OD'S, NOT WODEN'S"

Sharp Williams Disses "Generous, Demoratic, Permanent" Peace

democratic and permanent." John Sharp Williams, United

William Spoke on, "The Peace Worth Having." He said aristocratic forces everywhere on war.

id then, some wars should come any-il support an army of more than, men trained for war. Even it may be called upon to bear at that the whole current of human leigium. Holland, Switzerland, Servia luigaria, Rumania, each can and fo iey mean to be offensive—premediated fense—are seeking advantage before—fense—are seeking advantage before—first and last, only An n the German Reichstag—the Kalser almself is not sufficient because we not believe him and his very breath ned-gas while his thoughts are beessions—when the Reichstag

They know what our terms are. They God's terms. Not Woden's, nor or's, nor Frey's, but our God's—the do ff flight, which in the long run is light—the God of justice and love, who "no respecter of persons" is also sod of human equality and fraexcept academically, until somepeoples, not alone the insane r of the one nor the vassal Kaiser e other—shall indicate their ac-nce of what they know we shall

QUOTAS ANNOUNCED FOR DRAFT IN JERSEY

Will Go to Fort Slocum in

Five Days Beginning May 29

ten, May 17.—Adjutant General on has announced the quotas asto various draft boards of the in the recent call to the colors men from New Jersey, who are rain during the five-day period be-may 29 for Fort Slocum. The ing are the quotas:

FED PEACE TERMS WORLD HARMONY IS PRESAGED BY UNION OF CIVILIZED NATIONS

Charles S. Ward, Y. M. C. A. Worker, Calls Peace League's Attention to Closer Bonds Between Governments Warring Against Military Autocracy

Pointing out the consolidation of the democratic nations of the world against democratic nations of the world against children of Belgium. And when the wareself financial support for the continued democratic national support for the continued and when the waresult worth all the continued of Nations a lie that Germany is fighting our energies to winning the war, but mantike leadership. If has the constitution of the reganizations with plan of almost universal acceptance for and the Hapshurg medieval acceptance for and the proud Hungarian must keep the country and its representatives firmly and enthusiastically and eager to make wintever eacrifice the prevention of the proud to be a part of it sentatives firmly and enthusiastically and eager to make wintever eacrifice the properties of the properties of the grant of the grant of the grant of the proud to be a part of it sentatives firmly and enthusiastically and eager to make wintever eacrifice the properties of the properties of the grant of t must remove, first, present occaof war; 2nd, the world temptation i fivited war; 3rd, all future reto new and barbarous war exof the time of our last convention in washington. The civilized world, which taday includes some Asiate nations not always reckoned as civilized, but does not include Germany, has come onto our this country on many large funds, war rats.

It a peace that is a peace must be cal. You cannot apply one rule to allied races and another to our my races.

For Homogeneous Unity

The whole world, outside the Central way and we must keep the coming our way and we must keep the remining our beautiful to be considered to b belong to the German Empire. Ger-any will then be stronger by addition ing together, forgetting differences of homogeneous Germans and by sub-action of alien and unfriendly sub-sets, although her dream of world this war, and as we look with admiradomination and of industrial, military, tion at that steadfast new army of naval and kultur supremacy will have heen dissipated. This addition of the began, now standing off the one in ughts.

so, too, we are coming into fellowship to gloriously poured forth for the well-kentucky, and his fellowship of suffer-the must we minimize the danger the first of wars. But that is not recurrence of wars. But that is not many the most we have a wonderful positive with our resources. The actual savinges the following for a common cause looking to a common victory we have a wonderful positive with our resources. The actual savinges the following forms of the following forms a real peace treaty must also proe against war atrocities, if alast new tion of advantage for promoting the then, some wars should come anythen, some wars should

CLOSE approach of the international time when the destiny of the world for centuries to come is to be determined.

Nations—was predicted today by Charles S. Ward, noted Young Men's Christian generation none can compare with the element of the world for centuries to come is to be determined.

Among all the moral issues of our generation none can compare with the right decision at the end of this war:

Senator from Missouri, addressing an address at the Win-the-War-for-Persecondary from Missouri, address at the Win-the-War-for-Persecondary from Mis Ask that question of the women and

> In the providence of God, the course ous country, last to enter of events during the last two years has did boys vying in courage and sacrifulful than we could have hoped at the time of our last convention in

I have spent in the in developing and financing the Y. M. C. A. whore war work ranks among the greatest relieurment in the history of moral effort. I cannot be accused of any lack of endissipated. This addition of the man to Germany will at one and mame time render the just peace of like have spoken, a generous and a magaanimous peace.

British citizens, built shock the war may of the enemy, with its back to the wall a magaanimous peace.

British citizens, built shock the war and to participating the war and to promote a League to Nations is the most subject to the league meeting at the option of the war and to participating the

How are the tempfations of war to council of nations may assemble—pray for it and arbitration must come.

No Army to Exceed 450,000

The treaty of peace, if a real treaty, if the treaty of peace, if a real treaty, if the treaty of peace, if a real treaty.

The treaty of peace, if a real treaty, if the treaty of peace is a real treaty, if the treaty of peace is a real treaty.

The treaty of peace is a real treaty, if the treaty of peace is a real treaty.

The treaty of peace is a real treaty, if the treaty of peace is a real treaty.

The treaty of peace is a real treaty, if the treaty of peace is a real treaty.

The treaty of peace is a real treaty, if the treaty of peace is a real treaty.

The treaty of peace is a real treaty, if the treaty is a real treaty is a real treaty.

The treaty of peace is a real treaty. organization until it can safely cipal, tather than record the failure of # most part does keep that many men illised. The greatest nations—Brit-France, Gernfany. Japan, the ted States—need no more unless. IN TENOR IS ADVOCATED and by the anticipated quick use of first and last, only Americans. Surely the increasing honor of the nation they the increasing honor of the nation they will be the increasing reward of some could by surprise murder a steep such citizens.

All that would follow is that none of lave will be the increasing reward of economic causes of war war lies not in competitive national translations. Surely shared on the same principal is based on the same principal is bas tion could by surprise murder a sleeping world, as Germany and Austria bond to do and came so near doing.

But is a treaty sufficient? No. There must be behind it what the lawyers so imappropriately call a "sanction" really a penalty—ultimately force; in a word, as penalty—ultimately force; in a word, as league of nations" to enforce both the settlements or to break agreed promises must know that it will put uself beyond the place of the law.

Must Arrest Outlaw Nation

In a word, an outlaw nation, like an outlaw individual, shall be arrested and penalized. This shall be arrested and to a first with the place of the law.

The whole plea must be for the world in the mad call to arms will only bring more quickly the freedom of the world. The whole plea must be for the world intolerable burdens of preparation for war, and second for the sake of the absolutely inquestioned economic gains which may be assured each and every number of such a union. We must not underestimate or underestimate the difficulties. But we have always to remember of such a union. We must not underestimate or underestimate the difficulties. But we have always to remember that against the world of human interest may be advanced, war be beaten out of the world in the controlversy to fair and the sum total of human interest may be advanced to the interest may be advanced, war be beaten out of the world. The properties of war and the interest of the prevent situation for the world in the resistics power of this divine method of teaching walks the first aim of the democratic powers in the opportunity of the world in the resistics power of this divine method of teaching walks the sens in blue. Never in the two prevent derivation for the world in the interest may be a such a force. The first aim of the democratic powers in the opportunity of the world in the method of teaching walks the sens in blue. Never in the interest may be a such a force. The first aim of the democratic powers in the prevent derivation for the world in the prevent derivation a penalized. This shall be the case if it the sum total or human interest may lare go to war without first offering to eave points in controversy to fair and mpartial arbitrament, or if, being at mark it shall perpetrate prohibited atrocases. t time will come virtually only Germany and Austria vacate and Belgium and Servia, when my retires behind the Rhine and Allied war dinner, at which Secretary of the Navy Dantels, Jules Jusserand, French ambassador to the United States; Viscount Ishii, of Japan, and Alton B. Parker will be among the speakers.

"A New Order of International Co-operation" was discussed by William English Walling, in his address before the League to Enforce Peace today, He-said in part:
"If we are to win this war for perma-nent peace, our greatest test and trial nent peace, our greatest test and trial lies immediately ahead.

lies immediately altead.

"Germany proposes nominally to relinquish large parts of her territorial conquests—provided the other fruits of her victories are allowed to stand. The net result of this transaction would be hat Germany's neighbors and commercial rivals. France. Belgium and Italy —with their ravaged territories—would then come out of the war far more sertously crippled than Germany—even if this side of the transaction were alone considered, that is, to say nothing of Germany's net gains in other directions.

"Germany's attitude to her conquered in the new economic order.

"An international control of all international sea and land routes and a common international policy towards backward territories are principles already acclaimed since the war—both by ruling statesmen and by opposition and labor leaders.

CO-OPERATION PLAN DR. WILLIAMS DECLARES NEW MONROE DOCTRINE

racy. The American Union is a league to keep the peace of forty-eight States. The Monroe Doctrine uses that league to keep the peace of a continent.

Special For Men Special For Men

5.50

These exfords are genuine calfskin, in black or tan, with selected oak soles; Goodyear welted and stitched.

An Extraordinary Value An Extraordinary Value 919-21 MARKET STREET

"Only one power in these latter days has challenged the Monroe Doctrine, Germany, and the fate that befell Maximilian and Napoleon III is in the path of two other emperors, one the satellite of another, and Berlin, like Paris forty-sightly the factor of the satellite of another, and Berlin, like Paris forty-sightly the factor of another, and Berlin, like Paris forty-sightly the satellite of another, and Berlin, like Paris forty-sightly the satellite of another, and Berlin, like Paris forty-sightly the satellite of the satellite ital of an empire.

"This war is no mere episode. It is no departure from our past policy. It is the old job in a new shape. We entered and we shall win this war to crown and couplete the steady and irresistible march of the purpose and policy of the American people. It was our manifest desting a century ago to keep the peace of the western world through a union of self-governing States. It is our manifest desting to the peace of the world through a league of self-governing nations.

"Human rights are universal. No land and no people can claim the right to keep a private inferno of rapine, disorder and misuse.

The same great forces which have de-

The same great forces which have de- Enforce Peace work of the league, declaring that the present war a real peace is to ound in a world treaty, promulting the concert of by us, constituting the concert of pe and America, and accepted by many and her vasual states—three thom, by the way. Turks, Butgars and accepted by Mayars—are Mongols in origin and accepted by the way. Turks, Butgars of Arvans.

Work of the league, declaring that the work done in the such war impossible. For this your support is needed. No other organization helds out such a program with past, culminating in this convention, may have its practical results, our pronaginal must be continued with unaparted grant and the continued with unaparted of organizations because it offers a small states—three signals and will have the same ever-the whelming never return, and a group of self-gaverning lands will have the same ever-the whelming never return, and a group of self-gaverning lands will have the same ever-the whelming never return, and a group of self-gaverning lands will have the same ever-the whelming never return, and a group of self-gaverning lands will have the same ever-the whelming never return, and a group of self-gaverning lands will have the same ever-the whelming never return, and a group of self-gaverning lands will have the same ever-the whelming never return, and a group of self-gaverning lands will have the same ever-the past, culminating in this convention, may be support is needed. No other organizations will have the same ever-the whelming power at the work done in the support is needed. No other organizations will have the same ever-the support. This League to Endone the support is needed. No other organizations with a program with past the same ever-the support is needed. No other organizations with war impossible. For this your autocracy we never the work done in the support. This league of Nations, to make another the support is needed. No other organizations with war impossible. The support is needed. No other organizations with a treatment of the support is needed. No oth

PEACE BY VICTORY.

Chief Executives in Conference Today in Connection With Win-the-War Con-mer Governors, which took place at in- scription Those who attended voiced their an-

Florida, Albert W. Gilchrist, William eph W. Folk, E. W. Mador

BY AMERICAN IDEALS

Unselfish Attitude in War Introduces New Spirit, Says Canadian Barrister descent, from the province of Quebec. special invitation of the League to Canadian people.

incidentally, he is giving Philadellans a new conception of the loyalty zens, especially of the French Canadians in his own province.

To America he gives much credit ovince and the rest Quebec-the true.

pe ple should know that we are lawabiding, and I am much gratified to say and encouraged to do our share by the deal and unselfish attitude of the American people, for whom we have ever had a profound sympathy and regard." Mr. Gagne declared scarcely one French family of the upper classes now said, That Canada's voluntary contri-bution in men to the Allied cause was League of free nations had three quar-Pract be victory was the hermore button in men to the Allied cause was League of free national a conference of Governors and for some 420,000 before the enforced con- ters of the total.

ions would nossers.

of netroleum over four-fifthe of the su

But this superior economic power would be not only protective against the malled flet, but it could be made third proposal of our program provides for the use of the combined economic force of the signatory nations against another signatory that falls to take its case for hearing to the internaing on a preponderance of the world's basic materials for war, could be ap-pited through all the agencies of the modern world—the cable, the wireless, the custom houses, the trade embargo-

Quebec Riots Exaggerated

"You have undoubtedly heard that in the proportion of about 85 much greater than the preportion of "It is not timely here to discuss the four greatest nations in the Entente neiconned by domestic reasons which divided the Ca-The following nadian people into two political parties in the last election. Much exaggeration ports of the time, for military reasons, and re-crutink fell off. Because of this the men were looked upon as traitors and pro-tlermans. Their answer was that if If This would make it possible to contro

With the enforcing of the military of the two racial elements in distinct units under their own officers. The result has been that young men from colleges, universities and cities have not waited to be called to the colors. They have formed and are still forming volume formed and are still forming volume.

Speaks English Fluently

Vencouver to Halifax gathered in Mon-

Thrift Stamps Pave the Way to Victory

BONWIT TELLER & CO.

The Specially Shop of Originations CHESTRUT AT 13" STREET

For Tomorrow (Saturday)

Annual May Clearance

Decisive Reductions

Women's Blouses

Batiste Blouses in all white. Georgette, crepe de chine and white with blue; fluted handkerchief linen, dimity, collar, cuffs and front. voile and batiste blouses.

3.90

Special 5.50

Organdie blouses in all-white, white and blue and white and rose; collar front, panel and cuffs edged with plaited

Special

Women's Separate Skirts

Reductions of 1/4 to 1-3

80 Skirts, the season's most beautiful models in stripes, plaids and serge; pleated and gathered effects.

7.50 and 10.75

Reduced from 12.50 and 19.50

Women's Sweaters

To Close Out

(5) Silk Sweaters, formerly 45.00 to 69.50-now 25.00 (25) Silk Sweaters, formerly 38.00 to 42.50-now 15.00

(5) Silk Sweaters, formerly 29.50 (5) Fibre Silk Sweaters, formerly 15.00 -now 8.75

(3) Fibre Silk Sweaters, formerly 13.75 -now 5.50 (7) Wool Sweaters, formerly 8.95 to 10.75 (Slightly soiled) -now 5.50 and 7.95

CLASPED HANDS OF TRADE SUPERIOR TO MAILED FIST

League of Nations in Commercial Alliance Against Militarism Is Advocated by Herbert S. Houston at

Win-the-War Convention

An unassuming Canadian of French Approach the commercial alliance of PERMANENT peace maintained and it is difficult to see how any na-A through the commercial amanda a league of nations was advocated today by Herbert S. Houston, of New York, retlying president of the Associated Adrice enforcing economic pressure—the closing of the seas to a nation "in the commercial amanda" in an advisite or in part by international ac> to see that such a league, held together fighting now for victory. When that for the settled conviction, reached after full discussion, consideration and refer-through the united power of the league United States. By them, in fact, it is which wins it. Surely we are not pour. submitted to the judgment of the world.

victory, one that would be followed by separate and go their independent nueconomic power both a protective and And right here is the place to lay fist. But I must at least refer to such amphasis on commerce as a cohesive and strong and practicable proposals as an protective force even against the mailed International Clearing House and an In-fist of militarism. I speak of commerce ternational Chamber of Commerce as es- will go forward under the flags of the ment the final and supreme power in such a league armed force is under a single control, that of the incomparable Foch, on that fateful battle line in France. If that can be accomplished, and it has been, why not go forward at once with the other work, far less difficult, of completing the formation of the league?

As Dr. Charles W. Elici wrote to the New York Times three weeks ago, "The first thing to be done is to conclude A treaty of alliance, which should include the United States and the principal Enclosing of the seas to a nation in whole or in part by international action for the enforcement of international action for the enforcement of international covenants.

Grary on the war, and secondly, to maintain peace in the world while the present disorganized and helpless peoplessent disorganized disorganized and helpless peoplessent disorganized disorgani dees delivered at the "Win-the-War" tion for the enforcement of international covernance.

In part, Mr. Houston said:

The thamber of Commerce of the Line Federation, and Turkey—are actional several properties, the use of this of the great fruits of victor; a league of mations program. It can be for mation a league of nations program. It can be welcome addition to the original group,"

West Have League of Nations

And as if answering that clear voice International Clearing House
There is not time in a brief address o present the various carefully considered and formulated plans for making conomic power both a protective and aggreement as League of Nations that agreement as a permanent and lising changing with the needs of the times. Without a League of Nations we cannot either come to an aggreement as a permanent and lising changing with the needs of the times. Without a League of Nations

So as a war measure to help end wa abole industrial and commercial life or would come, beyond doubt, logically and manent peace. And then, when to pations. In that broad sense look at quickly, the international organization peace is won, it will become a League of the economic power the League of Na- and equipment the League of Nations (Nations to enforce peace with justice.

Men's and Youths' Suits, $18 to $35 Great Showing of Boys' New $5.00 to $16.50 Everything in Furniture and Rugs

This Roomy Porch Rocker $2.75 A large, roomy Refrigerator; solid oak; Special $18.00 Seamless Brussels Rugs, $14 to $20

.... $22,50, $30,00 Wilton Velvet Rogs ...... Grass Rugs, Wool and Fiber Rugs, Rag Rugs, $6 to and Washing Machines, Wringers and Sweepers.

May Sale of Suits for Big Men As Well As for Men of Usual Stature $20 & $25

(More Than a Thousand New Suits at These Two Figures, Representing Unusual Savings)

XTRA size suits in pure wool worsteds built of selected patterns ideally suited to large men.

Suits in worsteds, in serges, in fine summer flannels for men of all sizes.

Our May Sale is bringing a very gratifying response and we are showng our appreciation of it by keeping selection at top-notch all along the line.

Clear-away of Women's Apparel in Our

New Woman's Shop

THIS department of Oak Hall has shown a steadily increasing volume of business all season.

Value, courtesy and large assortments of new styles in all kinds of outer wearing apparel, coupled with the fact that we have made it one of the handsomest shops in town, are responsible for this success. It is a pleasant place to come to!

Briefly confined to figures, Saturday's value facts follow:

$29.75 Jersey Wool Knit Sport Suits. $22.75 $27.50 Silk Taffeta Suits—Unlined . . $22.75 Suits worth clear up to $35.00, for . . $25.00 New Coats worth up to $35.00, for . $19.75 $37.50 Coats Marked to go out at . . . $25.00 Blue Serge Capes worth $25.00, for . $19.75

Blue Serge Capes worth $29.75, for . $22.75 With a new display of dainty Blouses in all materials and styles $2.95 & $4.95

Wanamaker & Brown

Market at Sixth for 57 Years