WOMEN DRIVE WAR DEPARTMENT BUSES

Four of the passenger automobiles of the depot quartermaster's office of the War Department are being driven by women and their chiefs are satisfied with their work. "I love the work," says Mrs. Laura Torbert, who is shown driving a bus from one department to another. "I don't mind the occasional cranking, either."

DUELLI DI ARTIGLIERIA AL FRONTE ITALIANO

Il Maltempo Limita l'Attività della Fanteria e degli Aviatori

IL RACCONTO DI RIZZO

Il Piave, i combattimenti di artiglieria, ad intervalli, furono più intensi. Le cattive condizioni atmosferiche limitarono l'attività dei reparti di ricognizione e degli aviatori. Il comandante Rizzo, al quale deve la meravigliosa impresa navale di lunedì scorso, che costò al nemico due delle sue più grandi corazzate, così descrive l'azione da lui compiuta. "Mi trovavo in servizio di perlustrazione al largo della costa della Dalmazia e scavo per tornare alla mia base quando, a circa dieci miglia, osservai una gran nuvola di fumo. Sulle prime pensai che qualche battello nemico mi avesse scoperto e che mi volesse dare la caccia, e decisi di tornare indietro e farla a lui prima che riuscisse a farla a me. "Mi rivolsi agli equipaggi dei due battelli che erano con me, composti in tutto di venti uomini, e dissi loro: "Giovani,

TO JAIL AFTER TWO YEARS

Lewistown Man Loses Legal Battle, Gets Three Months

Mifflintown, Pa., June 14.—After a legal battle lasting almost two years, Reuben Gayton, of Lewistown, has started to serve a three-month sentence in the Juniata County jail. Gayton was arrested in August, 1916, on the charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, and with aggravated assault and battery. The December Juniata County Court of Quarter Sessions ordered Gayton to pay the costs of prosecution, a fine of $100, and to serve three months in jail. The Superior Court, to which an appeal was taken, affirmed the judgment of the lower court, and the Supreme Court has just denied an appeal.
