

Evening Public Ledger

Philadelphia, Thursday, April 25, 1918

VARIED GLIMPSES OF WARTIME ACTIVITIES AS CAUGHT BY THE CAMERA'S KALEIDOSCOPIIC EYE

ON HIS RECENT VISIT TO FRANCE Secretary of War Baker (second from left) and General Pershing (extreme left) inspected the American front together.

COLLEGE GIRLS by the hundred are taking to farm work as naturally and as gracefully as ever duck took to water.
L. P. S.

THE SPRINGTIME BONFIRE affords the small boy an ideal opportunity to play "Injun" and also get rid of accumulated winter rubbish.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS AT THE FRONT have become thoroughly inured to life in the trenches, as the above picture shows.

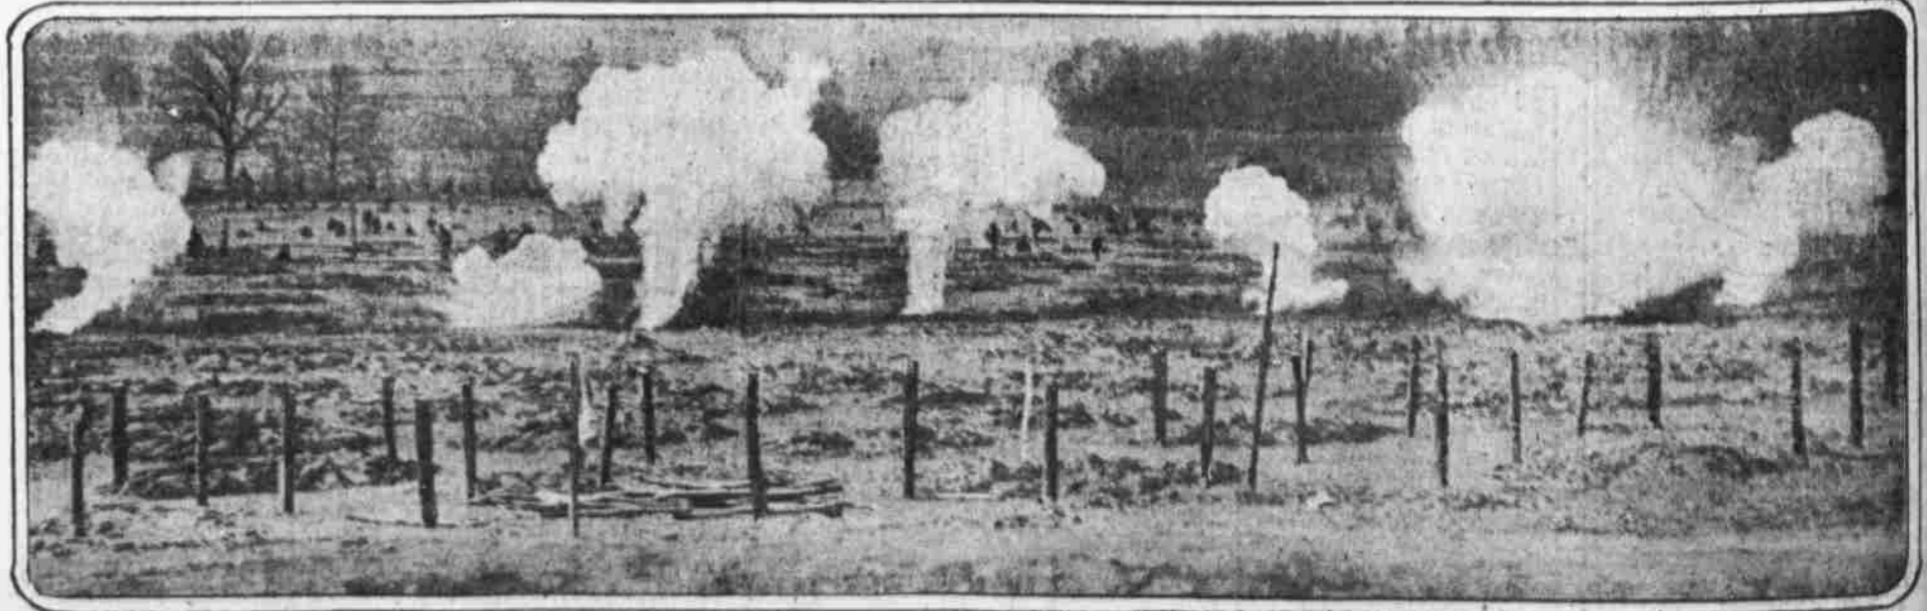

MRS. JAMES W. GERARD, wife of the ex-ambassador to Germany, is an energetic Liberty Bond saleswoman at City Hall Park, New York.
Underwood & Underwood.

OCULARLY AND ORALLY ATTRACTIVE is the Liberty Loan plea of Mrs. Harry Black, of the Naval Auxiliary.

THE FEMALE OF THE SPECIES has again demonstrated her mechanical versatility, this time as carpenter, aiding her father.
Underwood & Underwood.

NO MAN'S LAND AT CAMP DIX has all the thrill of the real thing these days, as the soldiers advance across it behind a real barrage fire of bursting shells.
W. N. U.