SUMMER CARNIVAL OPENS AT FALLS TODAY

Ten Days' Affair Will Benefit Soldiers and Sailors From Schuylkill Section

A most elaborate summer carnival opened this afternoon in Dobson's Athletic Field, Falls of Schuylkill. It is being given by the patriotic committee of that section of the city, and the proceeds will be used to aid the work for the 465 soldiers and sailors of the Falls.

The festivities will continue each afternoon and evening for ten days. There are French, Belgian, Italian, British soldiers and sailors' booths, each decorated appropriately by an expert.

Sandwiches, coffee and the picnic extras are dispensed at the booth in charge of Mrs. James Lawson and Mrs. William T. Gray. Mrs. Charles West, assisted by Miss Mary Stehle and Miss Mary Kyle, presided at the candy booth, which has lemonade, cakes and crackers are found at the "over-the-top" booth, in charge of Mrs. Albert Harwick.

Hand-embroidered scarfs and all sorts of dainty fabric articles have been donated for Mrs. William Caruthers's booth. Miss Elizabeth Beaumont and Mrs. George West are her assistants. Miss Alice Schwenck, an expert patcher, assists Mrs. West.

The Falls Young Men's Improvement Association sells cooling soft drinks, and the young men of the Liberty Institute have charge of the dancing. Mr. John Porter is managing the affair and Mrs. E. Gehring Harkness is directing the entertainments, which include moving pictures, singing by the Falls male chorus, and on Saturday evening a show by a number of talented soldiers from Camp Dix.
