the western express passes through this city, Milton Watson, the at recent hurler of the Phils, will be among us today. Milt has been og to get to Philadelphia for the last ten days, but from last reports be to get only as far as St. Louis, his original starting point. He been staked to railroad tickets on three different and distinct occasions friends seemed loath to have him depart. Hency the delay in her and was the innocent victim in a trade which sent Bert Nichoff to 8t Loole Cards. Mule cared nothing about Niehoff and his troubles, but ien the second-sucher of the Phils refused to sign be found himself ait and up for a long journey to Philly, for they need second basemen worse can they need pitchers down in St. Laole. It looks as if Watron is glad to the chance to play with the Phillies, as he has been on the road only days and the trip can be made in two. Yes, the Mule evidently welcomes change-with reverse English.

Chicago, April 18.—Managers of the eight clubs in the American Association will meet here on April 30, a day before the opening of the season, for a conference with the umpires to decide on plans for stamping out the spitball and other freak deliveries. President Hickey announced last night President Hickey and he wanted the managers and umpires to reach a thorough understanding of the rules so as to avoid protests over the prohibited deliveries. Pitchers found guilty of using the spitball will be fined $25 and perhaps suspended.
