

SCHOOL DAYS

By DWIG

(THIS PAGE IS FULLY PROTECTED BY COPYRIGHT)

"Alas! Unconscious of Their Doom!"

THE TOONERVILLE TROLLEY THAT MEETS ALL THE TRAINS

By FONTA

Down cellar after apples

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

I tried to be so friendly
With some one that I know,
And then she simply snubbed me—
It just surprised me so.

Very Bright
"What is the difference between electricity and lightning?"
"Lightning is free."

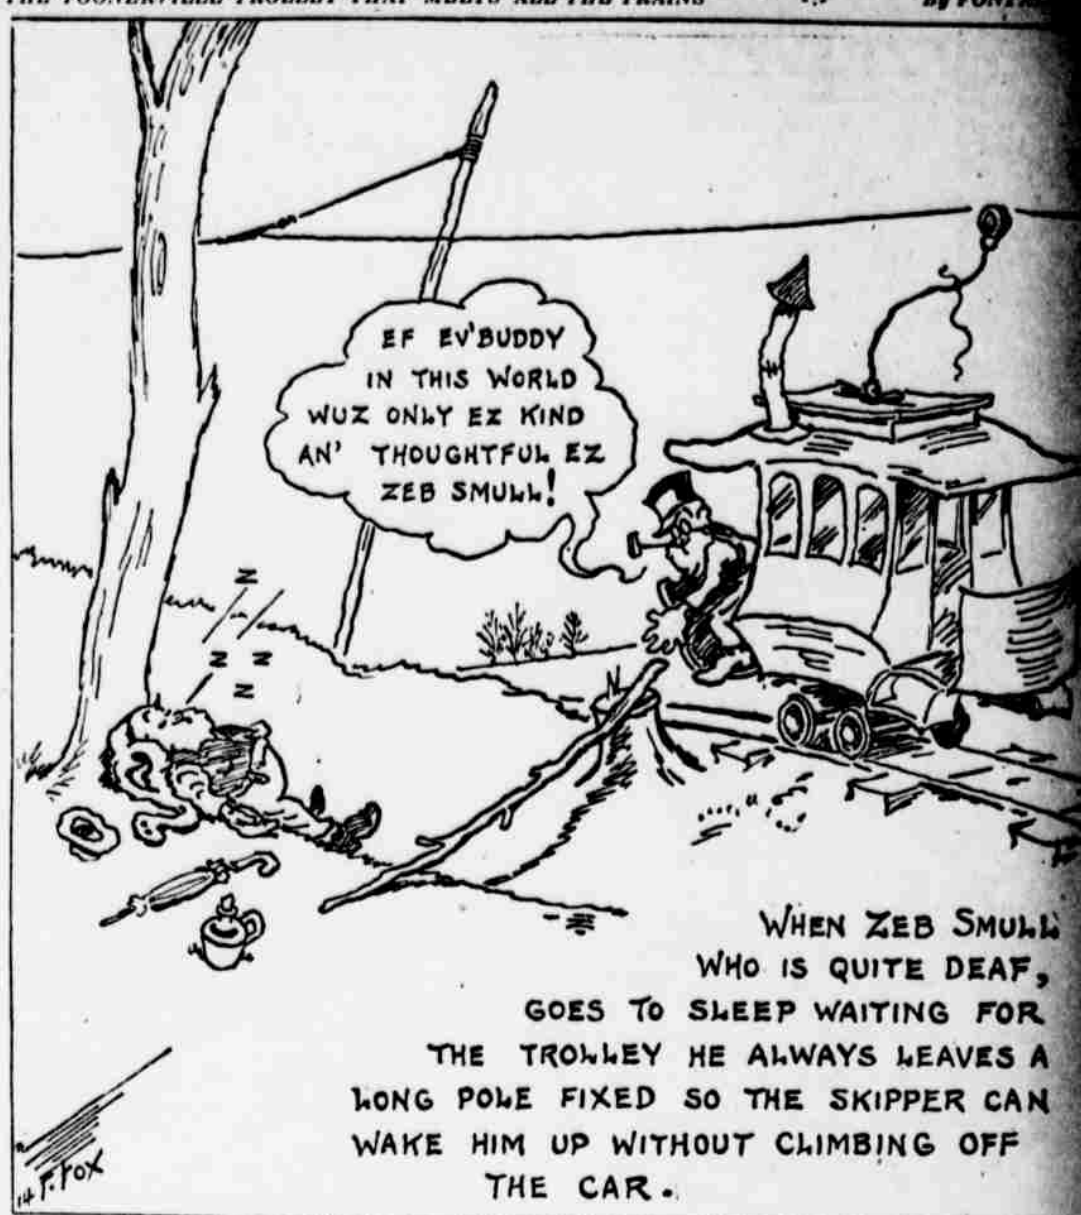

Pets in the park—edible and otherwise.

BROAD AN' CHESTNUT

By BUNNY

I've waited just
Two hours here
To take a girl
To eat
But this must be
A meetless day
At least
In this
Old
Street

WHEN ZEB SMUWH WHO IS QUITE DEAF, GOES TO SLEEP WAITING FOR THE TROLLEY HE ALWAYS LEAVES A LONG POLE FIXED SO THE SKIPPER CAN WAKE HIM UP WITHOUT CLIMBING OFF THE CAR.

The Young Lady Across the Way

THE GUMPS—And They Joke Andy About His Gold-Mining Stock

Copyright, 1918, by The Tribune Co. By SIDNEY SMIT

The young lady across the way says we can learn some valuable lessons even from our enemies and, while she understands that a good many of our soldiers gamble their money away as soon as they get it, she saw in the paper that the Germans had played their last card.

THIS LITTLE INVENTION WILL SAVE YOU $50.00 A MONTH. HAS AN ATTACHMENT FOR DARNING YOUR HUSBAND'S SOCKS, A KNIFE SHARPNER, PLACE TO ATTACH AN ELECTRIC IRON, A CURLING IRON AND RUNS A FAN

IT DOES ALL THE LITTLE ODD JOBS FOR YOU - RUNS 24 HOURS AT A COST OF HALF-CENT. IT IS NOT ONLY A GREAT SAVER BUT BEAUTIFIES THE HOME. WE'RE MAKING A SPECIAL OFFER TO A FEW OF THE ELITE AS AN AD. WE'RE GOING TO SELL THEM ON TIME AT SIX CENTS A DAY

DON'T TELL HIM - SURPRISE HIM WHEN IT'S ALL PAID FOR. HE'LL NEVER KNOW YOU'RE PAYING 60 A DAY - THINK OF IT - THE PRICE OF TWO POSTAGE STAMPS. ONE ORANGE, HALF WHAT HE WASTES EVERY DAY ON ONE CIGAR. JUST SIGN YOUR NAME ON THE DOTTED LINE.

THE BILL IS SIXTY EIGHT DOLLARS. MUM. THEY'LL TAKE OFF $3.00 FOR CASH

PETEY—Petey Is Still Asking the Nurse What It Was All About

By C. A. VOIGT

SWAT THE KAISER By BUNNY

Say isn't it The deuce Let's hope he'll get A dose himself And Sneeze His darned Head Loose!

IS THAT YOUR BALL?
YEP - THAT'S IT - THAT'S MY PILL

ARE YOU SURE IT'S YOURS?
OF COURSE I AM - ABSOLUTELY - I KNOW MY OWN BALL, NO DOUBT ABOUT IT - WATCHER - WANNER DO GIVE ME AN ARGUMENT?

NOT AT ALL I JUST WISHED TO MAKE SURE IT WAS YOUR BALL -

PERCY AND FERDIE—A Dozen Shirt Fronts! Who Wants 'Em?

By H. A. MacGILL

ADJUSTABLE SHIRT FRONTS! JUST THE THING FOR MY CHAUFFEUR ONE THING I DO INSIST ON, IS A CHANGE OF LINEN EVERY DAY, AND IN THAT RESPECT, HE'S SOMEWHAT CARELESS. GIVE ME A DOZEN MISS.

SAY OLD CHAP, WE'D BETTER BE GETTING BACK TO THE HOTEL TO DRESS FOR THE FOREIGN LEGATION'S BALL TO-NIGHT AT THE ST. SOAMUS. OH, PARDON ME! AM I CROWDING YOU?
WHO LEFT THAT DOOR OPEN? WE - ER - !!

HAW-HAW! HOOVERIZED SHIRT FRONTS! WHO'S BEEN INVESTING?
LORDY! DID I DO THAT? PARDON ME!

HEY - CAN'T Y'WAIT TILL TH' CAR STOPS?