B. AND O. TO ENTER NEW YORK FOOD PATRIOTS PLAY THEIR PART LAUGH AND LIVE LONG, RESERVE ARMY MYTH. Through Trains to Use the Pennsylvania Terminal

Washington, April 23 .- The railroad idministration has brought about further unification of the terminal facilities of the railroads entering New York city. This became known with the announcement that through trains between Washington and New York over the Baltimore and Ohio would enter the Pennsylvania terminal, beginning next Sunday, instead of using the Central Railroad of New Jersey on the Jersey side, as formerly. All the railroads entering New York from the south eventually will use the Pennsylvania facilities, it is estimated. urveys are being made to detern what enlargment of the terminal may necessary. The Baltimore and Ohlo trains routed straight into New York will roach the Pennsylvania tubes by way of Bound Brook, N. J., and in this way are expected to relieve the conge-tion, not only in the Central of Ne Jersey terminal, but also to escape the congested area of the Pennsylvania
