KEEPING THREE BOARDERS AND MAKING THINGS PAY

Some Practical Details Outlined for a Reader and Others Who May Care to Go Into This Patriotic Wartime Business

Now that taking in boarders has meals I have quoted. You will, of become the patriotic thing to do. course, have to build around it. Potatoes and one good helping of vegetable secomes of particular interest to any ought to go with each dinner. Once in while have selected. nan who is contemplating the plan. The letter follows:

A Word to "Lonely Girl"

Ignore the Letter

Po the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—My hushand received an ugiy letter two days ago from his cousin in which she told him she did tot like he and never would. She told him she was sarry be had not gotten a better wife, and said all kinds of mean things. She told him not to show me the letter but he did as he does not keep things from me. I would like to write and tell her what I think of her, and would be abliged if you would word a short, sharp note for me.

OUTRAGED

I am sorry, my dear little friend, that your husband's cousin should have been so unkind. But if you will take my advice you will not lower yourself by writing to her. Naturally, you cannot be on very friendly terms with her, but be boilte when you meet and show that you at least are a lady, and have the self-control which she evidently lacks.

She has probably become angry for some foolish reason and will regret her letter to your husband. My advice is that both you and your husband ignore the

The diagram at the right illustrates the first and the permanent teeth. The first five teeth on each side (shaded in the illustration) are the "milk teeth," which are shed for permanent teeth at about six years of age. The sixth, seventh and eighth teeth are permanent.
