

'NO NECESSITY' PLEA OF FOES OF LICENSE

Strong Remonstrances Against Coatesville and Downingtown Applications

West Chester, Pa., March 19. Hearings are being held today in the License Court on remonstrances filed by the Chester County no-license committee against Louis D. Gibney, who wants a license at the Pennsylvania House, and David M. Martin, who asks privilege at the Swan Hotel, Downingtown. No necessity is the plea of the remonstrants, who point out that the licensees of both applicants were revoked by the court last year for disobedience of the liquor laws and gross infirmities.

MYERS STOPS ACTION ON CASUALTY LISTS

Montana Senator Holds Up Resolution Asking War Department to Explain

Washington, March 19.—Senator Myers, of Montana, this afternoon blocked the adoption of Senator Harry New's resolution calling on the War Department for an explanation of its order suppressing all information except names in casualty lists. Unanimous consent was required to adopt the resolution this afternoon and Senator Myers made the only objection. Senator Townsend, of Michigan, pleaded with Senator Myers not to object.

N. Y. ASSEMBLY ANGERED BY WHITMAN MESSAGE

Answers It by Again Considering Referendum Amendment to Prohibition Resolution

Albany, N. Y., March 19.—Smarting under what many termed unwarranted interference by the Governor, the Assembly today again considered its referendum amendment to the resolution ratifying Federal prohibition. It seems certain that the referendum will pass the lower house by a larger majority than it originally received.

COFFEE, FRUITS, FACE CUT TO SAVE TONNAGE

Wheat and Beef to Get Ship Space Occupied by Nonessentials

Washington, March 19. While measures are being formulated for greatly restricting consumption of certain staples in this country, particularly cereals, the Government is taking steps to further conserve tonnage. Andre Tardieu, French high commissioner, warned the country of the serious food situation in France in an address at Baltimore last night. He declared wheat consumption in his country had been reduced 25 per cent and in many districts there was no bread at all.

Nonessentials to be curtailed shipping shortage, even with the addition of 700,000 tons of Dutch shipping, is so great that it is necessary to curtail nonessentials in order to save space.

War supplies, such as ammunition wagons, trucks and gun carriers, are being crated in the smallest possible space, changes in construction even having been ordered in some cases to enable more compact crating.

What Shipped in Steamers

Shipping experts say if even 20 per cent of shipping space can be used, this is equivalent to adding one ship in five to the fleet in war service.

Livestock Receipts Increase

Receipts of livestock at the eight principal markets for February were 11,824 cars more than for the same month last year.
