Three-Day Fete Opens Today at Merion-Countess de Bryas to Speak at Red Cross-Cornelia Skinner Wins Prize

A GOOD bit of the World and his wife will | mail it, but "nothing doing." It was so go out to Merion today to the grounds of the Convent of Mercy, where a Fete Champetre on an enormous scale is to be held for three days. The whole idea is to raise funds to hasten the completion of the huge building known as the Misericordia Hospital, which has been going up at Fifty-fourth street and Cedar avenue in West Philadelphia. The hospital and surrounding grounds take up a block, and it is fitted up with every modern hospital im-

With its final completion next month, it. together with full equipment and a retinue of nurses, will be given over to the Government. So you see the women who are interested in the hospital have left nothing indone to make these three days a success.

Mrs. M. E. McMichan is chairman of the executive committee, and has working with her Mrs. James Mundy, Mrs. J. M. Quennell, Mrs. John Sheehan, Mrs. Anthony Hirst, Mrs. A. N. Burke, Mrs. Frank Trainor and Mrs. Paul A. Vanneman.

A country store will be one of the features of the fete, and there will be a practical linen and utility booth, dolls, baloons, fish ponds, grab bags and goodness only knows what else.

A dog show will be a big feature of tomorrow's fete and there are to be drills today by marines and sailors.

I can't begin to tell you all the things that have been planned; but this I know, it will be a crackeriack performance. And it's all for the cause, the great cause, that we may have a hospital ready for "our boys" when the Government wants us to take them over.

THERE seem to be quite a few new ar-A rivals these days. There's Master Fitz-Eugene Dixon Newbold, Jr., who made his bow to the world on Monday, much to the joy of his proud parents and numerous consids.

One thing is sure, the young gentleman has a mighty sweet mother. She was Eleanor Pepper, you remember, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Pepper, and was married last August at the Pepper's home in Maine, just after the breaking up of Fort Niagara. I think it was about August 15 or 18. She has seen living near Camp Meade most of the winter and Jean Thompson Thayer has shared the house with her. Cantain Thaver and his wife, however, have gone West within the last mouth, and Eleanor Pepper Dixon has been staying with her parents for several weeks.

TSN'T it a pretty idea that Margaretta Myers, who is to be married this afterbeen to Harry Wharton, is going to wear the lovely old lace vell which her greatgrandmother, Margaretta Sergeant, were at her wedding almost a hundred years ago?

THE speaker at the Independence Square Auxiliary of the American Red Cross next Monday afternoon will be the charming Countess de Bryas, who is staying in this city. Next week she will leave on a trin through the West, where she will tell about her work with the refugees of the war zone. It will be on this subject that she will speak to the workers at 60% Chestnut street on Monday afternoon.

CORNELIA SKINNER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Skinner, a pupil of Miss Baldwin's School at Bryn Mawr, was the winner of the prize offered by the Play and Players Club for the best play written by a member of the Junior Drama League

The prize was awarded yesterday after noon at the Play and Players' clubbouse Eighteenth street near Chestaut, and was followed by a reading and discussion of the winning play. Mrs. Otis Skinner and Mrs. Lippincott were hostesses to the members of the Junior Drama League, who were invited to attend.

HAVE you noticed how auxiously the kiddies listen to the war news? Little Bobby W---, who has a happy, hopeful disposition, startled his mother last week when he heaved a sigh and exclaimed: "I do hope this war will soon be over!

"Of course you do," said mother, "We all do, and we will all pray for that every The youngster's face brightened. "Pray hard, mother; pray hard," he said. "I want it to be over before I grow up, for I know if I have to go to war I'll shut my eyes every time I shoot."*

Then there is small Howard, the baby of the family, whose mother is chairman of a large Red Cross organization and an active Liberty Loan and thrift stamp worker. All her children are interested in the war work being done by mother, and all want to help their country. Howard earns twenty-five cents for a thrift stamp each week by performing certain duties promptly, but when he heard so much pleading for funds for the War Chest He wanted to do something for the soldier boys. In response to his persistency mother said: "But, dear, you are only a little boy. You haven't an income. The War Chest is to be filled by the people who earn money and give part of it each month." "That's all right, mother." he shouted gleefully, "I earn twenty-five cents each week for thrift stamps. I can buy three stamps each month and then the next quarter can go into the War Chest."

TSN'T it funny how she insists she's not in love or engaged or anything? "No. indeed; why, you're simple; of course I'm not." And then you spend the night with her and she sits up till 2 o'clock writing a letter, and slips out of the house and runs like mad to the corner and mails the letter so that no one shall know she's writing every day. Only, of course, she tells you it's an important letter and must get to the Emergency Aid the first thing pext marning, for it's about some one who nts to join the aid sides, and Mrs. Mac-Leod must know it.

That went awfully well at first, but, you see, and the small bird spent a second night at her house just last week, and, lot and the bound just last week, and, lot and another latters.

important she had to be able to say that she mailed it herself. Well, it's a great life so you don't weaken.

PUPILS WRITE ESSAYS TO WIN W. S. S. PRIZES

Contestants Show Zeal in Papers on "Safety Allied With Patriotism"

Manuscripts debating the subject of "Safety Aillied with Patriotism" have been pouring in from the schools of Philadelphia, glying evidence of the zeal with which grammargrade pupils avail themselves of an opportunity to win war saving stamps. In one school 197 reckless young souts have plunged into the bottomless sea of essay-writing to win the W. S. S. prizes the Safety Bureau of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company will distribute on the closing day of school for the best essay on the subject.

The competition was to have ended the first of June, but through some mistake many of the schools did not even hear of the competition, nor of the $250 in W. S. S. prizes, so the contest has been extended until June 10.

Children in the public schools have shown a real interest in the subject of caution regarded from a patriotic viewpoint, according to Miss Laura Roadifer, head of the sufety bureau. She has been able to present to the children in an attractive light the idea of taking a moderate care of their bones, and has impressed that idea on their minds by pointing out to them that carelessness and foolhardiness is virtually a "pro-German set"

act."
Regarding the matter in this light, many of her pupils are apt to treat the small boy who steals a ride on the back of an ice wagon with passive, if not vigorously active

BENEFITS IN LANSDOWNE One of the most attractive affairs that can be given in the suburbs at this time of the year is a lawn fets. And, realizing this, the Woman's Auxiliary of St. John's Episcopal Church is planning to give one on Saturday afternoon. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Isaac T. Joses. There will be folk-dancing on the lawn. Mrs. William Ward will play the harp, Mrs. Wharton will play the violin. Cates and candy will be said.
