PERATIC FESTIVAL AT METROPOLITAN

'Coq d'Or' and 'L'Oracolo' Presented in Evening; 'II

Trovatore' at Matinee SUPERB SLAVIC NOVELTY

Ha dell'Arte," sood yet today ranking dy attined in plant-colored

MOTHERS' PROBLEMS

For the Children's Year

By MARY L. READ, B. S.

an epilogue proglaims that he and the queen are the only real personages in the

It was instituted that the imaginative charm of such a pair fathric would ap-peal to the graphic musical delineator of the "Thomsand and One Nights" as evi-denced in the fuscinating "Schelectuade" suite. The atmosphere of that orchestral master work is indeed often recalled in "Les" on d'Or," with the difference that here a spirit of impich hamor underlies the remarkicism. The time city of a unique manager of the interpretation, both as regards amosurpiece. The top pontominalists and vocalists, could hardly have been bettered. Outstanding feaaction of the piece is vividly by the accomplished dancers of translation's corps do hather to matines performance of ore brought forward some desiles the plea. The enchanted fowl pecks him to death, and the wizard in THAN AN ACTUAL FIGHT, WAR NURSE SAYS FAMOUS PRIMA DONNA ON SUIT BY HUSBAND

Belgian Refugees Leaving Antwerp-

All the Ills Known to Man Overtook the Wounded and Dying Being Rushed From Antwerp in the Uncomfortable London Buses—The Plight of Civilian Fugitives Seeking to Escape the Hun Advance Was Pitiable

"AT THE BACK OF THE FRONT"

A WAR MURSUS DIARA—NO. I

Copposite 1218, he Polate Legge to.

HOW can I ever describe that journing the common and a half hours? No one but those who went through it can realize it. Have you our poor men suffered. To begin with our poor men suffered. To begin with even traversing the smooth London streets these vehicles jelt you to bits while inside jhe smell of burned gas oline is often stiffing; so just imagine these unwieldy titings hamping over these unwieldy titings hamping over with the gaptain of the Belgian Boy

I a WAR MURSUS DIARA—NO. I

The jolting and agony made them violently sick. Seeking any utensit which had been gaptain of the theatre I have had their orders to refleve Antwerp, so to Antwerp they went, anover to refleve. At last that weary night came to an end. For some hours I had been remained the family. After some time of slow in the rain and cold. The medical stuffers withing on the muddy banks of a ditch sharing the last leaf among the family. After some time of slow traveling we came to St. Nicolas. Here the peasants van out warning us, "The Germans have taken the main road to Ghent and blown up the bridge." So we went on by little lanes of the suburbs of Ghent, (ONTINUED TOMOREOW.)

DRYS WINNING NEW YORK of the Belgian Boy with us a captain of the Belgian Boy Final Results of Local Option Elecoline is often stiffing; so just imagine these unwieldy things bumping over robblestones and the loose sandy ruts. We were very fortunate to having with us a captain of the Belgian Boy Scouts. He knew the way and guided tions Will Not Be Known Until comblestones and the loose sandy ruts of rough trucks among the sand-dunes, which constantly necessitated every one who could dismoniting and pushing and pulling by ropes in front to get the vehicle hato an upright

Hell Let Loose

Schumann-Heink Will Appear It's Not Filed Yet, But Lawyer pleting the short circuit of

to Help Push Sale of Bonds tion of It

BUTCH" McDEVITT ALSO

EDDYSTONE TO HEAR

Character Will Urge Arms Makers Probford has shown a telegram in court, raw material delivery was discu to Support U. S. With Cash as Well as Work immently as follows:

Barre, the "millionaire for a day," and to protect her reputation. We have heard Government might fix the price of Barre, the "millionaire for a may all kinds of rumors that Mrs. Fairbanks is hed textiles without setting a price for take part in events in Chester and Eddy- was going to do this and that Mr. Moore the raw materials for such products. It was going to do that, but thus far no- was reported Japan is selling knit goods suched to help those places raise their was going to do that, but thus far noquoian for the Third Liberty Loan, according to announcements made today,
The talented singer is scheduled to appear in the armory in Chester in a short time to sing and make an appeal

pear in the armory in Chester in a short time to sing and make an appeal for Liberty Loan subscriptions.

"Butch" McDevitt is expected to be the enief speaker at the Remington Arms plant, Eddystone, next Thiesday, when the second weekly mans-meeting will be held there. The pairioth demonstration held yesterday at Eddystone at which James C Forbett entertained 17.000 munitions workers with an appeal for aid in winning the war by lending financial assistance, marked the first of a series of weekly meetings which the plant proposes to hold.

While the Liberty Loan campage is plant proposes to hold.

While the Liberty Loan camps go is under way McDovitt and others will talk for its success. Should the loan go "over the top," as it is expected it will, the meetings will continue to keep at a high tension the particular of the employes, the purpose being not only constantly to bring to their attention the necessity of thoir sticking to work but to cause additional workness to take up hardens in down the kanser.

The Resignator workness are gratified.

The Resultation workmen are gratified almost to a man at the spicedid showing they are making. Officials of the plant say that 60 per cent of the rifles being used by American soldiers are turned out at this plant. Major W. A. Garrett, assistant general manager, unde the following statement:

"When the Allied forces triumphantly entered Jerusalem many of them were equipped with Enfield rifles made by Remington men at the Remington plant at Eddystone. And when the Americans go over the Rhine into Berlin they will be equipped with Enfield rifles turned out here. If it wasn't for the Remington game very few of our soldiers would be equipped with rifles tolers would be equipped with rifles to-

COMPOSER IS SOLOIST FOR MATINEE MUSICAL

H. Clough-Leighter and His Wife Visiting Artists at

H. Clough-Leighter and C Cotton Marshall (Mrs. C. Clough-Leighter) were the visiting acloists at yesterday's context of the Matinee Musical Club, the twelffin of the "All American" series, under the ausnices of this sterling organization, which again drew a large audience of members and other music levers to the Rose Garden of the Edlevue-Stratford. The selection and arrangement of the program and the successful conduct of the concert were a tribute to the musically good taste and the executive capacity of Mrs. William B. Mount (Mary Miller Mount), and Mrs. Camille Zeckwer, who were in charge.

The program was widely varied in its

in the rain and cold. The medical students were so worn out that they lay down in the parrow passage between the seats and slept, obtivious of our trampling over them. Before dawn we entered the suburbs of Ghent. (CONTINUED TOMOREOW.)

DRYS WINNING NEW YORK CITIES, REPORTS SHOW

Final Results of Local Option Elections Will Not Be Known Until Tonight

Albany, April 17— Invalventes who managed the campaign for ratification of the Federal prohibition amendment in New York State during the legislative was also heard in three other Bullegin understrain that they lay the test of white was also heard in three other Bullegin understrain the results of Edward to the successes of that program was widely varied in it appeal, including orchestral, vocal and repeal, including orchestral, vocal and repeal, including conclusions of which was also heard in the effective though small club orchestra, to effective the present and including a self as the efficient conductor, gave the allegro agitato from Frank Wade's quartet for strings in Company the effective and a prelude, and another plane group was played by Dorothy Goldsmith, the left of the conductor gave the allegro agitato from Frank Wade's quartet for strings in conductor, gave the allegro agitato from Frank Wade's quartet for strings in the effective conductor, gave the allegro agitato from Frank Wade's quartet for strings in the effective conductor, gave the allegro agitato from Frank Wade's quartet for strings in the order of muniform and the effective conductor, gave the allegro agitato from Frank Wade's quartet for strings in the effective conductor, gave the allegro agitato from Frank Wade's quartet for strings in the effective conductor, gave the allegro agitato from Frank Wade's quartet for strings in the effective conductor. Favor the Albany was heard in a group was played by Dorothy Goldsmith, the talented Philadelphia artist, who had on her list the brilliant Concert Eude's well as the "Fairy Edward's deficient for miner of Constanting to the effective conduct but wounded in the addores and sallors. The wounded in the addores, shot through the long or pierced through the l

MARY PICKFORD COY

Grows Vehement at Men-

New York, April 17. D. F. GeBrien, attorney for Mary which caused him to break forth ve-

Madame Schumann-Heink, noted opera by worried at this time by any allumions ling center for the Schupikill Valley inger; "Butch McDevitt, of Wilkers to her private character. She is trying soble for Mary's appearance in th

and handed it to Mr. O'Brien, th

POOLING OF YARN ORDERS IS PLANNED

Reading, Pa., April 17. - Pooling inch caused him to break forth ve-emently as follows:

I done think Miss Pickford should

Reading might become a yarn distribut

There were velled intimations that the Market St. at 18th

NOW READY

William Allen White's New Book THE MARTIAL ADVENTURES OF HENRY AND ME

"A Jolly Book"

Here's a book of truth and humor. One of the first stories by an American that tells what America has done and is doing "Over There." It's a tale such as Mark Twain would have written had be lived to do his bit in France.

"Truly one of the best books that has yet come down war's grim pike . . . a jolly book."-N, Y. Post. "Honest from first to last. . . . Resembles 'Innocents Abroad' in scheme and laughter . . . a vivid picture of Europe at this hour. Should be thrice blessed, for man and book light up a world in the gloom of war."-N. Y. Sun. "A unique chronicle, genuine and sincere."-N. Y. Times.

THE MARTIAL ADVENTURES OF HENRY AND ME

By the Anthor of "A Certain Rich Man" ($1.36)
"The Court of Reyville" ($1.36), "In Our Tours" ($1.58)
"The Real Issue" ($1.25), "Stratagems and Spaile" ($1.36)
"The Old Order Changeth" ($1.25), "God's Puppets" ($1.35)

With many clever pictures by Tony Sarg. $1.50.

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY,

Publishers.

TELEPHONE DIRECTORY HILADELPHIA

> Announcement is made that the regular summer would the Philadelphia telephone directory will go to press on Saturday

All changes in telephone— listings must be arranged for before I o'clock of that date . The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania

BONWIT TELLER & CO.

The Specialty Shop of Originations
CHESTNUT AT 13TH STREET

SUITS

one of our choicest of "Bontell" qualities and adapted to all out-door wear.

For Tomorrow (Thursday)

It is fashioned from

Special

Weight must be considered in relation to age and height. The girl his through the considered in relation to age and height. The girl his through the considered in relation to age and height. The girl his through the considered in relation to age and height. The girl his through the considered in relation to age and height. The girl his through the considered his through