

GRADUATION DAY OF 1918 IS DIFFERENT FROM ALL OTHERS—GEORGETTE HATS FOR JUNE

THE WORLD IS WAITING FOR JUNE'S GRADUATES

Government Officials, Big Business, Industry Stand Outside the Schoolhouse With Open Arms—Sweet Girl Dreams Come True for the First Time

A DREAM is coming true this June. Sweet girls dressed in white have dreamed it ever since there have been high school days. It has been golden and as annual as the daisies themselves. But it has never come true.

These dreams, and then the awakening. When the world turned into hundreds of business men, many of whom courteously promised to keep in certain young lady's name on file. And that was all that happened for a long, long time. No, the dream seldom, if ever, came true.

THIS new situation is very interesting because it extends opportunity to every rank and grade. In the saddest circumstances of the world-to-do girl's life has been that she has never been allowed to begin at the bottom when she had the tendency to get into the world's work.

The "Why" of Bad Luck In Baking

At least half of the "bad luck" in baking comes of leaving the dough so long before it goes into the oven that the leavening is lost. This is entirely overcome by Miss Princine Pure Phosphate Baking Powder.
