STATE TRAINING BOYS AS LEADERS OF CAMPS

Canadians Have Charge of Groups of Youths Working Farms

State College Pa., April 29.—Pennsylvania's plan for providing boy-camp in the State farms this summer was started here when thirty-seven young men began their training as camp leaders. After ten days' preliminary instruction they will take charge of farm camps, in each of which there will be between twenty and thirty boy laborers.

Leaders in the movement, representing the Pennsylvania Council of National Defense, outlined the plan of organization and told them how to handle their young charges. L. H. Dennis, of Harrisburg, State director of farm service, had charge of the meeting.

General Price is a most popular gentleman and soldier. He is a military strategist of marked ability and is held in the highest regard throughout the division. He is being warmly congratulated on again assuming command of the division.

HELD AS DRAFT DODGER: HAD MANY ADVENTURES

Claim Made Switzer Caused Report of His Death to Be Published

Reading, Pa., April 29.—No word of fiction could provide more material for a drama than the story of Franz Switzer, also known as George Krause, who has been arrested in this city by police detectives.

Four years ago Switzer married in this city, August 11, Helen, daughter of a Reading girl and lived with her for a time. On one occasion he is said to have indicated her to "frigate it" to Pittsburgh, wearing his attire. She refused to do further and they started for home on another freight. On the way they were attacked by tramps and to protect the girl Switzer shot one of them. The girl was sent home and Switzer was arrested.

PENNSYLVANIA MINERS BUY $2,000,000 WORTH

Anthracite Workers Prove Loyalty—90 Per Cent Have Share in Loan

DUCK MEN WHO REFUSE

Ashtand, Pa., April 29.—With a slogan of "Every mine worker must own a bond," the men of the central and middle western anthracite coal region are proving their patriotism in a campaign without precedent in the anthracite district, extending from Pottsville to Trevorton and from the Ashtand-Centralia fields to the Lykens Valley district, which have subscribed to fully $2,000,000 in Liberty Bonds by Saturday next.

The anthracite miners have broken production records in the face of labor shortage and the most severe winter in twenty-seven years, and now to prove that they are as liberal with the big wages they are earning as men in all other phases of industrial life, they are subscribing for Liberty Bonds to the extent of millions of dollars.

Employees of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company have subscribed $1,058,000. The Lehigh Valley, Susquehanna collieries and other independent coal companies report large subscriptions, and it is believed that by the end of the week fully 90 per cent of the miners will have either bought their bonds outright or will have signed pledges directing their employers to pay for bonds out of their wages at the rate of $5 per month on every $50 bond.
