

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Pony Show at Home of Mr. and Mrs. William Clothier in Wynmewood on May 15—Other Matters Discussed by Nancy Wynne

MY DEARS, did you know that you have to have your dogs on their best behavior again this year for the dog and pony show at Mrs. Billy Clothier's? Well, you do, so you may as well start in now, for it takes some time to get them on their best behavior, and don't you forget it. And even then, just when you expect them to behave as they should, they won't do it. It's to be May 15.

I think I told you about our dog. She has her teeth brushed every morning, you know, and sits up and begs for pills and goes to certain members of the family for sugar. All very well, yes; but no matter how well-behaved she is, just show her a stylish dog with ruffles and she'll act like a rascal. Whether she thinks the ruffles are more "chic" than her own satin coat and is jealous, or whether because of the scarcity of production these wintertime, she thinks ruffles should be cut off, so to speak, I cannot tell. Certain it is she resents those dogs greatly.

WELL, to return to Mrs. Clothier's pony show. It's to be in aid of the Polyclinic Hospital, as usual, for you know home hospitals must be kept going as well as foreign ones. And besides, the Polyclinic is giving a number of special courses which are to fit persons for service abroad and at home.

There is a committee of women in charge of the show under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clothier and there will be five large attractions—the pony show, dog show, doll show and baby show and the midway, which will be a collection of interesting booths and amusements. A departure has been made this year in the program and there is to be a night entertainment. Entrance will be free after 6 o'clock and there will be war talks and a moving-picture show.

Included among the attractions are to be moving pictures from 2:30 to 6 o'clock, a Punch and Judy show, fortune telling, silhouettes, a brass band, tables for the sale of fancy, useful, garden, rummage, knitting, "Hoover cake" and toys.

MRS. VICTOR CHARLES MATHER is again in charge of the pony show, which will begin at 2 o'clock. Entries for the show close on May 6 and should be made with Mrs. Mather at Haverford. The dog show will be directed by a committee headed by Miss Mariana Gowen. Entries close on May 8 and should be made with Miss Gowen at Chestnut Hill.

The midway committee includes Mrs. Matthew Baird, Mrs. James Carstairs, Mrs. G. Dallas Dixon, Jr., Mrs. Gardner Cassatt and Mrs. Harold A. Sands.

THE general committee is composed of Mrs. Guillaume Artesen, Jr., Mrs. William S. Ashbrook, Mrs. Matthew Baird, Mrs. Livingston Biddle, Mrs. James Carstairs, Mrs. Gardner Cassatt, Mrs. Edgar M. Church, Mrs. Herbert L. Clark, Mrs. Percy H. Clark, Mrs. Clarence H. Clark, 2d, Mrs. Walter Clothier, Mrs. J. Lloyd Coates, Mrs. G. Dallas Dixon, Jr., Mrs. William M. Elkins, Mrs. Christian A. Hagen, Mrs. Samuel McC. Hamill, Mrs. John P. Hollingsworth, Mrs. George M. Jones, Mrs. George W. Kendrick, 2d, Mrs. George F. Miller, Miss Angela Nalie, Mrs. William R. Nicholson, Mrs. Joseph P. Page, 2d, Mrs. Fayette R. Plumb, Mrs. Harry C. Potter, Jr., Mrs. David Riesman, Mrs. Sumner Rulon-Miller, Mrs. Harold A. Sands, Mrs. Jay F. Schamberg, Mrs. Jesse J. Schamberg, Mrs. C. F. C. Stout, Mrs. John K. Strubing, Mrs. Harry C. Thayer, Mrs. George F. Tyler and Miss Sara D. Wilkinson.

JEAN BULLITT came up from Augusta on Thursday with her father, but she did not stay here very long. Mr. Bullitt has gone out to the Logan Bullitt Farms for a short visit and Jean went to New York. She was maid of honor today for Bessie Thompson, you know, and will probably stay in New York for a few days before returning here.

Mr. Bullitt and she have been keeping house in Augusta for the last three months and had the loveliest week-end parties for the boys at camp. You see, Dick was down there at Hancock, first with the Troop and then in the officers' camp, and so his family wanted to be near him, but now they have come up on account of the wedding. Jean and Ruth Stokes, Kate Jayne Hare and Bessie Thompson came out the same year, you remember, and Bessie has asked the other three to be a part of her bridal party.

I HEAR that Sarah Baker and Jack Bell have both decided to be married in June. If the Bakers go on it will be a wedding every year in that family, won't it? Linda last year and Sarah this, and Sophie also engaged. I guess Sophie won't wait a year, however. But no one seems to know just what will be done these times. Sometimes they think they will wait until after the war and then the first thing you know they're married. So it goes.

PHILADELPHIANS SELL BONDS AT WHITE SULPHUR
Mrs. Rodman Griscom and Miss Anne Thomson Make Sales

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., April 27.—While the spring season is considered brief with war interests this season as never before, and the large colony which is gathered at the famous old resort is putting forth every effort to make the various war campaigns and interests a success, the third Liberty Loan leads in the interest of all, and already there are four stars on the honor flag, which was the first to be won in West Virginia.

The war-savings stamps booth, in its patriotic dress of red, white and blue, is established in the lobby of the Greenbrier, and on Tuesday, the opening day, Mrs. Rodman Griscom, of Philadelphia, served with Mrs. Michael Gaylin, of New York. One thousand dollars' worth of stamps were sold on that day. Mr. and Mrs. Griscom will start for New York this week after spending a month here. They entertained at ten at the Casino this week for Mr. and Mrs. H. Howard Killen, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rosenbaum and Mrs. Arthur Nossin, who have also returned to New York after a pleasant sojourn here.

Mr. Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the shipping board, is expected to arrive from Philadelphia for a short rest from war duties, and will bring a party of friends to play golf during the week.

Mr. Edward S. Backler, 2d, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday at the Greenbrier, with Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Taylor, Jr., of Allentown, Pa., are spending some time at the Greenbrier, having come up from the South. Mr. Taylor is one of the largest shipbuilders in the country and has shipyards at Philadelphia.

Miss Anne Thomas and Miss A. B. Sykes, who are here from Philadelphia, are also assisting in the sale of war-savings stamps. Miss Sykes is making some sketches of White Sulphur and the picturesque old colonial scenes here.

DANCE FOR HOSPITAL
Various Novel Features Are Planned for Tonight's Affair

A dance for the benefit of the new Mt. Airy Hospital will be given tonight at the Carrigan's studio, 2903 Sanson street. The hospital, which is just being completed, has been offered to the Government and will probably be in charge of our own convalescent soldiers and sailors.

The dance this evening will be in the form of a novelty party, and many attractive features have been planned by the committee on arrangements. There will be a ballroom number, with confetti and favors, a lucky number dance and several specialties which are being kept as a surprise.

The young women in charge of the dance include Miss Katherine Scannell, Miss Virginia Stroud, Miss Dorothy Mundy and Miss Marie Carrigan.

RELIGIOUS ASSEMBLAGE TO HELP LOAN DRIVE

Naval Auxiliary Will Hold Popular Demonstration Tomorrow on City Hall Plaza

Stress will be laid upon the oft-repeated assertion that "religion and patriotism go hand in hand" at a great public outdoor religious demonstration tomorrow afternoon to boost the Third Liberty Loan.

The meeting will be held under the personal supervision of Mrs. E. T. Sibley, chairman of the Naval Auxiliary of the American Red Cross, which will take place on the north plaza of City Hall. Those in charge declare that it will be one of the greatest demonstrations from a religious standpoint that this city has ever seen.

The meeting will open with music of a sacred character rendered by combined bands. This will be followed by an invocation by the Rev. Frederick Griffith, of the First Unitarian Church. John Baur, head of the United Singers, will direct a big chorus in singing "If With All Your Heart," from "Elisabeth." This will be followed by patriotic singing by the entire audience, the masses leading in playing the patriotic and religious numbers.

The meeting will be the first of its kind to be held here in either the first, second or third Liberty Loan campaign. An interesting feature will be the attendance of hundreds of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts from all sections of the city, in uniform.

Phillip H. Goepfert, noted grammar and English instructor, will be present with his choir, which will include Mrs. W. Burton Pierce, soprano; Miss Katherine S. Nadeau, contralto; Frederick Ames, tenor; and Frederick Capron, bass. Miss Katherine M. McKinley and Miss Vandell Helweg will have an important part in the musical program, both being singers of note. In addition to the mixed quartet, selections of a patriotic and religious character, Mrs. Sibley will sing.
