Villanova Branch of Queen Mary's Guild Moves From Bryn Mawr to Home of Mrs. T. De Witt Cuyler. Girl Scouts to Camp Out

THE Villanova branch of Queen Mary's of the Red Cross, on Saturday afternoon, on the estate of their grandmother, Mrs. James Mapes Dodge. Those who assisted in the Ryneton, Mrs. George Thayer's home in Villanova. So Mrs. T. De Witt Cuyler has very kindly offered the ballroom at Edgwood, her home in Haverford. It is an immense room and just suited for this work There are ever so many new members and this branch has also combined with the Bryn Mawr branch, which has been meeting at the home of Mrs. John Harvey Gordon, and they are able to turn out so very much more work.

The members of this branch are Mrs. Charles Sinnickson, Miss Frances L. Cuyler, Mrs. Charles Townsend, Mrs. Joseph Y. Jeanes, Mrs. Charles Henry Scott, Jr., Mrs. George C. Thayer, Mrs. Samuel Bodine, Mrs. W. W. Bodine, Mrs. Morris W. Stroud, Mrs. M. W. Stroud, Jr., Mrs. William Innes Forbes, Mrs. Heatly C. Dulles, Mrs. J. Kenton Eisenbrey, Mrs. Tristram Colket, Mrs. Kane Green, Mrs. W. B. Mclivaine, Mrs. Thomas Baird, Jr., Mrs. John Baird, Mrs. Herbert Lloyd, Miss Roberts Mrs. George L. Packard, Mrs. George F Curwen, Miss Cameron, Mrs. Truxtun Hare, Mrs. George W. Kendrick, 3d, Mrs. W. W. Montgomery, Jr., Mrs. Lewis C. Neilson, Mrs. Ledyard Heckscher, Mrs. Thomas Newhall, Mrs. Burton Chance, Mrs. Adolph C. Rosengarten, Mrs. W. W. Curtin, Mrs. James D. Winsor, Jr., Mrs. Theodore Spencer, Mrs. Daniel M. Barringer, Mrs. William Penn Gaskill Hall, Mrs. Nathan Hayward. Mrs. Carroll Hodge, Mrs. Kent Willing, Mrs. Murdock Kendrick, Mrs. S. Deas Sinkler, Mrs. C. K. Underhill, Miss Julia Wood and Mrs. Harry C. Potter.

ALONG with the other activities of the Girl Scouts of this city and vicinity. they have now adopted farming and are organizing into bands to cultivate war gardens. Under the leadership of the captains and lieutenants, who comprise many debs of one to several years ago, they have shown already what they can accomplish in this line and have many model kitchen gardens to display.

In most cases, however, the ground which has been donated to them for this purpose has been beyond the city limits and is not accessible for many of the Girl Scouts who are anxious to aid in this work. Two of the organized troops are prepared to cultivate city lots and are therefore anxious to obtain ground in southwest Philadelphia for this purpose and they tell me they are ready to make arrangements with any one who may offer property for this cause at the Girl Scouts headquarters, 34 South Seventeenth street

MR GEORGE H. McFADDEN has con-tributed a large piece of ground on his estate at West Chester to this organization, which will be utilized as a summer camp for the scouts. Two farmhouses are located on the grounds, while tents will be arranged for camping out. There will be from thirty to forty scouts accommodated there at one time. Beginning on June 1 the camp will be opened under the direction of a graduate from Chevy Chase. A large sum was realized for this purpose at a rummage sale given by the local council last week at 1523 Chestnut street.

The council consists of the following: Miss Elizabeth Adams, Miss Katherine Hutchineon, Mrs. Alexander Coxe. Mins Cecily Barnes, Miss Edith Biddle, Miss Eugenia Cassatt, Miss Anna F. Davis, Miss Rose Dolan, Miss Gentrude Ely, Miss Helen Fleigher, Miss Anne Thomson, Miss Elsie Foederer, Mrs. John Grolle, Miss Katharine Lea, Mrs. Robert Lesley, Miss Anne Melrs, Mrs. Richard T. Nalle, Miss Dickie Newbold, Mrs. Nicholas Roossvelt, Miss Aimee Stone and Mrs. Edward Marshall.

MELL, every day you hear of new engagements and gagements an dthe "engagees" seem to be getting more and more youthful as time goes on. Most of the fiances have been twenty-one up to now, but such is not the case with Ben Rush. He is not yet twenty. His engagement to Laura Tobin, of Augusta, Ga., was announced on Saturday. Laura Tobin, they tell me, is very pretty, tall and slender and very vivacious. Ben is already "over there" with the rest of the old Troop. now a trench mortar battery.

His sister Charlotte married John Drayton this winter, you remember. John was also in the old Troop. I'm not quite sure if he is still with it or in another part of the service. Maisie Rush, who was to have come out this year, and Richar! Rush are also his sister and brother.

Little Miss Tobin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus de Cottes Tobin, of Augusta. She was educated at the Academy of Notre Dame and is, I hear, very charming.

AND, my dears, there's something more in the wind these days. Just sit tight and wait and you'll hear of another engagement between a Philadelphia man and a girl with starry eyes, who hails from the sunny South, or I miss my guess.

VOYAGE ON TRANSPORT LIKENED TO EXCURSION

Haig of Roxborough, a University of Pennsylvania man, now in the United States service.

"The ocean voyage was interesting and at times very exciting," he writes his parenta. "Our armed liner was a very large one, carrying (deleted) troops. We encountered all kinds of weather, but for the most part it was warm and the sun was shining. We spent most of our time on the deck looking for ships. When a ship appeared on the horizon everybody on board knew it. The guns were trained on the distant vessel, but her identity was always made out before she came within eight miles of us.

"We were convoyed as we approached England. Our gunners fired at spars sticking up in the water. They took no chances. When any stick showed up we blazed away. A stick four inches wide was broken in two from a distance of more than a mile.

"The gun crews on deck practiced every afternoon. A regimental band played, entertainments were given in the evening; in fact, something was always happening. The food on the boat was much better than we expected. A soldier accustomed to camp life could not complain of anything unless he experienced seastchness."

SENATORIAL PLATFORM

MISS MARTIN REVEALS

Philadelphia Suffragists Plan to Aid Nevada Woman's Campaign to Enter Upper House

Local members of the National Woman's party have received copies of the platform of Miss Anne Martin, of Nevada, the first woman in the country to campaign for a seat in the United States Senate.

Miss Martin's platform is especially in-teresting to women of this city because of the fact that it was in the Bellevue-Stratford last March 27 that Miss Martin's campaign was launched. Miss Caroline Katzenstein, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Branch, National Woman's party, is exhibiting a copy of Miss Martin's platform at the organization's headquarters in the Penfield Buildink

A number of Miss Martin's close personal

A number of Miss Martin's close personal friends in this city are planning to go West to help in her campaign. Her platform is built on "Winning the war" and in supporting President Wilson's war policy.

Miss Martin, who was national legislative chairman of the Woman's party until she entered the senatorial fight, has spoken many times in this city and has made a profound impression because of her sound judgment, political acumen and irresistible logic. Some of her many friends in Philadelphia have shown their interest in Miss Martin's campaign by contributing toward it. Martin's campaign by contributing toward it Among the contributors are Miss Mary A. Burnham, Mrs. Pope Yeatman, Marshall E. Sraith, Mrs. K. G. Halligan, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnes and Dr. Margaret R. Kollock.

What Miss Martin Stands For

First. The winning of the war. Support of President Wilson's war policy and of the Government to win the war. and of the Government to win the war.
Support of President Wilson's ideal of the settlement of the war through a league of nations that shall prevent further wars.
Second. Development of Nevada.
To meet America's greatest need in war and peace—the increased production of food.

(a) Conservation of the waters of the Hum-boldt and other streams for trrigation and the opening of new lands under Federal and State direction.

(b) Increasing the number of home-owning farmers by assisting new settlers through the first difficult years by Federal farm loans at low rates of interest and by providing farms for returned soldiers. (c) Elimination of freight rate discrim-inations against Nevada, thus lowering the price of farm and mining machinery and th ecessities of life. (d) Protection of seasonable labor on sanches in the interest of both farmer and laborer by securing lower railroad fares.

Third. State and national prohibition as a war measure for the conservation of food ma-terial and man-power and as a permanent

Miss Martin announces herself as a can date to be nominated as an independent by didate to be nominated as an independent the people for the people. She says that her election will prove to the women of the world that as they will have helped win the war, os shall their voice be heard in the highest legislative body in America—the Senate of the United States.

Some strong reasons why Miss Martin be-lieves the should be elected are as follows.

Because in her birth, her training, her love and sympathy she belongs to Nevada, be-cause through her education and experience he United States. she is fitt ! as few people to take a place in the Senate of the United States; because she has accomplished things-by winning sufshe has accomplished things—by winning suf-frage for Nevada women she has made it possible for them to send the first woman to the Senate of the United States, by her work at Washington and throughout the country she has helped make equal suffrage a national issue, thus bringing it to its present assured issue; hecause she has atood, against great odds, for high ideals and be-cause she will stand for the principles an-nounced in her platform.
