

And they call it Kultur

OVER there in the thick of bullets, shells, gas and flame, Liberty struggles against Tyranny and Treachery. At its best and cleanest it is HELL.

But out of the sweat and blood of battling men has come crawling the slimy bestiality of a foe that stops at nothing to plant fear in the heart of enemies that shock of battle cannot stir.

No arm can ever right the wrongs of little girls, innocent maids, honest wives and noble mothers, who have suffered the unspeakable lusts of the brutes turned loose upon them.

No vengeance can undo a single mite of the awful sum of wanton wrongs committed by the Boches in the name of war.

But, we free men and women of America WE can say now, "This craven Prussian crowd that winks at the sacrilege of every sacred human right must be and shall be disarmed of every power to ever endanger civilization again."

Fathers! Mothers of America! Your Government has drawn the sword in such a war as the world has never seen. That sword will never be sheathed until the Hun is whipped.

America needs your money to help her save the world from vileness. Save and lend your savings that her mighty power in all its tremendous force may be rushed into the trenches where victory is trembling in the
