Through Mr. Lewis it was learned the Frenchmen had been in this country since May. They have given concerts in Boaten and New York, and came to Philadelphia from Cape May, where they entertained the United States naval men. From Philadelphia, the party went to Baltimore today for a concert, and to- mulate interest in War-Savings Stamp wales by a public concert.	1079 1141 374 1 765 1 Eleva 1143 831 311 1 169 1 384 1 461 491 146 20 600 334 863 486 291 650 496 997 878 814 363	53         538         538         538         538         1065         1003         757         73         1117         73         1116         851         1116         852         111         601         5556         220         2515         910         403         848         6994         3249         22950         463	43       14         391       10         359       24         358       34         Hun       101         183       101         171       99         378       42         307       67         826       75         111       82         121       95         124       551         555       24         560       10         115       87         892       32         827       87         511       58         876       10         281       26         5       29         873       91	2       846         6       1020         8       134         0       80 dred 0         0       528         3       536         1       167         5       946         9       730         4       175         3       523         9       331         1       1150         0       1017         2       591         0       849         7       399         6       634         9       441         3       354         9       996         1       215         0       1103         9       283	126 60 689 395 Two 1039 571 133 1059 870 174 499 598 738 544 1140 901 705 1123 960 681 332 389 468 152	1132 783 273 205 elft) 166 723 105 393 915 525 373 345 408 982 931 444 162 488 449 271 236 834 301 684	732 129 724 821 779 139 42 235 683 341 711 390 1019 1013 1182 725 806 981 413 97 645 850 527 690	674 116 1092 8 1149 79 659 32 375 118 endred 117 119 310 60 213 17 1178 55 476 52 1030 93 606 98 389 100 968 111 425 50 641 12 774 22 810 13 941 78 894 11 325 72 1054 37 568 75 936 22 increase weather the second s	66 86 99 23 86 1 99 99 09 76 50 26 33 87 08 87 08 19 21 21 32 88 18 21 79 71 50 25 wares II additional of the second state of the secon	Selected in Draft Continued from Page One The fact that many of their companions were already in camp or in France have made them anxious to do something to show their patriotism. HELD AS AUTO THIEVES Youths Said to Have Confessed to Theft of 25 Cars Two boys, each under nineteen years old, were arrested in Norristown this afternoon on suspicion of being con- nected with a band which has stolen a number of automobiles during the last few weeks. According to the police the boys ad mitted stealing twenty-five cars. They were held for trial. The prisoners gave their names as John Hughes and Charles Zeba, and said they lived in Kensington. They are said to resemble youths who recently stole the automobile of Charles A. Greer, Camden. He was summoned, and de- clared the boys and one other attacked him and stole his car. Ten men registered by Draft Board No. 32 are scheduled to leave for camp next week. Schermer, it is said, is the tenth man. He contends that he should not be sent to camp when a large number of registrants having numbers less than 1000 are permitted to remain here be- cause their cases have been held up by District Appeal Board No. 2. For illustration Schermer cited the case of William B. Pfromer, of 1221 North Alden street, whose number is 157. Schermer asserts that Pfromer's case has been in the hands of District Appeal Board No. 2 since January 1. Schermer said that he hoped to be re- leased that he might enlist. According to the police the boys ad- mitted stealing twenty-five cars. They were held for trial. The prisoners gave their names as John Hughes and Charles Zeba, and said they lived in Kensington. They are said to resemble youths who recently stole the automobile of Charles A. Greer, Camden. He was summoned, and de- clared the boys and one other attacked him and stole his car.
