erate statute law against the activi-des of spies, truitors and the assidu-ous spreaders of sedition.

The entire day was spent by the senate in a debate on proposed amendments to the espionage act. Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, assailed the Government for treating actual spies with tenderness when they should be shot and said that until the death penalty is meted out to those who are working directly in Germany's interest pro-Germanism will continue to flour-ish here. He counseled against any
