

Evening Public Ledger

Philadelphia, Monday, June 17, 1918

THE PATRIOTISM OF PHILADELPHIANS BURNS JUST AS INTENSELY ON SUNDAY AS ON WEEKDAYS

A GOODLY THROG witnessed the maneuvers at the first week-end camp of the radio training school of the Philadelphia Military Training Corps at Lansdowne. The work Sunday consisted of setting-up exercises, semaphore, target, infantry and wireless practice. Over to the right is Samuel Delp, mascot of the school, whose services several times have been refused by Uncle Sam because of his youth.

IF YOU ARE VERSED in the Morse code, you need only to be told

IF YOU ARE VERSED in the Morse code, you need only to be told

ALL THE WIG-WAGGING is not being done out at Lansdowne, however, for here we have Masters Fred Leiser and James Platt sending and reading aboard the Boy Scouts' new training ship Emily.

IN HONOR OF THE YOUTHS from the congregation of St. Veronica's Church who have entered the service of our country a service flag was flung to the breeze with appropriate exercises Sunday afternoon.

A PATRIOTIC CAVALCADE preceded the raising of the service flag at St. Veronica's Church, with Joan of Arc leading the procession.

PROPERLY ATTENDED by her maids of honor and two pages, Miss Columbia (Elizabeth Thomas) was the center of attraction at the St. Veronica flag raising.