

PAGE OF FUN FOR YOUNG AND OLD TO REMIND ONE THAT LIFE IS NOT ALL SHADOW

(THIS PAGE IS FULLY PROTECTED BY COPYRIGHT.)

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

We go our ways with blinded eyes
All bent on some far goal
While deep within us
each there sighs
A timid, friendly soul.

Join the Ordnance Corps
"Did you know I was an ammunition girl?"
"Do you mean you make a lot of noise?"
"No, I like to have arms around me."—Orange Peel.

Between Friends

—Cortina Magazine.
"Jack says I'm the most beautiful girl in the world. Do you suppose he'll say the same thing to the pretty French girls?"
"Why, of course not. He can't speak a word of French."

THE SOLDIERS OPERATING THE TANK MADE A BIG MISTAKE IN RUNNING IT BY TOMBOY TAYLOR WHILE SHE WAS SPRINKLING THE LAWN

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE BEING SOCIABLE

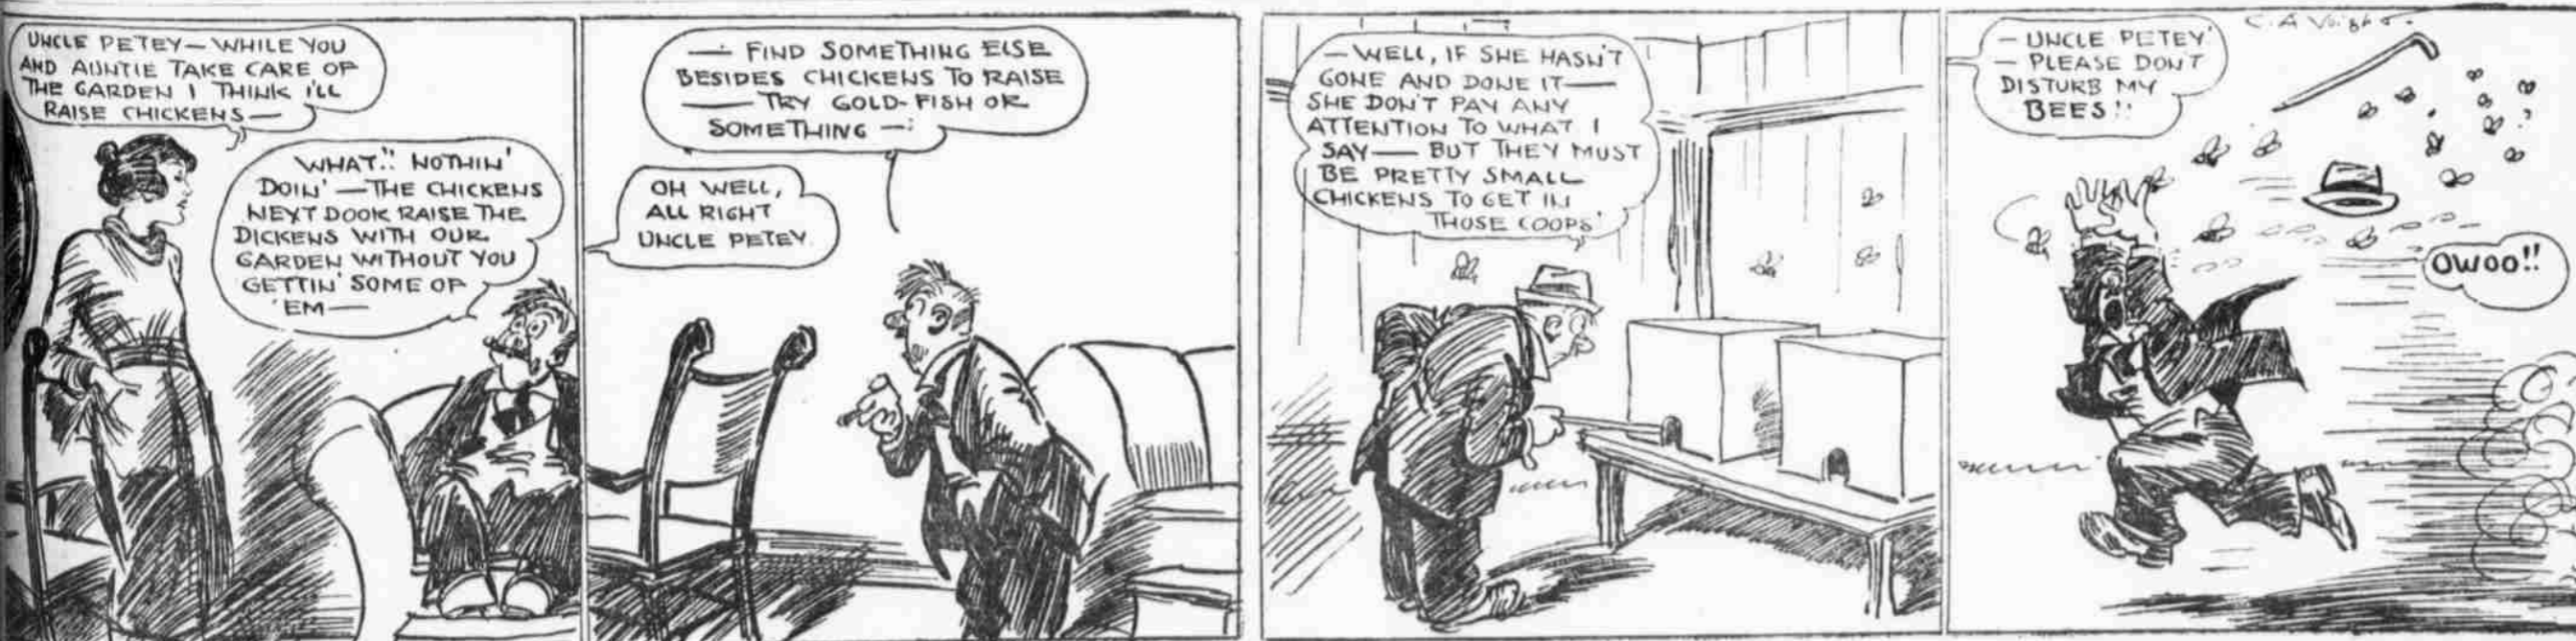

—London Opinion.
Wife—"The butcher refused to give me any meat until I showed him the meat card; so I got out the whole pack—registration card, sugar card, meat card and butter card—and I said to him, 'You eat and I'll deal.'"

THE GUMPS—"Has Anybody Seen my Wife?"

PETEY—He Really Should Let Her Raise Chickens

PERCY AND FERDIE—That's Right, Percy, Give It to 'Em

