

LANE MAIDS FROLIC IN PICTURESQUE "BIRD MASQUE" — PICTURES OF WOMAN'S INTEREST

"CUNNING," YOU WILL SAY of little Marion Raymond and Dorothy Foster and their dance in the "Bird Masque."

THE SPIRIT OF THE SPRING is interpreted by Miss Virginia Herrmann as her contribution to the "Bird Masque."

THE STALWART FIGURE of "The Hunter" in the "Bird Masque" is Miss Grace Lippincott.

AS LIGHT AS THE BREEZES of spring themselves is Frances Schreiner in her interpretation of "The Faun."

PICTURESQUE FIGURES, indeed, are those of Marie Dugan and Catherine Hermes in their characters of "A Hunter" and "A Poet."

HEP, HEY, HERE COME the Fairy "Queens," ready for any day that their king will...
