

THAT GLITTERS IS NOT GOLD AND THE NEW YORK GIANTS ARE NOT EVEN GLITTERING NOW

LUCKY AL DEMAREE STILL RETAINS HIS DECEIVING POWERS AND BEATS PHILS

Aided by His Famous Horseshoe, Veteran Forces the Quakers to Send Out Many "Pop-ups" and Halts Attack—Pat Loses Rookie Battery

Lucky Al, his favorite horseshoe and everything were in fine working order at the home of the Phillies yesterday afternoon, and the Giants managed to win the only game played here and retain their hold on first place.

Pat Moran was somewhat unfortunate in his selection of pitchers. Joe Oeschger looked fine when warming up, but it became so hot for him before two innings were over that he was discarded.

McGuffin showed that covering too much territory often proves costly when he invaded Cravath's corner in that unlit frame to snare a short fly with a man on third base.

The Giants showed nothing out of the ordinary. They got the jump and clinched the game. Getting the so-called jump is important in any branch of sport if success is to be attained.

Cy Williams did not look very good against Demaree. He came to bat four times, fouling to McHenry, grounding out to Holke unassisted and holding easy chances to Niehoff and Young.

Many Stars in New League
UNIQUE league has arisen in the ranks of baseball with the opening of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation Baseball League.

The league is composed of teams representing the Steel Corporation's plants at Forre River, Mass.; Wilmington, Del.; Steelton, Pa.; Lehigh, Pa.; Sparrows Point, Md.; and Bethlehem, Pa.

The list of eligible for the first game as received by the secretary of the league comprised 109 names, divided as follows: Forre River thirty-three, Wilmington twenty-two, Steelton Sparrows Point and Bethlehem twenty each, and Lehigh fourteen.

In the Hartan squad, first of all is found Gharrity, the star catcher at the Wilmington squad, first of all is found Gharrity, the star catcher at Dumont, a Washington American League twirler.

Steelton Has Swift Aggregation
Steelton is out for President Gharrity's trophy with quite an aggregation of ball tooters.

Lebanon's management has a number of former big league stars, among them are Jones, bench manager of the Lebanon team and first baseman on the Detroit team; Marheka, a former Tristate infielder; Babin, a former New York State League outfielder; A. Walsh, a New York State League first baseman; "Andy" McConnell, a former New York State League and American League second baseman; and "Mike" Mowrey, formerly of the Philadelphia National and who was to have played with Baltimore.

Jack Roden wants every one to know that the new management has decided that hereafter, even though the weather conditions are anything but perfect, the races will be run off as long as the track is dry.

Kane and Bellevue
After pitching Bellevue to victory over Kane in a night game on Camden grounds and was knocked out in the second inning, Kane said last night he would pitch Bellevue again.

Dick Rudolph Will Help Out Braves
Announcement that Dick Rudolph has emerged from the hold-out and signed his contract with the Boston Braves means that the club will be improved about 25 per cent.

TENDLER BEATS POKORNI; CLEVELAND LAD IS ALMOST STOPPED IN EIGHTH ROUND

Local Lightweight Easily Wins From Heavier Opponent in Open-Air Bout at Cleveland—Lynch and Valger Also Returned Victors

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL
Cleveland, May 31.—With the ease and grace of a conifer working on a barrel, Lew Tandler worked on Vincent Pokorni in a ten-round bout at the local arena last night.

Tandler Outwitted
Tandler faced a tough foe in Pokorni. The Cleveland lad was at least ten pounds heavier, and used his weight to advantage in the clinches.

Pokorni was baffled by Tandler's attack, and also found it difficult to penetrate the Cleveland lad's defense.

Tandler won eight rounds out of ten. The official box score of the combat was: Tandler, 8; Pokorni, 2.

Records Due to Fall
The high individual scoring was made by W. E. Fox of the Davis squad, with 570, second place was awarded to Joseph of the Florist team, with 550.

Winning teams, with scores and prize money, were: Davis, 570; Florist, 550; and others.
