

Evening Public Ledger

Philadelphia, Thursday, May 9, 1918

WOMEN WORKERS MAKE "THE GREEN GRASS GROW ALL AROUND" AT THE MERION CRICKET CLUB

WHAT IN THE WORLD will woman be undertaking next, the reader will be tempted to exclaim upon beholding this trio of "mowing maids" cutting the fairway on the west golf course of the Merion Cricket Club.

AS THE POPULAR SAYING GOES, here's the maid who puts the water in the water buckets on the golf courses of the Merion Cricket Club.

THE QUICKNESS WITH WHICH his helpers "caught on" to the job of attending a golf links was simply astounding to Groundkeeper Bill Flinn, of the Merion Cricket Club.

ONE OF THE "MOWING MAIDS" on her way to work bright and early at the Merion Cricket Club.

PREPARING A BUNKER for the enactment of further golf tragedies on the golf courses of the Merion Cricket Club.

THAT THE WORLD may not want for "spuds" the fair farmerettes on the Drexel Estate at Runnymede are planting potatoes a-plenty.

WARE OF KIBITOK, this innocent babe...

UP AND AT IT, GIRLS, and let there be no camouflage in your punches. But perhaps the reader does not know there is a woman's reserve camouflage corps, members of which are shown above at their fun.

PHILADELPHIA'S "LITTLE MOTHERS," who received diplomas from Municipal Nurse Florence Ross (in the center).