

MUSICAL COMEDY REVIEWS AND COHANS REVIS

WEBER AND FIELDS "THE COHAN REVUE" $150,000 FOR LOAN IS "A DOG'S LIFE" PROVES HILARIOUS AS EVER "IS BIG AND BREEZY" NEW KEITH SENSATION TO BE A MERRY ONE Reunited Stars Offer Brilliant and Refreshing New Musical Comedy Footlight Folk and Features Brightly Burlesqued, but Less Subtly Than Before New Record for Theatre Is Set to Jazzy Tune of Navy Band

Chaplin Makes That Demonstration in His First Self-Directed Film

Chaplin in his first self-directed film, "The Tramp."

DOLLY SISTERS ASSIST

BACK AGAIN—Musical comedy in two acts. Book by George V. Hobart and Frank Harber. Music by Fred Fisher. Directed by Fred Fisher. Cast: Dolly Sisters, Harry Campbell, Fred Fisher, etc.

THE GEORGE M. COHAN REVUE. Reunited stars offer brilliant and refreshing new musical comedy. The troupe includes Harry Campbell, Fred Fisher, and the Dolly Sisters.

TALMADGE AT STANLEY Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

As for the venerable oldest form of low comedy, Weber and Fields are no only ratiocinators of it, but also ratiocinated. They are ratiocinated by their own ratiocination. The production is invested, but by no means crippled, by a ratiocinated plot.

Philadelphians had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy. Public will find that it greater and more entertaining because less halting. Philadelphia had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy.

Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

As for the venerable oldest form of low comedy, Weber and Fields are no only ratiocinators of it, but also ratiocinated. They are ratiocinated by their own ratiocination.

Philadelphians had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy. Public will find that it greater and more entertaining because less halting.

Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

As for the venerable oldest form of low comedy, Weber and Fields are no only ratiocinators of it, but also ratiocinated. They are ratiocinated by their own ratiocination.

Philadelphians had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy. Public will find that it greater and more entertaining because less halting.

Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

As for the venerable oldest form of low comedy, Weber and Fields are no only ratiocinators of it, but also ratiocinated. They are ratiocinated by their own ratiocination.

Philadelphians had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy. Public will find that it greater and more entertaining because less halting.

Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

As for the venerable oldest form of low comedy, Weber and Fields are no only ratiocinators of it, but also ratiocinated. They are ratiocinated by their own ratiocination.

Philadelphians had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy. Public will find that it greater and more entertaining because less halting.

Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

As for the venerable oldest form of low comedy, Weber and Fields are no only ratiocinators of it, but also ratiocinated. They are ratiocinated by their own ratiocination.

Philadelphians had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy. Public will find that it greater and more entertaining because less halting.

Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

As for the venerable oldest form of low comedy, Weber and Fields are no only ratiocinators of it, but also ratiocinated. They are ratiocinated by their own ratiocination.

Philadelphians had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy. Public will find that it greater and more entertaining because less halting.

Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

As for the venerable oldest form of low comedy, Weber and Fields are no only ratiocinators of it, but also ratiocinated. They are ratiocinated by their own ratiocination.

Philadelphians had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy. Public will find that it greater and more entertaining because less halting.

Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

As for the venerable oldest form of low comedy, Weber and Fields are no only ratiocinators of it, but also ratiocinated. They are ratiocinated by their own ratiocination.

Philadelphians had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy. Public will find that it greater and more entertaining because less halting.

Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

Deaths

Allen, Robert. ... (List of names and dates of deaths)

Connecticut Alliance Quits Hartford, Conn., April 22.—The Connecticut German-American Alliance has dissolved. The funds on hand will be divided between charity organizations in which the organization had an interest, mostly in the form of war-saving certificates.

Deaths (continued) ... (List of names and dates of deaths)

Portrait of a woman, likely related to the 'Deaths' section.

Deaths (continued) ... (List of names and dates of deaths)

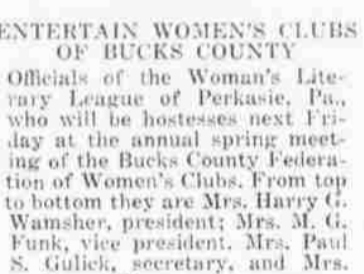

Deaths (continued) ... (List of names and dates of deaths)

Portrait of a woman, likely related to the 'Deaths' section.

Deaths (continued) ... (List of names and dates of deaths)

Deaths (continued) ... (List of names and dates of deaths)

Portrait of a woman, likely related to the 'Deaths' section.

Deaths (continued) ... (List of names and dates of deaths)

Deaths (continued) ... (List of names and dates of deaths)

As for the venerable oldest form of low comedy, Weber and Fields are no only ratiocinators of it, but also ratiocinated. They are ratiocinated by their own ratiocination.

Philadelphians had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy. Public will find that it greater and more entertaining because less halting.

Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

ENTERTAIN WOMEN'S CLUBS OF BUCKS COUNTY

Officials of the Woman's Literary League of Perkasie, Pa., who will be hostesses next Friday at the annual spring meeting of the Bucks County Federation of Women's Clubs.

BISHOP URGES BATTLE FOR 'DRY' LEGISLATURE

Bishop Joseph P. Berry, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in a statement urging legislators generally to support for the Legislature only such candidates as are pledged to ratification of the national prohibition amendment.

P. R. R. RAISING TRACKS ON WHITE HORSE PIKE

Work of Eliminating Dangerous Crossing at City Line, Camden, Is Resumed

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has resumed its work of elevating the tracks of the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad over the White Horse Pike at City Line, Camden, which for years has been regarded as a dangerous crossing and the main artery for automobiles to the seashore.

"Mutt and Jeff Divorced"—Orpheum

The marital experience of the famous cartoon characters, Mutt and Jeff, as depicted in the Orpheum show "Mutt and Jeff Divorced," was presented by Captain Albert G. Burt and his company.

Julian Rose—Globe

Julian Rose of "Patent and Perimeter" fame, easily carried off headlines by his performance in the Globe show "Patent and Perimeter."

Ryan and Richfield—Cross Keys

The bill at the Cross Keys this week is one of unusual merit, that bubbles over with fun and sends the audience home tingling with amusement.

"The Social Maids"—Casino

The spirit of the times dominates the production of "The Social Maids" at the Casino.

"Pay as You Enter"—Wm. Penn

The bill for the first half of the week at the Wm. Penn is headed by a delightful musical travesty, "Pay as You Enter."

MIXED NATIONALITIES CAUSE WOE IN FAMILY

German Shot by Stephilid and Held When English Wife Accuses Him

Scranton Wants Street Railway's Franchises Annulled or Agreed

Scranton, Pa., April 22.—Praying the court to rescind, cancel and annul all contracts now existing between the city and the Scranton Railway Company, a bill in equity has been filed by the city.

"Some Babies"—Gayety

"Some Babies" in a very clever revue entitled "The Love Cup," proved at the Gayety Theatre.

"Lid Lifters"—Troadero

There are plenty of laughs in the show offered by the Lid Lifters at the Troadero Theatre.

LACK OF TRAFFIC COP BLAMED FOR ACCIDENT

Four-Year-Old Jane Sinberg Seriously Hurt in Crash—Father May Sue City

Continuing Attractions

Edith Elling's adaptation of Moliere's classic comedy, "The Miser," is being presented at the Grand Opera House.

As for the venerable oldest form of low comedy, Weber and Fields are no only ratiocinators of it, but also ratiocinated. They are ratiocinated by their own ratiocination.

Philadelphians had not seen most of the song offerings of the musical comedy. Public will find that it greater and more entertaining because less halting.

Stanley Palace. "A Dog's Life." This is the first time Charlie Chaplin has been able to give the screen the product of his own making without distraction from an employer, with the result that he has a masterpiece of movie fun.

The child was crushed when her father's automobile was struck by a taxicab on Broad street, Friday at the point where the accident occurred.

The life of Jane Sinberg, four years old, was lost because of the failure of the city to have a traffic policeman on Broad street.

The child was crushed when her father's automobile was struck by a taxicab on Broad street, Friday at the point where the accident occurred.