WAR LETTERS OF

mond Genet by Grace Ellery Channing Prefatory Note by

John Jay Chapman and Genet, the great, great, doon of the first French Min-for the French Republic to United States, was the first rican aviator killed flying the and Stripes. Barely seven when the war came. Genet he United States to enlist in oreign Legion. rmingly boyish letters tell is fifteen months' service in Legion, and later, after his afer to the Lafayette Esca-e, of his life as a fighting riator at the front, when the let-Chapman, Prince and Lufbery Illustrated, $1.50 net

MARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

THE FLOWER AND THE BEE Plant Life and Pollination By John H. Lovell

A popular exposition suitable ateur gardeners, bee-keepand nature lovers of the sub-ect of pollination. Descriptions te given of the life histories of flowers, butterny owers, nocturnal flowers, fly owers, etc., and the strange ad-intures of their insect guests, he bec-keeper will here learn ere his bees gather nectar, and be fruit-grower why, in the abunproductive.

taken by the author. $2.00 pet. CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

Y. Tribune.

M. G. Wells' New Book

can be safely solved.

present world conditions, present-problem of democracy after the roads after the war. Owen is most consumed in keeping the roadbed in ern civilization and contributed largely bitterly opposed to government owner- repair. The remaining 60 per cent is to it."

DANGER OF POLITICAL

call highways on which any one might litical horizon."

Ownership Discussed by Samuel O. Dunn.

Railway Expert

and controlled. But the falseness of brings into a compact form a vast forces in order that they might work the analogy became apparent very mass of information which we all out their own salvation. Government early in railroading. You know that should have just now when the rail- ownership would put into the hands of on system and on a time-table con- government ownership is unwise." ratiroad companies built their own cars bie?" said I.

and carried goods and passengers for railways spend $550,000,000 a year for equipment and supplies. Can't you imagine Congress, if we had government regulation which lighten a somewhat somber and preachy tale. The title suggests the point of view. There is no doubt that the author regards the attitude of the young sister and that of the bero as genuinely Christian and not fanatical.

"Wise government regulation is bet-" and that the application of the theories and that the application of the theories."

TIMELY BOOKS

The "Black Monk" of Russia

AND THE RUSSIAN

PRINCESS CATHERINE RAD-ZIWILL Illustrated. Cloth, $3.00 net.

Hustrated. Cloik, $3.00 net.
Here the author of "Behind the Veil at the Russian Court" presents the details of the extraordinary career of that sinister personage—Gregory Rasputin—with truth and accuracy, and explains how the recent changes which have taken place in that country have been rendered possible.

LOVE INTRIGUES

OF THE KAISER'S

by WILLIAM LE

rated. Cloth. $2.00 met.

RASPUTIN

REVOLUTION

Secrets in the Lives of

How Haig Fights and Feeds His Armies

THE BUSINESS

Author of The Rebirth of Russia."
The War After the War to 16 Hustrations. Cloth. $1.50 net.
The only book of its kind in the field of war literature. It presents a buge area of intricate and humanly fascinating energies co-ordinated in effort for a nighty end, and it covers the whole territory with an economy of text little short of being mar-

TO CHEER

of the TRENCHES

Author of "Carry On." etc.

Frontiapiece. Cloth. $1.00 net.

"From beginning to end The Glory of the Trenches' is a happy book. It is happy, not because the author has escaped suffering or even horror, but because—whether or not he puts it into plain words of literal statement—he has grasped nomething beyond those things."

New York Times.

This book comes from the heart and goes to it, it is the effort of a father who has reached a great gut to make others realize that no lesser height is possible."

—New York Evening Post.

OF ALL BOOKSELLERS

-Philadelphia Record.

the German Princes

Ql El X

OF WAR

"A Prose Epic

THE GLORY

"A Book of Comfort and Good Cheer"

THE FATHER

of a SOLDIER

FOE-FARRELL

*A novel of which American literature may well be proud'

Ernest Poole's New Novel

S SECOND WI

By the author of "The Harbor," "His Family," etc.

"Never yet has Mr. Poole, and seldom has any American writer, done etter work. . . . Instinct with life and human sympathy."-

IN THE FOURTH YEAR THE END OF THE WAR

A most convincing picture of Lays down the principles and d with characteristic strength ideals of victory, explains our and clarity, showing the real place in the war and shows how war and the only way in which it we must lead in the great recon-

"A real novel of genius by 'Q''

$1.25 struction of society.

Arthur Quiller-Couch's New Novel

Here, ladies and gentlemen, is a work of genius. It contains mystery, sychology, adventure and humor . . . sentiment, romance, dranatic situations; indeed, all that we could wish in a work of absolute nd triumphant fascination."-N. Y. Tribune.

THE DARK PEOPLE": RUSSIA'S CRISIS

Ernest Poole's New Book

"We have read no book which got William Allen White's New Book closer to the heart or to the mul- "There has not been a more richly. rision." — N. Y. Tribune. III. with the tragic setting of its theme."—N. Y. Tribune. III. $1.50

THE MARTIAL ADVENTURES OF HENRY AND ME

Walter Weyl's New Book

titudinous hearts of the Russian unctuously, infectiously humorous people of all classes, and which book published in years. Yet more graphically revealed the there has been no war book more stents thereof to the reader's congruous and more in harmony

"Admirable—told with unfailing interest"

THE BOARDMAN FAMILY Mary S. Watts' New Novel

Sandra Boardman, the fascinating Sandra who danced her way to me behind the footlights, will win your hearty applause."

the Macmillan Company, Publishers, New York

There were times when

God didn't seem to care

When, friendless, fundless, a stranger in great teeming ondon, she struggled for a foothold. There were mes when food was all that mattered, and at all mes her path was beset with uncertainty and peril.

A Girl Alone

e rich, palpitating story of a plucky young woman, who, long struggle, beat the world that tried to crush her. Yet. ough it all the author preserves our faith in humanity, and a in the very depths there is found the helping hand and n of human kindness.

All Booksellers-"A Girl Alone," by Howel Evans. $1.50 net

G. P. PUTNAM'S

London

HE PROMISE OF AIR

Algernon Blackwood, Author of The Wave, Julius Vallon, Ten Minute Stories, Day and Night Stories The New York Times says: "The Promise of Air is like'y to be nost widely read of all Mr. Blackwood's stories, for it has the precious quality of being different, of offering something unique, surcharged with poetic imagination and the sense of beauty, material and spiritual, its romance has that golden glow which mity always loves, and the hero's quest of the air leads the on with an ever-increasing sense of intellectual and spiritual

CONTROL OF RAILROADS trolled this vast body of voters might ship, urged by some in order to take the railroads out of politics, would in She Combines a Tale of Penn-Advantages of Government Regulation Over Public all probability put them more deeply into politics than they have ever been This, at any rate, is Mr. Duan's opinion "Mr. Dunn makes another point by politicians. The party which controlled this vast body of voters might some of the first ratiroads were merely road issue is looming large on the po- the political leaders the management of elections on the one hand and the operate his own cars. It did not take "I shall be glad to read it," said control of industry on the other, as long to prove that such a plan was not Doctor McFabre, "but I should like to Mr. Dunn says. He goes on: 'They practicable. The trains must be run see the man who can persuade me that would then exercise a total power incomparably greater than was ever extrolled by a central authority. So the "Suppose we should say impractica- ercised by any body of men in this country. They would have the same "No. I do not think it is impractica- political power of the ordinary kind that the leaders of the party dominant "It is one of the most inexpedient in Government now have. The power things ever suggested in this country," to determine what rates and prices should be charged by concerns earning "I think I agree with you, Owen," billions of dollars would be a great said !. "And I was confirmed in my power; and they would have it. The impression by the summary of the power to make contracts for expendipractical difficulties in the way which tures amounting to billions annually Mr. Dunn makes in one of his chap- would be a great power; and they ters. In the first place, he reminds us would have it. The power to determine that the 'book cost' of the railways is whether millions of men should be alabout $17,000,000,000. He says that dowed to keep their jobs would be a the average annual amount of new great power; and they would have it. capital invested in railroad extensions. The power largely to determine how for the five years preceding the war millions of men would vote, and there-was more than $500,000,000, which is twelve times the maximum annual amount appropriated for rivers and harbors and about the total appropriated for such purposes from the beginning of the Government. Can you imagine the 'pork' in an annual rail-road appropriation bill of $150,000,000, which is by what men should hold public office. Would have it And these would be a great power, and they workers from their physical troubles and turn their minds to religion. The decision to hire the revivalist is made by the selfish sister, who believes that it will be cheaper to pay him than to skive better wages to the workers in the leaders to another, but which could never be dissolved into their elements. There are a second with the Twenty-minth Vancouver and turn their minds to religion. The decision to hire the revivalist is made by the selfish sister, who believes that it will be cheaper to pay him than to skive better wages to the workers in the leaders to another, but which could never be dissolved into their elements. There are a second workers from their physical troubles and turn their minds to religion. The decision to hire the revivalist is made by the selfish sister, who believes that it will be cheaper to pay him than to said turn their minds to religion. The decision to hire the revivalist is made by the selfish sister, who believes that it will be cheaper to pay him than to said turn their minds to religion. The decision to hire the revivalist is made by the selfish sister, who believes that it will be cheaper to pay him than to said turn their minds to religion. The decision to hire the revivalist is made by the selfish sister, who believes that it will be cheaper to pay him than to said turn their minds to religion. The feature is an advent to the minds to religion. The feature is an advent to the proposer of the served with the Canadians.

about 2,000,000 railroad employes cured most of those abuses. Now the food for thought in the argument. whose wages and the conditions of abuses of regulation need to be cured. FANATE OR CHRISTIAN? A Story of the abuses of regulation need to be cured. FANATE OR CHRISTIAN? A Story of the abuses of regulation need to be cured. FANATE OR CHRISTIAN? A Story of the abuses of regulation need to be cured. FANATE OR CHRISTIAN? A Story of the abuse of regulation need to be cured. FANATE OR CHRISTIAN? A Story of the abuse of regulation need to be cured. FANATE OR CHRISTIAN? A Story of the abuse of regulation need to be cured. FANATE OR CHRISTIAN? A Story of the abuse of regulation need to be cured. FANATE OR CHRISTIAN? A Story of the abuse of regulation need to be cured. FANATE OR CHRISTIAN? A Story of the abuse of regulation need to be cured. FANATE OR CHRISTIAN? A Story of the abuse of regulation need to be cured. FANATE OR CHRISTIAN? A Story of the abuse of regulation need to be cured. The raliroads after the war will not go back to the old conditions. There must be radical changes in the laws. Mr. Dunn has some views about what

The latest work is an outgrowth of its value to the majority of men as well author's recent experience as an intelligence officer with the British army.

The writer broke off his studies at the Beaux Arts in Paris 18 and author's recent experience as an intelligence officer with the British army.

The writer broke off his studies at the Beaux Arts in Paris 18 and author's recent experience as an intelligence of each lies in the fact that it is

With his American birth and connecactual participation.

In addition to the narration of the manner in which actual fighting is done and the impression of the soldier who has been in the midst of it and wounded, he also gives authoritative information as to the manner in which soldiers are transported, housed and trained. The book contains a personal study of that book contains a personal study of that interesting Britisher. Lord Northcliffe, based on the author's close personal relationship with the great journalist. The account of the British censorship also is of unusual interest. Major Wood's story of the battle in which he was wounded is vividly realistic. The book is entertainingly illustrated with photo-

THE NOTEBOOK OF AN INTELLIGENCE OFFICER. By Eric Fisher Wood. New York: The Century Company. $1.75.

If a Man Die

At a time when so many are suffering from the awful harvest which death has been reaping in the great war, the book "If a Man Die" will bring great comfort, especially to those mourning the loss of young men full of vigor and hopefulness for an active useful life. It is the outcome of the personal grief at the loss of dear ones of the writer, the Rev. Dr. J. D. Jones, of Bournemouth, England. His argument for the reality England. His argument for the reality of the life beyond rests, not upon conjectures, but upon scriptural truths, mainly upon the Resurrection of Jesus. After a consideration of man's nature he confidently holds that "our dear lads have not perished. They have only exchanged time for eternity." One of the great things Christ did for us was to give us deliverance from the ensiaving great things christ did for us was to give us deliverance from the ensiaving His purpose is to imbue the cant with a deeper, personal to come is something we should long the cant with a deeper, personal close and intimate relationship piness is prophetic of a real happiness.

whose labor would be fixed ultimately HELEN R. MARTIN AS A PROPAGANDIST

sylvania Dutch With a Study of Labor Conditions

Mr. Dunn makes another point which deserves serious consideration. He says that Government ownership pers because they could not agree on what was to be done with the rail roads after the war. Owen is most consumed in keeping the readed in bitterly opposed to government ownership and Doctor McFabre thinks the Government could run the railroads as well as it runs the postoffice.

"But it makes a miserable failure of running the postoffice," "It way lob be worth your while.
"If them who operate the railroads were in charge of the collection and distribution of mail they would do it better and make money."

"The railroads are highways and the nation should control them," the clergyman insisted.

"You are drawing a dangerous comparison there, Doctor," said I, "I know which are built at public expenses and are free to every one, to the railroads which are privately owned and controlled. But the falseness of him and controlled in the trailroads and controlled. But the falseness of him and controlled in the trailroads and controlled. But the falseness of him and controlled. But the falseness of him and controlled. But the falseness of him and controlled in the trailroads and controlled. But the falseness of him and controlled in the trailroads and controlled. But the falseness of him and exprised to it."

"Bunk!" exclaimed Doctor McFabre, with the fertune with list its it.

"Bunk!" exclaimed Doctor McFabre, with the fertune with its accumulations it it.

"Bunk!" exclaimed Doctor McFabre, with the fertune with list and committed largely to it.

"Bunk!" exclaimed Doctor McFabre, with the feedance.

"It may be bunk!" I't went on. "But the fortune with its accumulations it it.

"It would be worth your while.

"It would be worth your while. young man whose stepfather abandoned in drawing are rare in present-day fleimagine Congress, also, ordering exten- "Government ownership is popular in a sociological tract as well as a melosions of railroads as it orders new certain quarters because of disgust drama. Those who read for the excitpublic buildings, regardless of the needs of the district? Further, there are about 2,000,000 railroad employes

HELEN R. MARTIN

Aids for Women Voters

the changes should be. One does not Woman's suffrage triumph in New need to agree with his conclusions to York, and the virtual assurance of unifind his book valuable. It is a timely versal victory for "the cause" discussion of a subject about which comparatively short time, has provided the nation should be better informed." the immediate reason for the publication GEORGE W. DOUGLAS. of "Your Vote and How to Use It" and REGULATION OF RAILWAYS, Including "The Woman Voter's Manual," Both a discussion of government ownership of these books are designed not only to versus government control. By Samuel O. Dunn. New York: D. Appletor & acquaint the woman voter with the Major Wood's Experiences

Major Eric Fisher Wood's "Note Book of an Intelligence Officer" is a valuable addition to his already well-known volume. "The Note Book of an Attache."

The latest work is an outgrowth of its technical machinery of the ballet and its The writer broke off his studies at the Beaux Arts in Paris to serve the American embassy during the first months of the war. Since then he has developed as a writer, a keen observer and a good soldier. He has been confinuously in the thick of great movements.

The volume by Mrs. Brown bears the With his American birth and connections and his experience in the British army, he is able to give Americans an impression of what constitutes warfare they will get in no other way than by actual participation.

The volume by Mrs. Jova Vork State Nounan Suffrage party, and incidentally makes a plea for the correction of some obvious wrongs against women in New York. "The Woman actual participation. Voter's Manual" contains a digest of the

Information for Campers Many of the disappointments and mistakes that are commonly deemed inevitable in the amateur camper's experience may be avoided by utilizing graphic reproductions of scenes along the knowledge which the veteran has the battlefront. the knowledge which the veteran has laboriously acquired. Such knowledge its provided in palatable and beguiling form in a seasonable book by the editor of Field and Stream. The book is partly nandbook, partly personal narrative, presenting a wealth of useful information in the author's chatty and informal account of the adventures of binaries and his friends. He covers every himself and his friends. He covers every phase of the subject, discussing outfly and methods for "de luxe" camping winter and automobile camping, horse back, boating and mountain adventured To apply the suggestions embodied i the book is to enjoy a substantial, allaround development in outdoor life CAMPING OUT. By Warren H. Miller. Profusely illustrated. New York: George H. Doran Company. $1.50.

Spiritual Realities

It is a brief but stimulating little essay that Doctor Slattery, rector of Grace Church, New York, has written under the title "The Holy Communion." and paralyzing fear of death. The life cant with a deeper, personal sense of to come is something we should long the close and interrupted happiness is prophetic of a real happiness to come." The fact that "God is love" leads to the belief "that at the long last all men and all things will be restored in Christ, that every wanderer will at length be found and every lost son will find his way home."

The May home."

The life cant with a deeper, personal sense of the close and intimate relationship between the physical and the spiritual. Employs leads to the basis of his syllogism, he seeks to show that the two length be found and every lost son will the only happy way to live is to have God's character, through the character is the control of the

MISS DELL'S DRAMA OF ELEMENTAL NATURES

"Greatheart" Is Moved by Powerful Dynamos of Romantic Passion

The here F. R. G. S. pits his quiet but resolute strength of character against the bullying ways of his masterful brother until his triumph is complete and a romantic conclusion reminently satisfactory to the reader's sympathies is reached.

The intense love-making of the titles "cave man" is chronicled by Miss Dell without a sired of reserve. The emwithout a sixed of reserve. The emphasis of melodrama is freely invoked, both in portraiture and in incident, but despite the roughness the reader's at-tention is riveted by the author's undeniable power to keep the emotional interest at fever heat. The scenes of the story are laid in Switzerland and Eng-land, and the descriptions of the former are excellent, while the author make the mountains the setting of an incident of much dramatic significance.

GREATHEART. By Ethef M. Dell. York G. P. Putnam's Sons, $1.50

Over There and Back

"Over There and Back" a vivid pen picture of life at the front, by a soldier who has served in three uniforms, should carry a particular appeal to Philadel phians because its author was born in this city. He is Lieutenant Joseph S. Smith, at present serving with the army of the United States.

Licutenant Smith first enlisted in 1914 road appropriation bill of $500.000.000? without abolishing government ownerMr. Dunn also reminds us that the railways spend $550.000.000 a year for serious assume that the railways assume that ment ownership, ordering that certain supplies should be bought in certain parts of the country in order to build up local industries? And can't you imagine Congress also ordering exten. army's first experience with German gas also is graphic. The book is well illustrated.

POOKS 1628 BOOKS STATIONERY AND ENGRAVING

"The strain of democracy runs through all of his addresses and messages like a golden thread."

President Wilson's Foreign Policy

MESSAGES, PAPERS, ADDRESSES Edited by

JAMES BROWN SCOTT

1. Dealing with the neutrality of the United States. Dealing with foreign and domestic affairs when war with Germany seemed implicant. Dealing with affairs after our entrance into war.

BOOK OF COMPELLING IN TEREST AND IMPORTANCE. $3.50 NET AT BOOKSTORES.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS merican Branch West 32d Street New York 35 West 32d Street

Dani.

WHAT SHALL THE COUNTRY DO WITH THE RAILROADS? June DORAN BOOKS 1918

THE AMAZING INTERLUDE

Mary Roberts Rinehart

As fine a story as this prolific writer has given the public, and that is saying much."—New York Herald. "A joyous tale of youth unafraid, courage and unfaltering tenderness that carried on despite dismay."—

WINGED WARFARE

Major W. A. Bishop

THE FLYING POILU

The blithe, fearless, romantic exploits of a Parisian street

12mo. Net. $1.50

12mo. Net, $1.35

12mo. Net, $1.35

urchin in the aviation corps.

Mrs. Baillie Reynolds

An appealing heroine, a strange setting and a stranger hero. "A novel with the right ring of romance."—New York Herald.

Arthur Somers Roche

Surprising mystery tale. 12mo. Net, $1.35

FORE! Tales of Golf

Inimitable tales of the Royal

Game by the champion writer of sport stories. All types are here.

Miss Kellermann's full story. A fascinating book, full of the intimate details and secrets of the grams of strokes, dives, etc. Octavo. Net, $2.00

PHYSICAL BEAUTY

—HOW TO KEEP IT

Many photographs, dia-

Charles E. Van Loan

HOW TO SWIM

Annette Kellermann

Marcel Nadaud

THE LONELY

STRONGHOLD

RANSOM!

British Royal Flying Corps The self-told story of the most famous of all airmen, who won the flying honors of the world in a single fighting season. None of the Illustrated. 8vo. Net, $1.50

WHEN THE SOMME RAN RED

Captain A. Radclyffe Dugmore

For hair-breadth escape and completeness this record of personal experience is one of the most remarkable that ever got by the Illustrations, maps, etc. 12mo. Net, $1.75

JAPAN or GERMANY Frederic R. Coleman,

The inside story of the struggle in Siberia showing why Japan should be trusted. 12mo. Net. $1,35

AIRCRAFT IN WAR AND COMMERCE

W. H. Berry With an Intro-

A real look behind the scenes today and what aeroplanes will mean to the future. Official photographs passed specially by censor. Illus. Svo. Net, $1.50

THE UNCIVIL WAR Porter Emerson

Browne Shrewd, searching, amusing. Good sound Americanism with

12mo. Net. $1.25 THE NEW BOOK OF MARTYRS

Georges Duhamel

"Few of us know the soul of the wounded soldier. Here it is, The book is a masterpiece."—London 12mo. Net, $1.35

MAN IS A SPIRIT

J. Arthur Hill Author of "Psychical Investigations"

Most interesting evidence by one of the leaders in the movement 12mo. Net, $1.50 of Psychical Research.

Annette Kellermann

A beautiful woman tells how she got her bodily perfection and how she keeps it. Many photographs of Miss Kellermann. Octavo. Net. $2.00

GEORGE H. DORAN COMPANY Publishers New York

How Much Longer

PUBLISHERS IN AMERICA FOR HODDER & STOUGHTON

Can the War Last? Germany thought it would be over in a year. But she failed to reach Venice-Petrograd-Paris. Why? Will she renew her attempts on these capi-

Find the answers to these and hundreds of other questions in THE WINNING OF THE WAR

By Roland G. Usher

This is "an optimistic book for pessimistic people"—a book which analyzes the present situation from every angle and shows why and how the Alies will win in the end.

The effect of Germany's great blunder, the fikelihood of her deteat through starvation, what is meant by her "invisible army," what she gains from this source of information, how the Russian revolution helps and how it hinders the Allied cause, what vice, tory must mean, when America's first offensive is likely to be launched, what the true military objective is, why the final defeat of Germany is assured—these are only some of the big questions that you will find frankly answered, in this remarkable book.

There are maps showing clearly the various battlefronts—one as late as March, 1918—and there are divisions and subdivisions of thought, so that you can find easily what you want to know. But you will not want to miss a single page of this wonderful book, for it is a vivid account that goes deeper than newspapers of maguzines.

Get it today at your booksellers. Get it today at your booksellers. $2.00.

HARPER & BROTHERS. Established 1817

When Davy Joslin quit killing For a hundred years those genuine Americans of the Kentucky mountains had been killing each other. They couldn't read or writeor think. They were a people apart from their countrymen, until one of them, a gaunt, ignorant mountaineer, resolved to quit murdering them, and instead to save them—to bring light into the "shut-in" regions. Read of his tremendous task and his equally tremendous achievement in the romance of the New Cumberlands, THE WAY By Emerson Hough His struggle with the outside world, BASED UPON FACTS the powerful influences over him of two beautiful women, his return to the feudists of the mountains and their reception of his offer of help, all are splendidly told. "It is an intensely interesting tomance. The best thing that Mr. Hough has written, and one of the best that anybody has ever written about the mountaineers."-New York Tribune.

At all' booksellers', $1.50 net. THIS IS AN APPLETON BOOK

D. Appleton & Co., Publishers, New York

Few Americans realize the appalling conditions which existed among the poor Kentucky mountaineers until the Itex.

J. A. Burns—"Burns of the Mountains"—erected his famous college in the region. "The Way Out" is based upon this wonderful work, and gives perhaps the only true-to-life picture of these people—people as thoroughly American as the name itself. Burns's indomitable courage and perseverance are a courage and perseverance are a shining light in the history of Kentucky.