OPERATION COSTS HIGH

Food Administrator Tells How U. S. Can Feed Allies in Pittsburgh Speech

Pittsburgh, April 18.—Predicting the time is coming when those who work with their hands will obtain a larger portion of the world's goods than those who work with their brains...

"I do not believe that any person in these United States has a right to make one cent more money than is necessary to maintain a standard of living...

"Do not mistake that I am saying that prices and wages should return to the pre-war normal, because the incidents of war before we joined it had lifted our costs of operation and there must be compensation in every direction...

CREW OF U-58 TO GO TO FORT M'PHERSON

Captives of Nicholson and Fanning First Prisoners of War Here

New York, April 18.—Gustaf Ambarger, commander of the German submarine U-58, and thirty-eight of his men, captured by the United States torpedo boat destroyers Fanning and Nicholson on November 24, when the German submarine was sunk after an attack on an American convoy...

The other officers with Ambarger are Over-Lieutenant Otto von Rinteln, Marine Ober-Engineer Paul Schroeter, Reserve Lieutenant Frederick Muller and Warrant Officer Henry Hopke.

The U-58 was skimming the sea three days away from Europe when a convoy of the Fanning saw her periscope. The Fanning spurred forward at the thirty-three knot rate that smashed naval records and bore down upon the undersea boat, dropping depth charges...

ORGANIZING PHILADELPHIA WOMEN'S CAMOUFLAGE CORPS

Artists of Her Sex Natural Camoufleurs and Are Eager to Serve in American Army, Says Miss Munoz

"Why not women camoufleurs in the American Army?"

"There are thousands of them in France working in the factories behind the lines. Camouflage is one part of the service in which women can do a large part of the work as well as men. In no other; for while they can't work on the battlefield, there is certainly a tremendous amount to be done in the factories; they paint guns, materials, things that do not have to be used on the spur of the moment. If we didn't feel that we would be useful we wouldn't be trying so hard to interest people in the woman's camouflage corps."

"This statement was made by Miss Katherine Munoz, who with Miss Elizabeth Pilsbury and several other Philadelphia girls is endeavoring to raise a corps of women to be trained in the art of protective coloration."

prevailing upon them to vanish into thin air. "Lieutenant Towle has taken us to the Museum, Keen-Curling, to study natural camouflage, as, for example, in birds. You know how many of them are made almost invisible by the peculiar markings of their feathers."
