

WOMAN SUFFRAGE LEADS FOR SEX

Miss Martin, Candidate for Senator From Nevada, Gives Views

WOULD AVOID STRIKES

Women, She Declares, Could Solve With Ease Problems That Perplex Men

"If there were women on the shipping board now we would have more ships ready to meet the nation's vital need. Nor would we be torn with labor strikes as we now are over housing problems. With a woman's hand in the task there would be no problem. Just a simple matter of homes, not of housing, and there's all the difference in the world between the two. There is no difference between men and women."

So did Miss Anne Martin of Nevada, first woman candidate for United States Senator, through down the ballot today to opponents of women in public affairs.

Woman's sphere, according to Miss Martin's earnest belief, is just wherever she can make her contribution of service greatest, and that she stands ready in need of the multiplied service that she only waits her full enfranchisement to give.

"A woman on the shipping board would have been swift to see that the men workers must have the comforts of home. She followed her first vehement assertion more calmly. "Her specialized training for generations in the things of the home would have suggested that to her. She wouldn't have waited until she had a full-fledged strike on her hands before realizing it."

Since men think instinctively in large abstractions and in terms of money, and women in concrete, immediate terms of practical usefulness, there will always exist a need for both men and women on the well-balanced committee, Miss Martin declared. American men, not yet fully enfranchised, have been cheating themselves unconsciously all these cruel first years of the war; but the coming of suffrage will change that, she prophesied.

"Oh, yes, 'Suffrage First' is still my slogan," said this red-checked, virile daughter of the Sagebrush State, when asked about the fight before her. "I have now and since November, when the Independent party will ask her home State to elect her to fill Senator Nevada's unexpired term. "You see, suffrage to me comprehends the whole issue of woman's best interests to her age."

End of Suffrage Fight in Sight. "I am announcing my candidacy for the Senate at this time because I feel that the end of the long fight for the Federal suffrage amendment is in sight. Suffrage has become an issue which neither party can afford to neglect, since it has become a political issue its speedy success is assured."

"Woman's voice should especially be heard in the Senate at this time because of the protection of women and children in industry; to keep sane and healthful the hours and conditions under which they work, and to provide equal pay for equal work to the great masses of women who are being called to take men's places. Especially, too, should women's experience be utilized to guide legislation relating to the problem of food and clothing."

"I am running an independent candidate because I have always been independent of any party," she explained further. "That is, I believe in issues rather than parties. I would have not the slightest objection, for instance, to a caucus with Penrose and Knox, gave the two last votes needed for the successful passage of the Federal amendment," she added. "Suffrage is a distinctly Republican principle for equity, five-sixths of the Senators being already pledged to support the measure."

At the dinner to be given to Miss Martin at the Bellevue-Stratford this evening many prominent suffragists will be present. She will leave for Nevada tomorrow.

Automobile Strikes Girl. Marie Prendergast, of 292 1/2 Lehigh avenue, was run down by an automobile today, while crossing Seventeenth and Chestnut streets. She was taken to the Hospital, where her condition is said to be serious. Albert Reese, of 251 Wyoming avenue, the driver of the motor, was arrested after he took the injured girl to the hospital.

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES. Jacob P. Schmitzer, Wayne ave., and Jennie Schmitzer, Souderton, Pa. George B. Miner, 2530 N. Myrtle st., and Elizabeth C. Houston, 111 E. 12th st. Nathan Burrell, 300 W. M. Pleasant st., and Margaret J. Darnell, 300 W. M. Pleasant st. Robert M. Johnson, 2100 N. Myrtle st., and Margaret Poole, Francis H. Dunn and John H. Cook, 2912 Rye st. and John G. Fisher, 1049 Tuxedo st. William J. Johnson, 2100 N. Myrtle st., and Ethel N. Bennett, 273 S. Alden st. Edward R. Farnsworth, 222 S. Myrtle st., and Madeline Miller, 3538 Locust st. Stephen H. Wiley, Jr., 1522 S. Myrtle st., and Virginia E. Douglas, 1212 S. Myrtle st. and William J. Johnson, 2100 N. Myrtle st., and Madeline Miller, 3538 Locust st. William J. Johnson, 2100 N. Myrtle st., and Madeline Miller, 3538 Locust st. William J. Johnson, 2100 N. Myrtle st., and Madeline Miller, 3538 Locust st.

Estates in Private Bequests. Will probated today were those of James M. Johnson, 111 E. 12th st., which in private bequests disposes of property valued at $45,000; Dr. George W. Johnson, 111 E. 12th st., $25,000; M. Genay, 2439 North Grays street, $2000; Anna R. Stager, 5714 Rodman street, $1000; Richard J. Johnson, 111 E. 12th st., $500; William H. St. John's Hospital, $4000, and Edward J. Johnson, Philadelphia General Hospital, $3000.

Mayor to Capital. City Solicitor and Controller Will Accompany Executive to Washington Tomorrow. It was decided during a conference in the Mayor's office that Mayor Smith, City Solicitor Connolly and City Controller Johnson will leave for Washington tomorrow and go to Washington tomorrow and present to the capital issue committee, Philadelphia's immediate needs.

ALLIES GET ONE-HALF OF U. S. WHEAT SUPPLY. Further Curtailment of 20 Per Cent of Flour Consumption Is Ordered. Washington, March 27.—The Administration's control of licensed mills and distributors, it is estimated will effect the curtailment of wheat consumption to 50 per cent of normal, determined upon by the food administration. Instead of 30 per cent of the country's output of flour being taken for export, it was explained today approximately 50 per cent will be purchased by the Food Administration Grain Corporation, which in turn sells to the Allies, according to their actual needs. The remaining 50 per cent is available for domestic use and is apportioned as equitably as possible. The scale of actual consumption...

GIRL SECRETARY IN MUNYON WILL

Say Patent Medicine Maker Left $10,000 to Employe

SON FILES CAVEAT

Property Disposed of by Testator Valued at Million Dollars

Munyon Epitaph Written by Himself Made Public. Dr. James M. Munyon wrote his own epitaph. And it will be carved on the headstone at his grave. His son, James M. Munyon, Jr., has just made it public. Here it is: "If I ever reach that great good place When names are blended into one common race, Where caste is unknown, where creeds are no more, Where the rich and the poor alike enter the door, I shall hear a Voice say, 'There's a jewel for Thee. As ye did unto others Ye did unto me.'"

Should the will of the late Dr. James M. Munyon, of patent-medicine fame, against which a caveat has been filed, be probated, Miss Bessie L. Bixler, a young woman, will receive the income of a bequest said to amount to $1,000,000.

Miss Bixler was employed by Doctor Munyon, who died recently at West Palm Beach, Fla., as his private secretary. She was in Doctor Munyon's employ for fourteen years.

Both will be placed on trial next June. Werner and Doctor Darrow were acquitted yesterday of the charge of treason, after Judge Dickinson, in the United States District Court, had ordered the jury to render such a verdict.

Indictment on Espionage Charge Will Bring Them Before Jury in June. The indictments against Louis Werner and Dr. Martin Darrow, editors of the Philadelphia Tagblatt, for violating the espionage act, will not be dropped by the Government, according to Federal officials.

HAD BURGLAR TOOLS; ARE HELD FOR HEARING. Police Take Three Men Series of Robberies. Possession of burglar tools and the inability to show that they had been regularly employed at any but alleged criminal enterprises today caused Magistrate Burt to hold three men under $1200 bail for further hearing April 8.

They were arrested by Detectives James and Schaefer in a lodging house on Seventh and Race streets. They failed to satisfactorily explain a number of tools, including a "diamond" and other paraphernalia, of the kind hidden beneath the bed of their room.

Open Bids for Grading Streets. Proposals were received by the Department of Public Works today for the grading of Emerald, Silver and Storer streets, between Lehigh avenue and Commerce street. The estimated cost of the improvement is $105,000.

SON'S ARREST DRIVES FATHER TO END LIFE. Alien German, Grieving Over Charge Against Offspring, Hangs Himself to Door. Grief over the arrest of his son George, charged with larceny, is the cause given for the suicide of Adolph Peipper, forty-two years old, an alien German, in notes found today in his home, 83-1/2 eighth street and Virginia avenue. Peipper hanged himself.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

PRIZE-WINNING WORKERS IN HOSPITAL CAMP AIGN

Emergency aides in the ten-day drive of the Rush Hospital to raise $150,000, who were honored at the daily luncheon in the Bellevue-Stratford as the prize winning team for the day are shown in the picture. The group includes the Misses Virginia Harris, Nancy Sellers, Dorothy Blair, Louise Newlin, Constance Von Buskeret, Louise Caldwell, who looks Takewick and Frances Leaf, and Mrs. W. Simpson and Mrs. Lpton Favorite.

COMPLETION OF "L" UP TO GOVERNMENT

City Heads Will Pass on Other Improvement Suspension at Conference Today. What municipal work is absolutely necessary and what can be abandoned until the close of the war was the question discussed by Mayor Smith and departmental heads at a conference today. Mayor Smith is determined to aid the Government in every way possible and intends to stop all but the most pressing undertakings.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

U-BOAT VICTIM DEAD; WAS REPORTED SAVED. Charles Daniels, of Camden, Drowned in Atlantic Sun Disaster. Charles P. Daniels died in the torpedoing of the Philadelphia tank steamer Atlantic Sun, according to word received by relatives at 432 North Eighth street, Camden, today, contradicting yesterday's news that he was safe.

PENROSE WILL MAKE FIGHT FOR BEIDLEMAN

To Show People "Weakness" of Scott as Candidate. Senator Penrose has announced that he will support Scott to the limit, so there are indications that the announcement of the Beidleman candidacy, with strong Penroses support, will bring a spirited contest. Many politicians thought Beidleman's announcement was the result of an effort of the Penrose followers to "save their face" in view of the repeated assertions of Senator Vare that they could take "Scott or fight."

HUME MAY ANNOUNCE HIS CANDIDACY TODAY

Pittsburgher Will Enter Democratic Race for Governor, Friends Here Say. E. Lowry Hume, United States District Attorney at Pittsburgh, will announce today his candidacy for Governor, according to friends here today.

QUITS $4000 CITY JOB TO ASSIST UNCLE SAM. W. Purves Taylor, Highway Engineer, Will Aid Housing Director of Shipping Board. In order to enter the Federal service, W. Purves Taylor today resigned his $4000 position as principal assistant engineer of the Bureau of Highways.

DIES AFTER GOLDEN WEDDING. Old Employee of Baldwin's Celebrated Only Week Ago. A week after celebrating his golden wedding anniversary, Charles Holman, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, died today, following a brief illness. Mr. Holman was a contractor in the employ of the Baldwin Locomotive Works. He entered the employ of that concern in 1867.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

GOVERNOR NAMES TWO ARBOR DAYS

Asks Inclusion of Bird Day April 12 and 26. Governor Brumbaugh, declaring that a "treeless country" cannot be a great country, today issued a proclamation designating Friday, April 12, and Friday, April 26, as Spring Arbor Days in Pennsylvania, and asked for tree-planting throughout the State to correct the error of a former day. He advocated making Bird Day a part of Arbor Day.

CITY'S PUPILS LEARN LIBERTY LOAN SONG

Catchy Melody Will Be Taught in Public Schools to Aid Campaign. "CATECHISM" IS ISSUED. Union League Pamphlet Distributed to Answer Queries on Bonds' Meaning. Copies of the official Liberty Loan song, "What Are You Going to Do to Help Us Win the War," were distributed today among the public schools of the city. This will be taught all of the pupils during the regular singing lessons in their classrooms.

It is sung to a catchy air with a swing to it and made an enormous hit yesterday at the closing of the two-day Liberty Loan song drive at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, when it made its first official appearance. The Union League today issued a Liberty Loan catechism, showing what would happen if Germany won the war. The burden imposed upon France, following the Franco-Prussian war, is taken as a basis for the figures given. The pamphlet, which will be widely distributed, says, following a number of questions and answers: "A Liberty Bond fights for America. An indemnity would pay for Germany's victory over us. A Liberty Bond feeds and arms an American soldier. An indemnity bond would pay for the gun and food of a German army."

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

Urging that Bird Day be included in Arbor Day, the proclamation reads: "A boy that harms a bird is not a good American boy. Our song birds are among our blessed ministries. They should be protected and welcomed. We need trees for their refuge and nest, and water supply, food-animal life, insect-eating and song birds and fruits and nuts, together with improved environments for health and recreation and a betterment of highways. It stresses also the spiritual and beautiful viewpoint of trees.

PROPOSE ARMY COURSE IN ALL PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Board of Education Considers Military Training by U. S. Officers. Military training centers in public and high schools, with United States Army officers as instructors, is being considered by the Board of Education, it became known today. A rifle range already has been put up in the attic of the Philadelphia High School for Boys, and besides that school are given military drills.

WHEELER'S ARREST

Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a defendant convicted of such a crime since the legislature enacted a statute giving jurisdiction in drug cases to city and county courts. Before the Patterson was arrested March 12 by a member of the "vice squad" who saw the defendant pass a package of cocaine to a negro and receive money for it. When arrested, Patterson had nine packages of cocaine and a small bottle of heroin in his possession. He has been convicted on nine previous occasions for dealing in drugs.

WHEELER'S ARREST. Heaviest State Court Sentence Imposed on Negro. Judge Henry, in the Court of Quarter Sessions today, sentenced Charles S. Patterson, a negro, of Lombard street near Eighteenth, to three years in the County prison for selling narcotic drugs. This is the heaviest sentence imposed by the State courts on a