy ends. I'm always struggling in a net of superficial friends.

—London Opinion.

One of These Old Ones
Judge—What is your full name?
Drunk—Same as when I'm sober.—Orange Peel.

ILLUSTRATED EXPRESSIONS

SO! A WOMAN IN THE CASE, EH?
HEH-HEH-HEH-HEH!!
(HEARING VILLAINS LAUGH)

—Harvard Lampoon.

'Nuff Sed
"How did you hit the exams?"
"Like a tomato hits a brick wall." — Dartmouth Jack-o'-Lantern.

A Gradual Decline
Minister—Ah, my man, to what depths have you fallen!
Inebriated One—(His) Didn't fall. (His) Jus' led down 't' res' a while.
—Gargoyle.

It Does Make a Difference
"You formerly favored an income tax. Why the change?"
"Now I have an income."—Judge.

The Young Lady Across the Way

A Pun for a Change

—The Purple Cow.
John Doe—What is it you like best about Marian's singing?
Gladys Canby—Oh, the refrain, I guess.

SCHOOL DAYS

—Gosh, look how your dog is scared o' my dog! Ain't that funny how he's shiverin' with fear under the sink? Gee, wait, I would n't have a mutt like your dog! Let's make 'em fight a little, will ya? Ain't my dog brave an' strong lookin'? Gosh, I betcha he could kill your dog in about two bites, don't you?—

The lady (once young) on this side of the way remarked that it was shameful for those horrid bucket shops to charge the poor so much for coal, and that they ought to be put out of business for it.

They Have Cops at Camp Meade Just as in Civilian Life, Excepting That Military Policemen Are Substituted for the Customary Bluecoats. In the Photograph Is a Quintet of These Military Cops. Reading, Left to Right, Are Captain William Bailey, Lieutenant Fred B. Greene, Corporals J. Dock and J. M. Goodchild and Sergeant A. Frederickson.

Cans of Whale Meat, Such as the Above, Are Finding Their Way Into the United States From Japan, Where Whale Has Long Been a Popular Food.

Fleet of Sixty United States Motor Transports Which Arrived in Philadelphia Late Yesterday Afternoon From Trenton en Route to "Somewhere in America" Encamped for the Night on City Hall Plaza.