

OR LONELY AND BUSY WOMEN: A JOB THAT'S MEANT FOR BOTH

Four Country Needs You to Help Sell Liberty Bonds—A Chance to Show How You Feel About the War

MAYBE your boy isn't one of the American engineers General Pershing has reported as being in the thick of the life-and-death battle in progress on the other side of the water.

ALL of this is simply by way of asking you to devote some of your time during the three weeks beginning April 5 to helping the Woman's Liberty Loan Committee of Philadelphia sell Liberty Bonds.

The principal jobs for the women consist in house-to-house canvassing and the department store canvassing. To volunteer for them one has only to send in her name, address, ward and the amount of time to be devoted to the work.

WOMEN who would like to undertake this work and feel they are not experienced need not hesitate. The salesmen are receiving expert instruction in specially established schools in various parts of the city.

IF YOU are lonesome here's a chance for you to forget all about your own troubles. If you're busy, well, here's a chance for you to give a very good imitation of the soldier boy who went abroad.

THEY might shut the door in my face," said one timid little woman. Well, we hardly think so. The most any one can do is to refuse to buy a bond, and that's all.

BLANCHE BATES TELLS WOMEN TO BE PATIENT AND WIN WAR

Noted Actress Comes Back to Stage After Six Years' Retirement to Help Her Country in Fight for World Freedom

THE spirit of patience—this is the message of Blanche Bates to Philadelphia women. Patience that they may back up the men already in the service of their country; patience that they may urge the men to make the most of their tremendous sacrifice, to volunteer for the fight to down the German.

BLANCHE BATES Noted actress, who, in an appeal for immediate enlistments in branches of the service now open, urges all women to get behind the man behind the gun.

SOLDIER'S WIFE WANTS TO GO WITH HUSBAND "OVER THERE"

Presence of American Women Would Steel the Troops, Says Mrs. Geckler, Urging Permission to Share War's Fortunes With Men

EDITORIAL FOR WOMEN WRITTEN BY A WOMAN

By MRS. W. L. GECKLER Wife of Captain Geckler, 112th Engineers, Camp Sheridan

THE wives of American men want to go to France. Unlike Penelope, who remained patiently at home while her husband, Ulysses, achieved valiant feats on the battlefields, America's womanhood is anxious to play the role of soldier-wife in France.

Frank C. Reese, of the Anthracite Consumers' League, charged that conditions which are threatening to deprive many children of adequate education are due to the political power of the "coal trust," which is enabled in this country, he alleges, to get its lands assessed at one-twentieth of the proper figure.

WOMEN'S INCOME-TAX RETURNS RIVAL MEN'S; SURPRISE AGENTS

Salaries Reveal Importance in Nation's Business Life. Mistakes and "Foolish Questions" Rare, Say Revenue Officials

THE increasingly important part women are playing in the business and commercial life of this country and the ever-growing numbers of women who are throwing off the fetters of conventional thinking into a life of independent effort are made graphically clear by the income-tax returns now being filed.

THE business and professional status of women is almost equal to that of men, and unequal only because there is such a preponderantly larger number of men engaged in business and industry. The truth of this fact began to filter through the natural prejudices of the various male agents in the Internal Revenue office when it became known and more apparent that an unexpectedly large number of women were filing income-tax returns.
