MR. BLINKERS, Miss Green Eyes, Mr. Ursa and Mr. White Face, we are told. all want us to go out to the Frank Miles Day home, at Allen's Lane, west of Wissahickon avenue, Germantown, on Saturday.

They want us to meet them and we want to meet them, too. For "Blinkers" is a "wise old owl" and "Green Eyes" is a lovely "puthy cat," while "Ursa" is a "bear" and "White Face" is none other than one "sly old fox." And I'm not "absetively, postlutely" sure, but I think that those four animals will be represented by four little children members of the Southwark Players in the play "Forest Ring."

It's going to be a benefit affair teverything is a benefit affair these days, you know, because no one entertains just for entertainment's sake and this benefit is a sort of two-in-one affair, for it will be given to aid the Southwark Neighborhood House and the Women's Pennsylvania S. P. C. A Auxiliary, American Red Star Animal Re-

They are both very worthy charities and should be helped in every way. I am going to tell you what I know about them.

THE Southwark Neighborhood House is At 101 Ellsworth street. The district has a large and rapidly increasing Polish and Lithuanian population. The Americanization of these two groups is conducted through the following activities of the Neighborhood House. Classes in English. Polish women's and girls' clubs and a Polish-American club of men and women. meeting on Sunday evenings, at which il lustrated lectures on American life and history are given. The president of this club represents the Poles of South Philadelphia on the general Liberty Loan committee. And, by the way, did you know that Poles of Philadelphia contributed more than $400,000 to the third Liberty Loan"

No Americanization work can be done which is so vital as that accomplished by the social settlement which touches all phases of the family and community life of the foreigner so you'll agree 'tis a worthy cause.

THE Women's S. P. C. A. Auxiliary of the American Red Star Animal Relief is doing a very good work. Animals of the American army are indispensable to its success in warfare and the American Red Star has been organized for their protect

There are half a million horses and mules in our army, and the Red Star needs money if it is to bring relief to animals that are sick or wounded and thus prevent suffering and great financial loss to he Government.

The United States troops are dependent on these animals for the transportation of food, supplies, guns and ammunition. Motor service is not sufficient for the work or the Allies would not have gathered four million and a half of horses and mules for field service in the last three years. Our Allies in France have a veterinary hos pital every eight miles along the front; shall the American army have less?

Dogs in the army haul light artillery, go on guard with the sentries on duty and detect the approach of any enemy before the sentry. The war dogs search for wounded soldiers, carry messages and keep vermin from the trenches.

The Red Star will provide veterinarians. ambulances, base hospitals, all veterinary supplies and the contributions are applied directly to this service.

THE dramatic committee of the Southwark Neighborhood House includes Mrs. Samuel Jarden, chairman; Mrs. Louis Barclay Robinson, secretary: Mrs. Edward Farnum Lavell, chairman of the produc tion; Mrs. Gardner Nicholas, Mrs. Howard Reber, Mrs. Frederick H. Shelton, Mrs. Louis Lewis, Mrs. J. Cutler Fuller, Mrs. James C. Stillwell. Mrs. William G. Rhoads, Mrs. A. A. O'Daniel, Mrs. W. P. Stanford and Mrs. James F. Lea.

THE women interested in the Red Star Relief work are Mrs. Daniel McQuillen. chairman, with the following committee in charge; Mrs. Edwin O. Lewis, chairman; Mrs. Edward A. Lord, secretary; Miss Lida H. Ashbridge, Miss Laura Blackburn, Miss Amy Comegys, Mrs. Harrold E. Gillingham, Miss Clara Middleton, Mrs. J. J. Rowan Spong, Mrs. George Fales Baker, Mrs. Maurice Heckscher, Mrs. Wfiliam C. Pierce, Mrs. Morris H. Vanderbilt, Miss Viola Bidlack and Mrs. James Starr, Jr.

THERE will be a very interesting time at the Art Alliance today. You see, the private view of the works of John McClure Hamilton will be given before the general exhibition is opened, and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will be the guests of honor. The preceding concert, in which Miss Lena Weber and Miss Helen Ware will take part. is to be held at 4 o'clock. The reception committee will include Mr. and Mrs. William Woodward Arnett, Mrs. Jasper Yeates Brinton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Horner Coates, Miss Violet Oakley, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Oakley, Mr. Joseph T. Pearson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Seyffert, Dr. and Mrs. J. Madison Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Paul King, Mrs. Cornelius Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Boericke, Mrs. John Frederick Lewis, Mrs. Otis Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pennell, Mr. and Mrs. William Jay Turner, Mr. and Mrs. C. Shillard-Smith and Mrs. Imogen B. Oakley.

FATHER and mother were very proud of son and of the way he was working through college. Indeed, it was wonderful; and so they thought they would surprise the "darling boy" by arriving a day or so before commencement. Therefore they said nothing to "darling boy," but started off on their little trip.

Now it happened that "darling boy" roomed with a rather serious-minded youth too, and these two young wiseacres had been on a party at the frat the night before father and mother arrived.

In fact, the awful truth must be told. They often went on parties. They got home and into their rooms at 7 a. m. "Darling boy" managed to steer for the bathtub and kind roommate removed his dress clothes and put on his dressing gown while he waited for his turn to try soar and water to help "get over it."

Upon this scene came father and mother at 7:39 o'clock. And you should have heard them tell roommate how wonderful it was to find him up and "darling son" already in his tub. It showed how hard they studied. Why, at home son never got up till he was fairly pulled out of bed. It certainly was wonderful!

SCHOOL GARDEN ARMY HAS PASSED 4000 MARK

Miss Ella Carter, New Director. Sees Spiritual Benefit in It for Children

Action to the latest reports, more than tone children in the Philadelphia public rethods have enrolled in the city school garde, army. They have signed a piedge to band their efforts to the production of food and regard the work as a selemn and patriotic dark.

Cate activity and the strength of the school of the strength of the city school of the city school gardens, following Miss Miller as director of the city school gardens, following Miss Miller's marriage to J. Lawretice Larsen, has also received the badges which the members of the army are to wear, They are bronze oblongs marked with the initials C. S. S. G. on a red, white and blue ribbes. That which is worn by the captain has three stars on it, the lieutenant's two stars, while the privates have instead a rake. ind a hoe crossed

Naturally a child will have to work for he badge He gets it only when his garden is planted "said Miss Carter. "The captain will usually be a teacher, or a very big, re-sponsible boy or girl "The record cards have just come from

Washington, too. The feeling that they are washington, too. The feeling that they are getting their orders from the Government, as it were, has had an excellent effect on the children. They realize that this work they are asked to do is important, and that it is no play. A new sense of responsibility has The good of this universal gardening by the children does not stop merely with the production of more food. It is a good that is going to root itself into the very nature of the children. I have brought them to realize the importance of the farmer to the welfare of the nation. They are developing a respect for the man who tills the soil. "Then their work must have the effect of developing them mentally as well as physically. I don't believe that any one can work with the good healthy earth without developing a new breadth of soul. Another thing, I have an idea that the foreign children who are planting needs in American soil are planting a love of it that will take pretty deep root in them. These may be rather fanciful ideas, but I believe

GERMANTOWN MAY DROP FOURTH CELEBRATION

Question of War Propriety New Puzzles Independence Day Observance Promoters

Whether Germantown is to have its annual burst of Fourth of July patriotism in Vernon Park this year is a question now under discussion by the active residents of that community, who have taken the lead in the Independence Day display year after year. If it is decided not to hold any public celebration it will be the first time for many years almost beyond the memory of any one now living that Germanyown has any one now living, that Germantown has omitted this annual event.

The Germantown Business Men's Association of which Colonel Sheldon Potter is president, and which usually promotes the plans for the Vernon Park festivities on Independence Day, has made no arrangements for the customary celebration. The question has been raised, said James R. Walker, secretary of the association, yesterday, whether it would be appropriate this year, under the stress of the nation's war burdens, to provide for any kind of observance except of the quietest character.

ride for any kind of observance except of the quietess' obsracter.

The matter, however, has not been definitely settled, but a decision is looked for next week by the active men in the association, whose officers, besides Colonel Potter, the president, and Secretary Walker, are Alexander S. Johnson, vice president, and Alfred C. Marple, treasurer. The Germantown Business Men's Association is one of the oldest and largest, if not the largest in the city, having a membership of more than 400 active husiness men.

The annual outings of the association, which are held during the summer period are now being arranged. The first will be held on June 28 at the spacious grounds of Elmer E. Dungan's country estate at Fort Elmer E. Dungan's country estate at Fort Washington. The Dungan property, which is one of the most heautiful private estates of the Whitemarsh Valley, has, in addition to a fine baseball field, a golf course and numer ous tennis courts. After the outing on Jun 26 the association will give other excursion on every other Wednesday.

NEW CENTURY CLUB TO URGE PROPERLY CONDUCTED HALLS

Several Associations to Plan Recreation Centers for Enlisted Men

A call for a meeting which will look toward the establishment of wholesome general recreation bureaus for the enlisted men has been sent out by the War and Navy Departments' commissions on training camp activities, the women's committee of the Council of National Defense, the Central Branch of the National League for Women's Service, the Philadelphia Conference on Parenthood, the Girls' Conference of Philadelphia, the New Century Club and the Civil

The meeting will take place to-night in the New Century Club, 124 South Twelfth

A number of prominent women are interested, as they feel that properly con-ducted dance halls are a vital necessity, especially since the reports made by Mr Fosdick.

Mrs. Henry Moskowitz, who has investigated the matter very thoroughly and who helped in the first experiment with dance hall in this city, will speak.

International Student Club, at 2308 Sprace Street, a cosmopolitan university, as it with has been recently acquired by the Christian Association of the University of Pennsylvania to serve as a headquarters for cullivating international friendly relations with come from countries outside the United States. The association feels that we, as Americans, need to evidence, in more tangible and concrete ways, our friendly feeling to men far from their native country. We believe we may have something to give to them. We know they have much to ly feeling to men far from their native country. We believe we may have something a give to them. We know they have much a contribute to us. It is hoped that in the home American students and people as those frombother countries may, by friend interchange of thought and experience, com to know one another better, to understand the contribution of the contribution of the same another's point of view and ideal in this way may the house serve to build ut that friendly relationship based on the total contribution of man and the Fatherhood of God, that will bind all nations of the eartingether in one world commonwealth, under the Prince of Peace.
