HALL SHINES AT TENNIS MEET

Wins Matches at Orange Club for Title of Middle States

MAY PLAY T. R. PELL

New York, June 25.—Walter Merrill Hall, winner of the title seven years ago, was the shining light in the opening rounds of the tennis tournament for the championship of the Middle States on the courts of the Orange Tennis Club yesterday.

Method of Competing

The bouts have been arranged with a view of having one department or shop compete against another. There are a lot of rivalry among the boxers as to their relative merits. As most of the 9000 employees of the navy yard have already secured reservations, there will be a good attendance on hand to urge the contestants to exert themselves to the limit.

Summary of the bouts is as follows:

Thornton, of the sail loft vs. Bradley, of the copper shop. Frankie Herman, teamster, vs. the old Port Richmond battler, Hugh O'Brien, a rhyeter. Jack Taylor, heavyweight, chief janitor of the accounting office, vs. Jack Hubbard, of the supply department. Joe Phillips, of Kensington, vs. Jimmy Coater, the fighting blacksmith of public works. Joe Fisher, U. S. S. Carolina, vs. Jack Toland, of Pier No. 15, naval reserves. Eddie Dundee of the bull game machinists outfit section, vs. K'd Wolf of the riveters. Freddie Nitchy, of the belt repair gang, representing the machine shop, vs. the hull division blacksmith "Terrible Dan" Johnson, who has been knocking out his opponents with alarming rapidity during the noon hours.

Tierney to Fight

Jimmy Tierney, the tow-haired youth from Port Richmond, will have the backing of the oxyacetylene gang to burn holes through the guard of Joel Mendell, a cigar heiner, who has given the fans a run for their money at the local clubs during the last winter.

Phil Bloch, an allowance draftsman, will try to blow the forced draft in Charlie (Kid) Thomas, who is a machinist's mate at the naval training station.

Johnny Mealey, of the identification bureau, a not notch Philadelphia boy who has a long list of creditable victories, opposes Freddie Kelly, the boy who boxed Benny Leonard at the newspapermen's tobacco fund show.

Muckels Reilly and Indian Russell have met so often in the bouts at the navy yard that they have secured a committee for permission to box the full six rounds allowed by the Philadelphia boxing laws. Muckels is a great favorite with the stevedores, and Russell is an employee of the sheet metal shop.

English Featherweight

Eddie Morgan, a clever English featherweight, a checker in the employ of the Corcoran Stevedoring Company, which firm loads the vessels at the yard, will meet the clever Leo Vincent, a mechanic attached to the outside sheet metal gang, who repairs Uncle Sam's fighting ships.

Eddie Mack will give an exhibition of pantomime boxing.

Twelve big husky colored youths picked from different departments will try to establish a good reputation and standing among their fellows by entering a battle royal with plenty of punch and grit.

The high-class wind-up is presented by the final bout, Lew Tendler vs. "The Cave Man" Terry McGovern. It is predicted by the critics that Lew Tendler has a chance for titular honors.

The tickets for this show can be obtained from Gimbel's, Spalding's, Donaghay's, Edwards and United Service Club at prices of 50c, $1, and $2. The entire gate receipts will go to the enlisted men of the war zone.

SCRAPS ABOUT SCRAPPERS

TWO good scraps are listed for July 4. Three contents were to be held on the national holiday, but the most important tilt was postponed until Saturday afternoon, July 1.

Jack Dempsey, the Coast sensation, and Ferocious Fredward Fulton, the Minnesota plasterer, are billed to battle twenty rounds at Baltimore, but the unsuccessful attempt of the promoters to come to an agreement with the management of the Oriole Ball Park caused them to postpone the show until the latter date. The change has met with the approval of the managers of both pugilists.

In the two bouts billed for the glorious Fourth a pair of champions will be seen in action—Benny Leonard, the lightweight ruler, and Ted (Kid) Lewis, the welterweight champion. Immediately after his bout with Jack Britton, in this city tonight, Leonard will resume training for his scheduled eight-round tilt with Jack Branzo, of Hazleton, in the opening show at Wildwood, Leonard and Branzo met before and the referee stopped the bout in the fourth round because Branzo was bleeding from the nose. Otherwise he was not injured and gave Leonard one of the hardest fights he has had in this city.

Ted Lewis will have as his opponent Bryan Downey, the slugging welterweight of Akron, O. They are to mix it for twenty rounds in Downey's home town, and the Ohio boy is training like a heaver for the contest to show the home fans that he can outpoint the titheholder.

Wagoner, the Jersey City battler, had a good scrap with Mickey Doolan, who was outpointed in a six-round fight.

Johnny Summers, welterweight champion of England, has been wounded "somewhere in France" and at the present time is lying in a hospital. His manager's friends were notified that his opponent's friends had been notified that he will be able to leave the hospital.
