Nationalists Counsel Against Move Until Home Rule Is Secured

Dublin, May 24.—Sinn Feiners and Nationalists are uneasy, awaiting the Government's next move. Their principal concern seems to be that the Government will not now that the Sinn Fein leaders are interned...

Delay of German Drive Is Riddle to Observers

Continued from Page One. Is it in the hope of affecting the nerves of the Allied soldier by continued tension? The incessant and successful activities of the French, British and Americans in trench raids and local actions would give the lie to that delusion...

HOW ROME MARKED THE ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICA'S ENTRY INTO THE WAR

Philadelphia's celebration of "Italia Day" recalls the mammoth gathering in the ancient coliseum last April in the celebration of the first anniversary of America's entry into the war.

Wilson Plans Quick Relief for Russians

London, May 24.—According to a Dublin correspondent, part of the plan for voluntary recruiting in Ireland probably will involve the complete reversal of an old War Office policy. This will mean the adoption of immediate steps to form homogeneous Irish brigades or Irish divisions...

Rea and Willard Not Yet Ousted

Continued from Page One. All freight is said to be due to an investigation that has been carried on for several months in all sections of the country. Although the ordinary consumer has not been affected...

B. L. Winchell, traffic director of the Union Pacific, has been appointed regional director of the southern district, to succeed Mr. Markham, who has transferred from that section to the Philadelphia territory...

Hindenburg Races Wilson for Victory

Continued from Page One. Hindenburg, who has overcome the substantial odds of the election, said that Lloyd George said that America's entrance into the war has not yet equalled Russia's collapse. America's accession, he said, has given the Allies only about a fifth of the number of men that Germany was able to add to her armies...
