

Evening Public Ledger

Philadelphia, Monday, June 24, 1918.

AMERICA CARRIED TOWARD SUCCESS IN WAR BY SUPPORT OF MANIFOLD LOYAL ORGANIZATIONS

THOUSANDS OF VOICES raised in song on Belmont Plateau in Fairmount Park demonstrated how solidly the memberships of the various patriotic and fraternal organizations in Philadelphia are behind the national war program.

IN THEIR FULL REGALIA the members of Manaiung Tribe, No. 118, Red Men, furnished a picturesque group to the assemblage on Belmont Plateau.

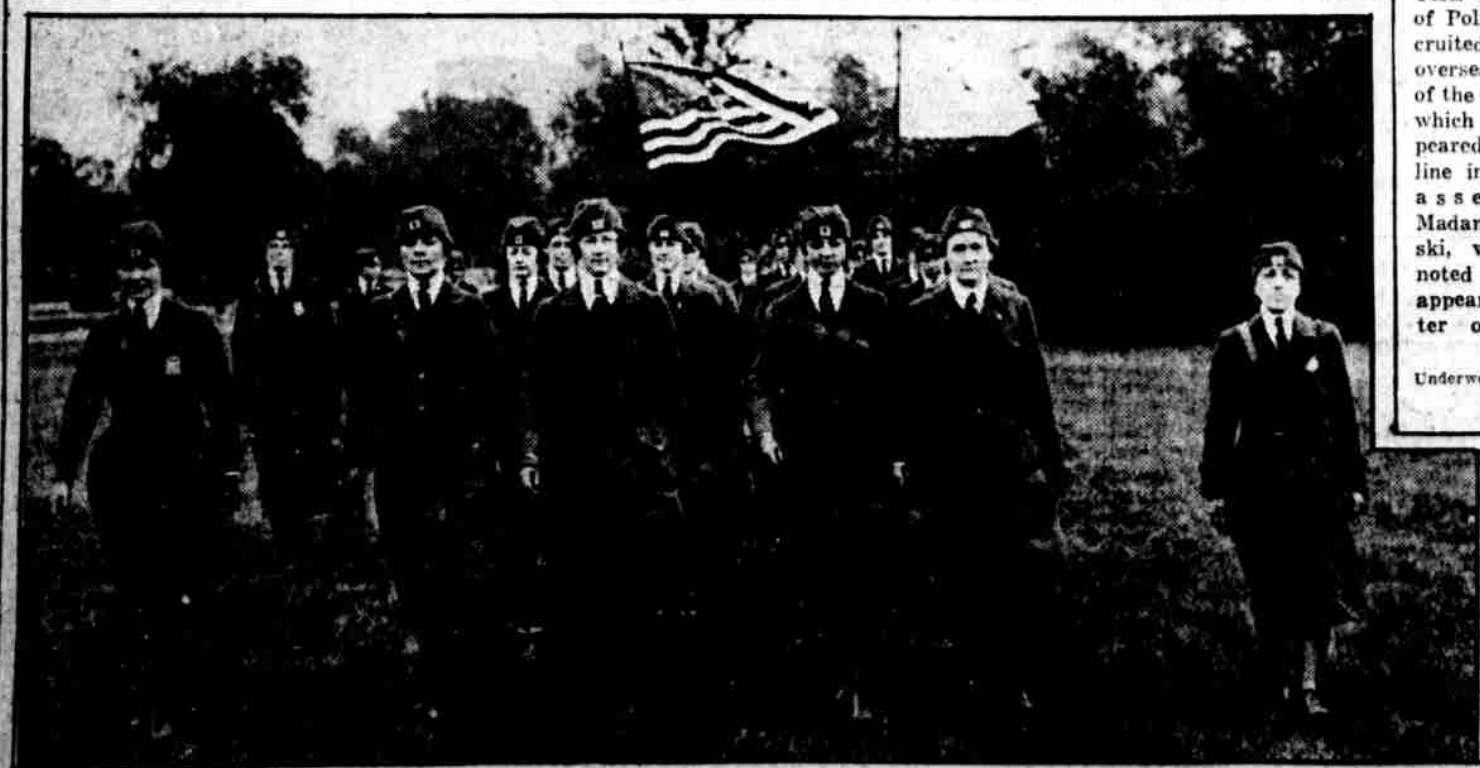

THE GREAT ASSEMBLAGE on Belmont Plateau was captivated by the songs of Henri Scott and the ardent addresses of Lieut. Vincent de Wierzbicki and Lieut. Paul Perigord, who appear to the left in the order named.

EAGER PARTICIPANTS in the community singing on Belmont Plateau were the members of several juvenile organizations, among them the Pioneer Girls of West Philadelphia, shown above.

MUCH COURAGE has been displayed by Salvation Army women in France, of whom Commander Evangelino Booth, shown in uniform she wears overseas, is leader. The Gilliams Service.

THE FIRST UNIT of Polish nurses recruited for service overseas in support of the Polish Legion, which has just appeared on the battle line in France, was assembled by Madame Paderewski, wife of the noted pianist, who appears in the center of the group above. Underwood & Underwood.

THE USEFULNESS OF THE WOMEN enrolled in the Jersey City Motor Service is not confined to scurrying about on patriotic errands, for they are prepared to act as stretcher bearers and furnish first-aid to the wounded should occasion arise. International Film Service.

AN ENVIABLE RECORD for service well performed is held by the Women's Motor Service of the Jersey City Chapter of the Red Cross, whose members have made 14,860 calls in soliciting support for the Government's various patriotic campaigns. International Film Service.