General Will Ask Medals for Brave Men on Peadary Front

With the American Forces in Peadary, May 20
The general commanding the American forces in Peadary said today that he had recommended more than thirty Americans for the American Distinguished Service Medal in recognition of the most bravery yet shown by any members of the American expeditionary force.

Many Wounded
Captured by the Germans and forced to put on their tracks, through which the mud was made, it is almost impossible to see a foot ahead, the troops waited for a moment for the shells but many were caught by the explosive shells and killed.

Saved Many Lives
Made a wonderful soldier's life was saved by these men, every medical corps man who demonstrated such magnificent devotion to his comrades was later carried off the field on a stretcher to the hospital in the rear, where many of them are lying today in the same ward with the men they saved.

Via Death Valley

Two years in the desert alone with her husband, residence in small Western towns and large Eastern cities—this is the soil from which has sprung the intimate love of America, so wonderfully expressed by Honoré Willisie, novelist and editor.
