

EVERYBODY IS MAKING PATCH-WORK QUILTS FOR SOLDIERS—OTHER NEWS TO INTEREST WOMEN

BACK-TO-THE-QUILT MOVEMENT IS ON FOOT

Urgent Need for Bed Covering for the Wounded in France Has Recalled the Old-Fashioned Patch-work and Quilting Is In Again

THE old-fashioned quilting bee is with us again. To her who has a penchant for patches—the reds, the blues, the dull golds that pile up like bits of history, in a woman's life—the news will be particularly welcome. It is a grateful word, too, to fingers that have never learned to knit.

For the quilting-bee has been called back for the sake of the boys. Word comes from the American Fund for French Wounded that bed clothing for the wounded soldiers is very badly needed in France and that the patch-work quilt is particularly welcome.

MAKING patch-work quilts has always been a quaintly fascinating work. Now is the patriotic moment for women to return to it. There couldn't be a better reason for it to ransack our minds and our closets for scraps than that soldier boys in which, though it is not a patch-work quilt, they are buttonholed with bright-colored yarn, and finally crunched together. The crocheted yarn matches the buttonhole yarn in color.

Alice Kent and the Day's Work

The Story of a Business Girl Who Would Not Fail

By MARIHA KILLER

THE last day of my employment at the library Mr. Grey called me into his office and complimented me on the work in which, though it is not a patch-work quilt, they are buttonholed with bright-colored yarn, and finally crunched together. The crocheted yarn matches the buttonhole yarn in color.

I studied in recognition of his pleasure and continued in more serious vein. "But such a windfall as this has never happened to me before. I am sorry we can give you no more work."

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

Letters and questions submitted to this department must be written on one side of the paper. Special queries will be answered if the editor does not understand that the editor does not understand. All communications for this department should be addressed to THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE, Evening Public Ledger, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Madam—Will you kindly answer the following questions in your exchange column of the paper.

1. "Father's Day" is not officially recognized, but came very near to being at one time. In 1915 a bill was introduced in Congress providing that the first Sunday in June in each and every year hereafter be designated as "Father's Day," which was to be observed as a national holiday.

2. I have a question about the "War of Women's Exchange." I have seen it in the paper and I am interested in it. I would like to know more about it.

Trying Mazola—the oil from Corn—for Economy's Sake—Many a housewife has discovered how to improve the flavor of her cooking. Mazola is a very good cooking oil and is very easy to use.

ONE of the first things that appeals to the housewife about Mazola is the fact that it never carries flavor or odors from one food to another—it is a cooking medium which can be used again and again until every drop is used up.

There is a valuable Cook Book for Mazola users. It shows you how to fry, sauté, make dressings and sauces more delicious, make light digestible pastry. Should be in every home. Send for it or ask your grocer. FREE.

Adventures with a Purse Little Insignia Pins. Rivet Service Flags. To Show Where 'He' Belongs. A Striking Purple Sweater and Some Crepe de Chine.

Have you seen the little pin which carries the insignia emblem of that department of the service in which "he" is? It is finding its great popularity as the service man with its stars. It will show you, off and on, in the same corner of the uniform, the insignia of the department, the color of the uniform, the rank of the man, and the name of the man.

Mazola. ONE PINT. MAZOLA REG. U.S. PAT. OFF. A PURE SALAD AND COOKING OIL. CORN PRODUCTS REFINING CO. ONE of the first things that appeals to the housewife about Mazola is the fact that it never carries flavor or odors from one food to another—it is a cooking medium which can be used again and again until every drop is used up. But real economy means quality too. And that is why Mazola has such an appeal for the housewife who has changed from lard, suet or compounds for deep frying, sautéing, shortening. Mazola does not burn easily and foods fried in it retain their natural flavor. They are crisp, light and easy to digest. Mazola is also first choice for salad dressings—easier to mix than olive oil—and gives a pleasing flavor all its own. For sale in pints, quarts, half gallons and gallons. For greater economy buy the large sizes. There is a valuable Cook Book for Mazola users. It shows you how to fry, sauté, make dressings and sauces more delicious, make light digestible pastry. Should be in every home. Send for it or ask your grocer. FREE. Corn Products Refining Company P. O. Box 161, New York. Selling Representative—National Starch Co., 135 South 2nd St., Philadelphia, Pa.
