Miss Mildred Faas, who was last year the soloist at the Bach Festival at Bethlehem, will jointly with Philip Goepp give a dramatic presentation of the "Marseillaise" at the fete au profit des Hopitaux d' Outre-mer, to be given under the auspices of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association on the estate of Mrs. Charles A. Munn, at Radnor next Thursday, May 16. The French "Blue Devils," who have been secured to appear at the fete, will form a background for the setting

Unless real ingenuity is exercised in making these combinations, the effect is very apt to be messy, and as a few are gifted with the art of proportion in dressmaking, it is far wiser for the woman of limited means to adhere to the usual style of dressing, than to take a plunge on something out of the a plunge on something out of the ordinary.

Blending colors and materials together is not so difficult as one might even imagine, but it does take a thought and well-directed imagination—the kind of imagination that finds its just return is exemplified in the model of today. In this case the designer has introduced an unusual combination by blending velvet and galatea, those rather plebelan materials of sturdy wear, designated of yore for summer suits for small boys. Certainly the woman who is looking for a suit that will wear could be assured of this quality in purchasing this suit at the same time it is something brand new. The loose coat is of helictrope velvet with long-shawl collar of galatea; bands of galatea trim the sieeves and the upper edge of the patch pockets. The long, narrow belt which ties at the front is of the velvet. The

what to do at the expiration of six weeks, the ham being thoroughly cured? Is it necessary for a firm holding a mer-cantile license to have a peditier's license on the wagon delivering on the street? E. W. N.

At the expiration of the six weeks necessary for the curing of ham the meat is ready to be smoked. The directions for this are as follows: Take the meat out of the pickle and dry. With a sponge or brush wash all over with crude pyroligneous acid. Hang up in a cool place and repeat the application at intervals of a few days until three coats have been

Galatea Is Used for Suits

A Daily Fashion Talk by Florence Rose

This promises to be a season of many curious combinations, unusual color contrasts and equality unusual fabric contrasts. And quite as striking is the curious way in which two different fabrics of different colorings are combined to find the covery, and a white bird trims the front.

Inquiries are solicited and may be addressed to this newspaper.

Unless real ingenuity is exercised in the combinations, the effect of the combinations in the effect of the combinations of the combinations in the first symptoms of the sections and equality is exercised in the combination of the combinations of the comb phoid fever, drowning, measter, summer

Every mother and children's care-taker should know the first symptoms of these diseases, and should notify the physician. She should put the child in a room by himself, with separate cating utensils, when the first symptoms cating utensils, when the first symptoms of the contagious diseases appear. In this way other children will be protected, and the physician may be able to reduce the seriousness of the attack and prevent death. A long illness or a funeral are more inconvenient and expensive than quarantine and a few early physician's visits.

Prevention is not a simple matter, but Prevention is not a simple matter, but requires intelligence, thoughtfulness and carefulness in details. Probably very few mothers in these days would deliberately expose their children to any disease with the idea that they must, have it some day. For children under ten years getting into crowds, riding on street cars, flocking to movies are always risks of acquiring diseases. One and one-quarter cuptuls ground rolled oats.

There is no special dietetic value in food served in the form of a cooked cereal. Don't tell him that you have given 'up the struggle, but serve the same food values in other forms. If he does not like the boiled cereal, perhaps he will like some of the crisped forms, as shredded wheat or the toasted flakes. Two or three catmeal or graham crackers, or a couple of slices of toast, eaten while the milk is sipped, will furnish the same food. The dry, hard form is better for a child than the soft, mushy food.

If your neighbors are not doing a you think they could in saving the nation's wheat, redouble your efforts. With the following simple working program, you can easily start the wheatless campaign in your own home. Make cake of barley, corn flour, or rice flour. Bake ples with only one crust and have this of barley or cornmeat.

Thicken all gravies and soups with cornstarch, rice or barley or corn flour. Remember macaroni and spagnetti are wheat preducts and do not serve them. At breakfast make some wheatless cereal take the place of any bread, or serve a wheatless hot bread of one kind or another.

For luncheon or supper have these breads coid or toasted, or serve rice, hominy or potatoes instead of bread.

Always at dinner have potatoes in place of bread.
