"THE EAGLE'S EYE"—HOW U. S. SECRET SERVICE CIRCUMVENTED THE KAISER'S INTRIGUES

THIS COUNTRY'S AGENTS, ALTHOUGH LOATH TO BELIEVE SPY - PLOT STORIES, FINALLY EXPOSED THE TEUTON SECRET WORKINGS

rs of the embassy itself neglected m across the sea. Nearly every lefore they ship their goods to the may won Papen, military attache of imperial German embassy, and "Suppose America objects to the loss" Captain Boy-Ed, naval attache, at a of its citizens?" ided part of Long Island, standing de a racing motorcar, to which re attached antennae, directors and eiving apparatus, that they might sonally assure themselves that the ode messages from overseas were re elved and started on their way to

"Yes, your Excellency. A moment later a tall, dark-haired man, his left cheek scarred from a Albert, fiscal spy for Imperial Ger-many, master of its exchequer in America, and second only to Bern-storff in what he termed "the battle on the American front," Just a sec-ond he hesitated, and then: "You sent for me, sir?" "You sent for me, sir"

Sail

America! If we sink a few of their s great distance. Nor had the mem-orrs of the embassy itself neglected about sending their representatives to take part in the reception of orders may make them stop and think awhile them across the sea. Nearly every before they ship their goods to the abroad to sell good to the Allies. It in a quiet, quizzical way

Sympathy. Bernstorff up with an wering

"We'll sympa-

meanwhile, we also will point to our Count Johann von Bernstorff worked manufactured fact that the Lusitania Count Johann von Bernstoff worked manufactured fact that the Lusitania hard at his task of deciphering the maze of numerals that had come to him during the night. One by one he traced out the numbers matching them first with the page of the old Line, and arrange for him to find German dictionary, then with the words of the aged hook, each of which was carefully numbered for easy transcription. When he had finished and another that she carries defensive fulls head bobbed slightly, he pressed guns. And be very sure on that point. transcription. When he had finished and another that she carries defensive tils head bobbed slightly, he pressed suns. And be very sure on that point. The rules of war prohibit the sinking at the hurrying man-servant.

The rules of war prohibit the sinking of an unarmed ship without due warning the hurrying man-servant. Send Doctor Albert in," he an, ing. We must have those affidavits.

'Very good, sir."

man, his left cheek scarred from a schoolday duel at Heidelberg, stepped lifted a sheet of closely written paper from his deak. "Is an advertisement I have written warning all American citizens from the Lusitania. See that it is inserted in the New York papers as close to the Cunard Line advertisements as possible. It will be our alibi when the Lusitania is sunk.

Very well, your Excellency "I did. Just got And so it was that with Ambassador a message from Hernstorff at the head of the great spy Wilh elmstrasse." Bernstorff was up in America, with Doctor Albert Sail talking jerkily. Captain von Papen. Karl Boy-Ed. somewhat excited Paul Koenig and a half hundred "The Lusitania must be sunk on others working on the various details criminals. For this telegram pits up great rooms of the Criminology Club pened? Or will in-its next voyage."

HOW VON BERNSTORFF OUTLINED SQUARE ZONES BY WHICH U-BOATS COULD FOLLOW THE LUSITANIA

"Yes?" Doctor Albert asked the greated the sinking of the Lusitania went forth the sinking of the Lusitania went for the control of the sinking of the Lusitania went for the control of the sinking of the Lusitania went for the

was Bernstorff. Another was Albert, with his ever-present portfolio, in which he carried the reports of spiez operating in every city of the United States, A a quiety commissioned captain of won third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone third was Boy-Ed and the fourth was a quiety commissioned captain of wone t

It will be something for the world | ... spoke ... think about," echoed the fastidious thinks ... he's Boy-10d.

"No you suppose," Doctor Affiert was commaging in his portfolio, "it could pornibly act as a boomerang? America has had its eyes shut, you know For Instance, I think Captain von Papen recently reported the burning of several million bushels of wheat in its elevators. as well as a train wreck or two that have so far been classified as accidents ican property on board the Lusitania

Idiotic "Yankees," said Von Papen

The responsibility of the state of the state

"These islicite Yankses will wake upext week," he amounted? It will be consthing for them to think about."

These islicite Yankses will wake upext week, he amounted? It will be constituted for them to think about."

This is the space-bar of her typewriter:

Billier. Dixie Mason's

Mashing German sense of humor could not resist a trifle of a smile. and quite neelsmiled, she glanced toward the rather tall, sicek German who stood reading a dictated letter he just had received from the stenographer Now my query is: Will the deliberate. The German's eyes rolled. Quite "acprearranged killing of Americans and the fore-announced destruction of the fore-announced destruction An instant later the German had bent cause this country to open its eyes and forward, started to pick up the stick, inquire about other things that have hap- and with intentional clumstness, stepped Captain Franc in a flourishing bow. "Punnerwetter!" he exclaimed, "such clumsiness! And I had such good in-tentions!" Dixie Mason smiled again. with one corner of clumsiness! to speak-then stopped sudnoticed," he replied, dealy as the stenographer's voice broke from Nauen the message flashed to hun-

Captain yon Papen.

The meeting, incidentally, seemed to have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux yon Papen as he gazed at his co-piotters.

The meeting, incidentally, seemed to public stenographer's desk, smiling and provided the public stenographer's desk, smiling and speaking to friends in the lobby, super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux yon Papen as he gazed at his co-piotters.

The meeting, incidentally, seemed to public stenographer's desk, smiling and speaking to friends in the lobby, super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious simile skinmed the lips of Ffaux you have been a very happy one. A super-clious similar you have been a very happy one. A super-clious similar you happy one. A super-clious similar you have been a very happy one.

ffynn A low laugh sounded as Dixle himor to its resting place.

> Heinrich von Leriz, chief benomman to Bernstorff. Von Papen, Boy-Ed and Bernstorff. Von Papen, Boy-Ed and Harrison Grant laughed happily and Albert, and he has asked me to go to reached for his hat. A half hour later the theatre with him tonight. And if he lifted the receiver of a dictograph to his car. Stewart, the relief operator, pany it won't be my fault! I rather think," and Dixis Mason laughed softly, "Tve just nounced. "The Heinrich von Lertz is going to be quite valuable."

But time was short. Two days later club.

THE LUSITANIA SINKING WAS PLOTTED WITH THE FULL KNOWLEDGE AND ASSISTANCE OF THE THEN AM. BASSADOR VON BERNSTORFF

of New York harbor and started dictagraph still to his car Then upon the first phase of its journey across the seas, carrying with it 1250 passengers, more than 100 of whom were Americans, the pride of America's theatrical, editorial and financial worlds; American aristocracy and American common people, but all Americans, all equal in their standing in the light of the Liberty Statue, supposedly safe from warring nations, innocents, travel-ing toward a deliberate German mur-

Too short a time for Harrison Grant and his men to gain their knowledge of what was going on in the Hohenzol-lern Club. Only that morning Cav-anaugh had reported progress—the as-surance that the dictograph would be in the Hohenzollern Club by the end of the next week. Too short a time of the next week. Too short a time of Dixie Mason to obtain the confidence of Heinrich von Lertz and learn from him shook his head. the details of the plot against America.

gram to Europe: "L. H. Guerz, Amsterdam, Holland Lucy has entered last phase ness. Doctors say progress until Thursday normal. After that, difficult to THERBOLD."

her satting a cable office to send

Already the message was traveling under the sea, while the spy reported o Von Lertz, and while another spy in Amsterdam anxiously awaited its arrival. And when he received it, his code-educated eyes read an entirely different message from that of a mere at his watch to absently note that the ferent message from that of a mere at his watch to absently note that the announcement of an illness, a message which thrilled his craven soul with the eyes oformation: "Lusitania has sailed. Course until-

Thursday normal, After that, unknown:

A hurried ten minutes, in which the spy turned to a specially installed teleopy turned to a specially installed tele-phone, sent the message to Nauen and thereby to Cuxhaven and to every other sickening lurch and plunge, the thunder U-boat base of Germany, where waited of an explosion—the scavengers of the sea, tiermany's

Hours later, in the dictograph room submarines and their commanders. More. Harrison Grant again leaned forward.

Herrison Grant reised his eyebrows. 'Got it fixed, Billy?'

Yes, sir. Broke a water pipe leading to the club, then hurrled for the plumber shop that always attends to returned the code letter and celluloid their work. Good fellow there-thor-"Not bud," she preathed happily. "The chief sent me that letter four days ago. Alrendy I've taken luncheon with Heinrich von Leriz, chief benchman for Bernston." Von Leriz, chief benchman for Bernston." ough American. He lot me fix the leak

"I've just been listening."

nounced. "Think von Papen, Boy-Ed and Wolf von Igel just came into the club. Couldn't sweer to it, though."

NEXT SATURDAY—THE the great, sleck Lusitania glided out | "Harrison Grant nodded slightly, the expectations and the workers at the main headquarters, 2132 Land Titles started. Hurriedly he turned;

Koenig Buys Some Alibis

that a man swear that the us sel carried guns Also that an am hat she was loaded with con Dumba can be counted on to espous

"What does it mean." Cavanaugh stepped forward. Grant frowned "Can't tell. Von Papen's doing the talking. low Boy-Ed has joined him "Surely we should have heard before

"All right, What's the rest?" Stee. art looked up from his copying. Grant

"They're mumbling-1

The very moment a corner with their heads together and are trying to talk so that he end round the club will hear them. But walt a minute—they're talking louter are trying to talk so that around the club will hear them, now-no. they've settied down to that bussing again-I think I hear a tile-phone ringing-Von Papen has just tole Boy-Ed to answer it. Wait now-wall

A strange silence in the dictograph com. Harrison Grant adjusted the reeeiver closer to his car.

And at that me-

open sea, the pay-sengers of the From the Blue

The deadly, gray serpent-like form of periscope as it raised itself about he waves. The waite of a torpeds as the waves. hissed its way through the water

"That telephone again!" he announce, "I wonder what it means? Hoy-Ed al-

German submarine: Kiein, Vanderbilt, Hubbard and thousand others-missing

Extry paper! Extry paper; all about the sinking of the Lusitania?" So that was the German victory! The Wearliy Grant sat into a chair, the dictagraph receiver still to his ear. On the other side of the wall three men had raised their steins to the picture of the Kalser, tousting him for the idea which had enabled the fishing amacks to wireless the hear of the Lusitania's course to the walting had devised the message of fisherms into instruments of death, for the w godly, demon-like cunning that had so ceived the death of women and children to be a German "victory!" Dronlight the words came over the dictograph. "To the Kaiser! May be continue also glorlous victories, abroad-and here "Abroad—and here " murmured Har-ison Grant between his cienched tech

NEXT SATURDAY—THE NAVAL BALL CONSPIRACY

RELIGIOUS NOTICES

Baptist Chestnut at, west of 40th (190RGE D. ADAMS, D. D. Pastor, 6:45 a. m.—lirstherhood of A. and P. 10:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.—Rev Shahley, of Urmia, Persia a nativalentry, who was held prisoner by the in the present war.

12 noon—Bible School.

Ethical Culture S. K. RATCLIFFE will speak on "Regists and America Today and Tomorres." Broad Street Theatre, 11 s. m.

Lutheran MESSIAH, 16th and Jefferson sts.
Bev. (Thas. P. Willer, D.D., will press
10:30—Morning Service.
2:30—Bible School.
7:45—Evening Service. Special music in Wm. Schmidt, cellist, Phila. Orchestra.

Methodist Episcopal V. ROWARD F. RANDOLPH. PARKE

th.
'Chesar or Christ?'
terved seats upon application
yer offerings for the Oiner A CALL TO THE COLORS
HON, J. DENNY O'NEIL
DRY CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR,
SUNDAY, APRIL 21, 230 P. M.
ERIE AVE. M. E. CHURCH, ERIE AVE.
AND THE WAR IN TONAL PROPRIETION
AND THE WAR IN TONAL PROPRIETION.

corge P. Avery: 7:45, Patriotic

Unitarian FIRST UNITARIAN CHURAL 2125 Chestnut at
Rev. FREDERICK R. GRIFFIN, Ministrator 10 a.m. – Binday School
II a.m. – Mr. Griffin will preach of
II a.m. – Mr. Griffin will preach of
Cingdon of Maaven and the Kingdon
Cingdon of Maaven and the Kingdon

BECK WOULD WIPE OUT LIBERTY LOAN SUNDAY ALLIES' DEBT TO U. S. IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES quarters, 1523 Chestnut street, and the

Billion Dollars Meets Approval of Brokers

lars owed by the Allied nations to the Government of the United States.

of enthusiasm. ever, are urged to refrain from rushing their poultry to market, thereby glutting it and causing heavy losses from spoiling.

The large transfer of the la were moved to the point of tears; strangers in the audience shock hands with each other; cries of "Right! Right!" were heard. The appliance

Viscount Motono to Quit

Tokie, April 20 .- Viscount Ichire Mor tono. Japanese foreign minister, has an-nounced his intention to tender his rea-ignation. Ill health is given as the reason Parishes Will Mention Bonds.

will be made to the several congregations by the rectors concerning the cam-paign to obtain subscriptions to the third issue of the Liberty Loan and many

John J. McCort, administrator of the liocese since the death of Archbie Prendergast, has called the attention of the rectors in an official announcement, urging that they do all in their power a to help dispose of the Government Lib-

Catholic churches and parish houses. Several of the parishes have compiled their accomplishments in their efforts to dispuse of bonds. Here are their re-various district quarters are being kept busy taking in the money. The boost-Rectors of All Philadelphia ing quarters has been enlivened by St. Francis Xavier's Boy Scout band. Boy Scouts are also assisting the commitles at the northwest corner of Twenty-third street and Columbia avenue Liberty Loan Sunday will be observed where a store has been opened. Not "Paid in full by the blood of your in every Catholic church and chapel in content with the large subscriptions Philadelphia at the masses tomorrow, being received at Thirty-eighth and In accordance with the suggestion of Market streets, the West Philadelphia Beck, former Assistant Attorney General of the United States, would write sires known through Secretary of campaign in automobiles. Much interthe Treasury McAdoo, special mention out is also being taken in the drive at est is also being taken in the drive at cam- the central Knights of Columbus headquarters, Girard avenue and Watts street.

Holy Angels parish, Onk Lane. Mount Alry

John V. Loughney is chairman of the executive committee that is conducting the drive. The other officers are Jo-seph C. McMenamin, secretary, and L. B. Botfield and B. J. Martin, ansistant secretaries.

RELIGIOUS NEWS NOTES Dr. Charles Wadsworth will preach at to morrow marning's services in the Arci Street Presbyterian Church. The evening speaker will be Dr. J. A. MacCallum.

de of Chellen ave and Greene at Chellen ave and Greene at Santa Francisco Chellen ave and Greene at Santa Francisco Chellen ave and Chellen ave and Chellen average at the Chellen aver effect upon the Administration.

By CONGRESSMAN J. HAMPTON MOORE

CHECK UPON EXPENDITURES

Philadelphia Congressman Shows How Government Department Heads Usurp Broad Power, During Stress of War-

time and Suggests Misapplication of Some Funds

IS ADVOCATED BY MOORE

Washington, April 20.

THERE is one angle of the demand for legislation to prevent so-called unpatriotic discussion that does not receive much consideration, sto wit, the unpatriotic discussion that does not receive much consideration, sto wit, the

to uphold his hands. But the President Muscle Shoals outfit, a waterpower
proposition, for which the Government had paid, on the Tennessee River. The Government took some time to locate
with the expenditures
with the expenditures
this nitrate plant was to take over the Muscle Shoals outfit, a waterpower
proposition, for which the Government had paid, on the Tennessee River. The Government took some time to locate
this nitrate plant was to take over the muscle Shoals outfit, a waterpower
proposition, for which the Government had paid, on the Tennessee River. The details of the expenditures they make. A notable exception is that of the Congress is thinking seriously of in- Hotel Arlington building site recently fixed it. ceasing the Federal power to stop treaport to sto nted from exposing a bureau or by enhapplication of such funds, of the provisions of law recently manded, however, go substantially to the President by Congress, the sum would be the beneficiaries of these great a newspaper or for any one else not a newspaper or for any one else not the hotel site and complete the constructional privilege of the hotel site and complete the constructional privilege of the hotel site and complete the constructional privilege of the hotel site and complete the construction of the Tennessee River and wovers of the Tennessee River and holding the Government and holding there seems to be ample reason it had fallen into the hands, largely of been established along the Tennessee

THE LUSITANIA MEDAL, STRUCK OFF TWO DAYS BEFORE THE SINKING

internal revenue service, appealed so excessive charges by the private fer-strongly to Mr. McAdoo that he wrote tillzer manufacturers. o the President asking him to divert Secreatry's way of cutting red tape. The President approved the request and the is fear that espionage and censor-is we may be carried too far ac-tis for the delay in the passage of fall measures that have recently engaging the attention of Con-

the method pursued in this case may recently sected to the Secretary of Labor not establish a precedent for other short rregular precedure.

The Nitrate Plants

The expansion of nitrate plants pro-sents another illustration of war do-ings in the matter of expenditures. In one of the early army bills Congress appropriated $20,000,000 for the establishment of a nitrate plant for war purposes, with a very well-defined fer-tilizer attachment. It was rumored that this nitrate plant, although it was finally placed at the point where runor had it had failes into the hands, largely of a group of Virginians, and the departose to whom Congress appropriates on the proper and who are charged with the sponsibility of seeing that it is dismoved honestly and without waste or aft.

It would be anomalous, after approiating a lump sum of, say, $50,000,id to a department for war purposes then provide that any one should be anomalous abureau or the new War Risk Bureau and for the service, appealed so the private fer ovented from exposing a bureau or the new War Risk Bureau and for the new War Risk Bureau and for the internal revenue service, appealed so excessive charges by the private fer-

Involved in the discussion were chargwere profiteering and holding the Government up so that condemnation of their lands had become a necessary expedient.

ment at the figure stated. The Secretary of the president with the request that have recently ging the attention of Constitution of Constituti in a sult brought by one of those in interest for a proportion of the proceeds.

Defende was right as to the plants insist that the expenditures are for his official force, all right. They go further and demand Congress are hoping a part of the $40,000,000 housing fund.

not establish a precedent for other short cuts to the Treasury by the heads of the secretary of Labor so that houses may be provided for work-cuts to the Treasury by the heads of the secretary of Labor so that houses may be provided for work-cuts to the Treasury by the heads of the secretary of Labor so that houses may be provided for work-cuts to the Treasury by the heads of the secretary of Labor so that houses may be provided for work-cuts to the Treasury by the heads of the secretary of Labor so that houses may be provided for work-cuts to the Treasury by the heads of the secretary of Labor so that houses may be provided for work-cuts to the Treasury by the heads of the secretary of Labor so that houses may be provided for work-cuts to the Treasury by the heads of the secretary of Labor so that houses may be provided for work-cuts to the Treasury by the heads of the secretary of Labor so that houses may be provided for work-cuts to the Treasury by the heads of the secretary of Labor so that houses may be provided for work-cuts to the Treasury by the heads of the secretary of Labor so the s Enough has been said in Congress.

however, to let it be known that the GOVERNMENT'S BAN ON POULTRY LIFTED TODAY Nearly Two Million Birds Again Put

in Jeopardy of Chopping Block

Mrs. Hen may be brought to the chopping block today. So may Mrs. Hen's ping block today. So may Mrs. Hen's youngsters and her husband. Mr. The statement of the United States. The statement of his views on this subject in an address on behalf of the Liberty Loan, delivered on the floor of the Stock Exchange, brought Mr. Heck's audience to the wildest pitch "When this war ends. as it will in a victory for the Ailles." the speaker one birds are affected. Farmers, how-000 birds are affected. Farmers, how-lifted ten days earlier than was expected and is due to the mild weather of the last few weeks, which resulted in earlier laying and hatching periods.

WILSON PROMOTES COLONEL

Nominates National Army Staff

Man as Brigadler General Washington, April 20 .- President Wilson has nominated Colonel Frank T.

Howland Shaw, Boston, Mass.; Cor-nellus Van H. Engert, Berkeley, Cal.; Curtis C. Williams, Jr., Columbus, O.; Joseph W. Carroll, New York city, Wal-lar C. Thurston, Phoenix, Aris.; Sam-

Suggestion to Write Off Seven

This is the entry that James M.

more formal way.' I believe our Government will reply by writing across the paper on which the money was tent. 'Receipted in full.'
"And when they ask. 'Receipted in full—how?' our Government will answer. 'By the blood of your sons.' Cheers taking on the proportions of a mighty roar greeted the speaker's last exclamation. Many of the listeners were moved to the point of toars.

lasted a minute.

Sketching the war situation of the moment, Mr. Beck warned his listeners against overconfidence. "This is the darkest moment in recorded history." he said. "And we must come to an accurate sense of the danger and oversubscribe this loan." lasted a minute.

sermons will be devoted to appeals to the patriotic zeal of the worshipers. To arouse interest in the campaign and stimulate the number of subscrip-tions among members of his flock Bishop

Since the announcement of Bishop Mc-cort more than $1,000,000 in subscrip-ions has been collected through the ports up to date :

22,000

HOPE, 33d and Wharton sts., Rev.

D.m.—Evening Prayer (Choral),