THE SUNSHINE SOME LETTERS DO NOT SHED IN THE CAMPS—BUILDING BABY'S NURSERY—RECIPES

EVERY LETTER IN FIVE WAS A DOWNCAST ONE

Fifty Thousand a Day Came to the Camp, and This Was the Percentage of Sunshine—Mary Roberts Rinehart Tells About Women and Their Soldiers

ARE women behind the war? The women who are asked to give soldiers? You will not hear this matter esed very much in the open on who are turning down their country do not particularly care to advertise the fact. But sometimes, in small groups of intimates, in traveling here and there, one learns things.

For some months Mary Roberts Rinehart has been making observations on the attitude of women toward the war. She has observed all classes—the farmer's wife, the woman on the ranch, the clerk's wife, the laborer's and the weman of leisure and wealth. Mrs. Rinehart has two sons in the service. She didn't have to use her twastington in scarching the heart of nagination in searching the heart of be American woman. Just a look sto her own heart made things un-

"In ANY discussion of the general attitude of our women to the war," Mrs. Rineburt says, describing ber findings in the April McClure's.
"It is necessary to take the best and the worst, as well as that vast class which comes under neither heading.
This is unfair to the best type of American woman, more than fair to these. But in the real is is not to these. But in the real is is not to these. others. But in the main it is just. It strikes an average.

she writes. It lies, first, in the psychology of the woman herself. She is an individualist. Her horizon is generally bounded by the walls of her home. To protect that home she will light, will even die. Her vizilance is eternal. She thinks in terms of the family. It is her nation. Almost it is her religion. Certainly her religion is founded on it. To any hing, then, that threatens the home she is antagonistic. And it is difficult to convince her tic. And it is difficult to convince her today of the fundamental fact of this war, that it is for the homes of this country that it is being fought."

The latest thing in leather is made of the skins of sturgeons and sharks. Theodore Metzger, a chemist, has invented

Women, on the whole, Mrs. Hinehart has observed, minimize the im-portance of the influence of the woman at home on the soldier at the front or in camp. In one great army camp, where 50,000 letters come in each day and most of these written by women, it was found by very careful investi, and greater tensile strength than ordinate the dark has just been put on gation that every letter in five was send a soldier into the depths for that day and greatly lower his efficiency.

Judging by this, Mrs. Rinshart des leather will cost just about half as much glass rube somathing a tiny bar of sturgeon and short half as much glass rube somathing a tiny bar of sturgeon and short half as much glass rube sometimes that 150 000 men in 15 men and 150 men and

Use Your Influence

Perhaps the woman with the good clothes and the jewels who is citting next to you in the ten room may hear you ask the waitress to bring you corn bread instead of wheat rolls. She has seen posters, read articles and listened to speeches on "saving wheat," She knows this must be done, but she has not taken on herself the responsibility of doing it. Your request for corn bread made her a bit uncomfortable. Possibly the next time she orders bread she will ask for corn bread too! Use your

"And it is only fair to say that the investigation, while bringing out much of lofty patriotism and high courage has not been entirely satisfactory. The average has been low."

Mrs. Rinkhart meant to make include an attack nor a defense of the average woman's attitude. This attitude she brings out is more than understandable. But it is fatally wrong.

The average has been low."

Mrs. Rinehart has found the higher the intelligence of the woman the more willing she has been to do her part.

"And by intelligence," she explains." I do not mean culture. I have found almost sublime sarrifice among women to whom already duily and hourly such found the grossest selfishness amform women who are giving freely from large incomes, because it is the thing to do, but who are withholding, by every means in their power, their husbands and sons from service."

Mrs. Rinehart has found the higher the intelligence of the woman disch course and a great class. And undoubtedly we will find, as have disch course at war, the same high course the women of the war-ling countries the worder and awe of the world."

Mrs. Rinehart has found the higher the intelligence of the woman the more willing every mean a constitute of the rank and file of our women refers to the situation before the fact.
