Champion's First Exhibition in San Francisco Adds $23,000 to Camp Athletic Fund—Honored by

NO PROMOTER ever lost a gent on Benny Leonard, the world's lightiveight champion. The popular New York boy always performs before capactity houses, and once the champion's name appears on the program the boxing magnates know they will not have to worry about the receipts. Regardless of the class of the opponent the name of Leonard is sufficient to pack them in.

In New York and in this city he is an idol. In the few western cities where he fought the promoters were well pleased with the financial returns from the match. It is just as easy to sell tickets for a Leonard attraction as it is for a world series baseball game.

California had its first chance to gaze upon Leonard last Friday night. The champion made such a wonderful showing in his exhibition with Johnny Mc-Carthy that he was presented with a solid gold card by Captain Revereno W. Clampett, acting for Mayor Rolph. He also was handed the key of the city during his stay. Leonard won easily and the bout is expected to have a great hearing on the creation of a new boxing law there.

The Leonard-McCarthy bout was held at the Civic Auditorium and drew one of the largest crowds that ever assembled in the history of boxing in California. More than 10,000 fans contributed $22,000 to see the show.
