EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1918

J. S. SOLDIERS Bolshevik Overthrow Rumored in Sweden LLED IN ACTION

Continued from Page One reins of power. The latter is chieftan, or hetman, of the Don Cossacks.

Reported on Army List and 17 Among Marine Corps

DIE FROM WOUNDS

Cusualties in Two Branches of United States Service Total 106

Pennyslvanians Listed in Today's Casualties

Killed in Action Norman J. McCreary, Volant, Pa

Died of Disease Louis Rosenberg, Pittsburgh, Pa. Wounded Severely

William B. Martin, Pittston, Pa

Prisoner Captain Elmer J. Presper. 2307 Frankford avenue, Philadelphia.

Washington, June 28 .- General Pershing today reported fifty-six casualties the State Department today from the American expeditionary forces.

in France, divided as follows: Killed in action, 24: died of wounds, 4: died of disease, 3; wounded severely, 22; wounded (degree undetermined), 2, and prisoner, 1.

Marine corps casualties totaling fifty were announced by the headquarters to-ital from eastern centers tend to confirm day as follows: Killed in action, seven-the reports that Nicholas Romanoff, extoen : died of wounds received in action. seven; severely wounded in action, troops, twenty-six.

The lists follow ABMY

KILLED IN ACTION Lieutenants

ETMAN, K. H., Lancaster, O. OLDMAN, J. L., St. Louis, MeCREARY, N. J., Volant, Pa. IMOTHY, J. S., Highland Falls, N. Y. Corporals

JACKSON, R. H. Rosalindale, Mass. JANKOWLAK, A. A. South Bend, Ind. KELLY, J. J., Holyoke, Mass. PRDEN, T. E., Greycourt, S. C. RYDER, J. J., Bronklyn. DEMAKER, J., Clem, Ga. Farrier

MCNALLY, W. J., Holyoke, Mass

Trivales CROTRAU, L. M., Brooklyn, CROTRAU, L. M., Holyoke, TROST, ELVIN A., Clearmont, Wyo, GAJDA, J., Detroit. GLEDHILL, H. F., Sigurd, Utah, MARSCH, C. H., Brockport, N. Y. LURECK, T., Chicago, ICKUNET, J.

DBECK T. Chicago. ICKINNEY, H., Evansville, Wis MONIAN, S. H., Nashua, N. H.

WORKLAN, S. H., Monte, S. H., WORKL, J., Cleveland, O. WAITTS, L., Wellington, Ala, WHITTAKER, W. J., Clarkston, Wash, WILSON, G., Wofford, Ky.

DIED FROM WOUNDS Sergeant PLOGGER, F. A., Carrie, Va.

Corporal E., Sciplo, Okla, Privates ER. A. H., Galveston, Ter CAMPEN, H., Haven, Kan

DIED OF DISEASE Major GRUBB, A. L., Berkeley Springs, W. Va.

Privates OLMES, G., Springfield, Mass. OSENBERG, L., Pittsburgh, Pa. SEVERELY WOUNDED

Lieutenant SLEN. SAMUEL, Canada. Corporals

London, June 28.

The first announcement approaching official confirmation of the death of Nicholas Romanoff, the former Czar, was Minister Tchitochart in former Czar, was received here today. The Frankfurter Zeitung, according to the Exchange Telegraph's Copenhagen correspondent, declares that Foreign Minister Tchitocherin wired from Moscow to the Russian Minister at Darmstadt. Germany, that Nicholas had been killeo. The German newspace Deutsche The German newspaper Deutsche Tages Zeitung credits the rumor in Rus-sian circles that "the overthrow of the Bolshevik regime in Russia is imminent." said an Exchange elegraph dispatch this afternoon.

Kerensky, it was said, is the man of the future The Exchange Telegraph prints a note on the foot of its story stating that the information must be received with re-serve, as it is not confirmed from any other German source.

Copenhagen, June 28 Copenhagen, June 28 An undated message received here says that an important conference is proceeding at Omsk, between representa-tives of the Japanese and Siberlan Governments. At the meeting joint action against the Bolshevists is being discussed. China is represented.

Washington, June 28

The family of the Russian Czar has been taken to Peruz, according to a German official wireless picked up by the State Department today This message said in one section that the rumor of the Car's assassination at Eksterinburg is more and more widespread; the second section quoted Ukrainian papers as saying he was killed by Red Guards as a result of a personal quarrel.

Paris, June 28 Advices trickling into the French cap-Czar of Russia, and possibly his sou Alexis, have been slain by the Bolsheviki

The former Emperor, according to wires from Kiev, was assassinated by the Red Guards, who were retreating on Ekaterinburg before the advances of the anti-Soviet forces. The Kiev dis-patch got here by way of Basel. Switzerland.

In Magnum considerable contantie to given to the report of the assassination and officials say that the rumors persist and increase. It is known that the thing except complain. The long-suffer-withercalouts of the former ruler had been indefinite for some time, despite the German insistence that Nicholas had been encoded by committee to be complete the German insistence that Nicholas had be committee to be complete the been removed to Moscow. the provoked by compulsory fasting and ex-trispatches from Petrograd add to the story of the ex-Car's murder a report in the early morning, for everybody must that his son, Alexis, is dead, but give stand waiting for it all night long.

that his son, Alexis, is dead, but give no details. Moscow further reports that Grand Fulse Michael Alexandrovitch, brother of the former Czar, has placed himself at the head of the new Siberian Govern-ment.

 RUSSIAN PEOPLE
 A certain number of people, who are able to pay well, and fighting men and other servants of the Bolshevist government manage to get what they want, and food is often offered in exchange for eld clothes, boots, etc. I know of an Eng-lish teacher who is giving a series of lessons in return for flour.

lessons in return for flour. Copyright, 1918, by New York Times Co. Grain Being Seized

London, June 28. London Times, telegraphing from that city under date of June 1, says: "The victualing of Petrograd has: bar washed a more withing i terms and bring it inter-ter and seize grain and bring it inter-ter and bring it inter-ant bring it inter-ter and bring it inter-ant bring it inter-ter and bring it inter-ter and bring it inter-ter and bring it inter-"The victualing of Petrograd has text and series grain and bring it into now reached a more critical stage, There is often no bread at all to be distributed for two or three days to-gether, but in lieu thereof only half willing peasants, who are not are a pound of potatoes per head and the same quantity of dried potherbs.

a pound in pound is a point of dried potherbs. "This morning it is announced that from tomorrow there will be three days more of either bread or pota-toes, and we shall have to make shift with desiccated vegetables alone. This fact, and the reduction of our maxi-mum allowance of black bread to two eunces, when bakers can get flour.

will convey some idea of the state of the state of the bunt after corn but unemploy in their hunt after corn, but une ment and distress seem to have i

Rome, June 28.

A large Austrian advanced post

north of Serravalle in the mountain

Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, and his three assistant secretaries. Seated with Mr. Baker is Benedict Crowell, first assistant secretary: on the left, standing, is Edward R. Stettinius, and on the right Frederick B. Keppel. There is only one Assistant Secretary of War in peace times and Mr. Crowell is the appointee in that position. Mr. Stettinius is the department's expert on business administration, in charge of both production and purchasing for the department. Mr. Keppel is in charge of all the nonmilitary activities of the department, such as the commission on training-camp activities

IN BELLEAU WOOD

With the Americans on the Marne

A certain number of people, who are able bayonets. here was a brilliant moon last night numerous patrol encounters result-The Germans shot up with machine one of their own patrols which ins one of their own patrols which as running from an American party, nother incident was the use of gas ic is against a small American patrol.

DRAFTEES LEAVE AT NIGHT

Hazleton, Pa., June 28 .- Twenty thouand persons of the Lehigh field bade and hersons of the Lengh heid odd prewell last night to the thirty-seven indicton and sixty-one Freeland selec-tives who left for Camp Lee, Va., to enter the National Army. They were the first to go at night.

consideration for the request of strator Garfield that departures drafted men be arranged at such its that miners would not remain ne from work to see them off and im-coal production by their absence in the collieries.

SLAYS CAT, ACQUITTED

is the way. An appeal to England's good will is of no use whatever. (Cheers from the Right). It is commonplace, moreover, that negotiations be-long to a conclusion of peace and that arms alone do not bring peace, but the pre-supposition is that the parties also come to negotiations. If they do not wish to come, they must be compelled come and there comes in the victory of our arms. (Cheers from the Right).

FRENCH SEE PEACE

Paris, June 28.

Trenton, New Jersey State Hospital at Trenton-Arthur D. Forst and "William A. Klemann. Trenton, "H V M. Dennis, Freehold, "Dr. George T. Tracey, Beyerly, "Mrs. John F. Prendergast, Salem: "Mrs. Frederick I. Fox.

amien. New Jersey State Home for Girls at Tren. m-Mrs. Robert Jennings, Jersey City, Mrs. Crittenden Harris, Gien Ridge, Mrs. Leon ubberley, Long Branch, A. S. L. Doughty, Long Branch, A. S. L. Doughty, 100.—Mrs. Robert Jermin, Gien Ridge; Mrs. Leon Cubberley, Long Branch, A. S. L. Doughty, Mount Holly, State Home for Boys at Jamesburg.—Sey-mour L. Cromwell, Mendham; Professor Prank A. Fetter, Princeton; A. D. Chandler, East, Orange: Mrs. Cornella Meytroit, Asbury Park: Mrs. James M. MacCarthy, Jersey Millo. the slightest abatement in German ra-pacity at the expense of the rest of the world. Kuchimann's theoretical dis-claimer of the German Emperor's recent Park: Mrs. James M. MacCarthy, Jersey City State Home for Disabled Soldiers, Sallors, Marines and Their Wives and Widows at Vineland--Walter J. Staats, Merchantville: Dr. Theodore Senseman. Atlantic City: Mrs. W. Scott Wheaton, Milville: Ws. Herman Dilks, Jr., Fitman: James, Grenloch, New Joursey Home for Disabled Soldiers at Kearny-General Joseph H. Brensinger, Jer-sey City: "Richard Wayne Parker and Wil-iam P. Allen, Newark: "Walter S. Tully: John H. Fegan, Harrison; John Stage, Tater-son; George P. Alcott, East Orange. admission that the enemy's object is hegemony of the world, is contradicted, it is held here, by his reassertion of Germany's intention to hold what she has seized and to bargain at the peace table for the restitution of her lost colo-nies and other concrete advantages against the liberation of Belgium.

fers to Europe and America," as Gus-tav Herve puts it in the Victoire, "make us laugh. We will talk about these con-Hertling Called to Headquarters dittons again in three months' time." The speech, according to Clemen-ceau's L'Homme Libre, only confirms tich the Americans on the same be 28 the total number of Germans killed i wounded in Tuesday night's bat-la Beleau wood is between 1100 and official reports today. Continued from Page One buried hatchet. I consider it desirable in the highest degree to say this. C'Very true,' from the Right). It is to the barragefire of the American illery preventing the Germans from eing the wood. They had to stand d take our machine-gun and rife fire

"The conditions which Kuehlmann of-

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

3-DOOR REFRIGERATOR-$22 Solid oak, zinc lined. Special,

SECRETARY BAKER AND HIS AIDES

as followen when so the boards appointed are pointments. New Jersey State Institution for Feeble-minded at Vineland Harry H. Fond, Plain Heid, "George D. The Crosswicks; *Rich-ard C. Jenkinon, The State: William Daw-won, Wenomah, "Mr. Emit; William Daw-won, Wenomah, "Mr. Emit; William Daw-won, Wenomah, "Mr. Emit; Marvel, Atlan-"Mrs. Annie C. Olie, East Ornch, Bridgeton "Mrs. Annie C. Olie, State Colony for Feeble-minded Males at New Lisbon-"George A. Armour, Princeton; F. Wallace Armatrong and Henry B. Coles, Moorestown, Kellam E. Bennett and Mrs. Charles C. Miller, River-ton, Miss Elizabeth White, New Lisbon "New Jersey Santorium for Tuberculous Diseases at Gen Gardner-"Dr. Theodore N. Loomis, Princeton; 'Dr. Frederick J. Hunkes, Plainfiel: "Mrs. Lucy J. M. Taylor and "Dr. Frederick C. Low, High Hidge, Mrs. Alex-ander M. Parker, Camden: 'Edwin J. Burke, Trenton. New Jersey State Hospital at Trenton-

BROUGHT NO NEARER

Special Cable to Evening Public Ledger Copyright, 1918, by New York Times Co. French opinion is agreed that the speech of Kuehlmann neither brought peace a fraction nearer nor disclosed

Corporate BLAKELEY, ERNEST C. Northboro, Mass. DIBRROW, W. C. Lynn, Mass. HORRISON, M. S. Cloverport, Ky. PECK, D. T., East Haven, Conn. VAN COAST, G. W., Turner, Mont. Privates

Privates DAME, Z. D., Newport, Ky. KyNER, C., Chicago. HYDER, R. A., Jameson, Mo. MEENICAF, C. D., Santa Barbara, Cal. CORN, W. H., Madison, Wis. ANZAK, A. J., Buffalo. HARTN, W. B., Pitiston, Pa. HARTN, W. B., Pitiston, Pa. HINE, C. E., St. Louis. HINE, C. E., St. Louis. HINE, C. E., St. Mouls. DEFETT, S. Brooklyn. VIEWA LEON Binghamion N. Y. OFFETT, S., Brooklyn, LEVA, LEON, Binghamton, N. ARTRIDGE, J. C., Oakland, Cal. , Oakland, Cal HILD, J. C., Steaton, O., RESCOTT, H., Cambridgeport, Mass. HMITZ, C., Streator, Ill KKLAND, C. S., Edmonds, Wash. WOUNDED (Degree Undetermined) Corporal AUGE SAMUEL St. Paul Civilian

FLOYD. Chicago. PRISONER Captain E. J., 2307 Frankford avenue. (Previously Reported Missing) Private

BUNIER, E. W., New Haven, Conn. MARINES KILLED IN ACTION

Sergeants

ENETT, THOMAS P., Christopher, III, LEVELAND, WILLIAM R., Crosby, Pa, BATH, THOMAS R., 1538 Pine street, Phil-

Corporais

CLORE, ROBERT I., Lees Summitt Mo. ROWKER, ANTHONY J., Frackville, Pa. Privates.

Privates. HE ARTHUR J. Kittaning Ps. MTON WILLIAM A. Mayodan N. C. CKMAN JEWELL, Holley, N. Y. MARS, WILLIAM W. Monree, Wis. GON, JOSEPH F. Albany, N. Y. MIS, GLENN S. Batavia, N. Y. GOVERN, PHILIP M. Irvington, N. La, WILLIAM M., Mt. Vernon, III. DEK, JOSEPH S. Clarissa, Minn. MUELEN. CHARLES A. Cincinnati MILOW. HERBERT A. Milwaukse. MERNAND SPORMED IN ACCOUNTS. N. Y Wit

OF WOUNDS RECEIVED IN ACTION

Corporal ON, DAVID A.

Privates

NS. LLOYD V. Hamilton, N. Y. TR. WILLIAM PAUL, Buffalo, N. Y. TMANN, LEO P. Covington, Ky. AN, GRANT H., Filimore, Utab. RLLY, WILLIAM J. Maywulle, Mich. ILDS, ROBERT MORRIS, Edgewater.

UNDED IN ACTION (SEVERELY)

Corporals CHARLIE C., Columbus, Ga. RICHARD W., Upper Montelair,

Privates non, BURT M., Dalies, Ore, CLAUDE W., Lubbock, Tex. T. EMERY A., Salem, Ore GEORGE J., Hastings, Pa. MUK N., Crossets, Ark MEAN, BERT, Fife Lake, Mick CHESTER L. Atlanta, Ga. ROBERT J. Hoston, Mass. LAUET, Elles, Kans. WSKI, VINCENT J., Baltimore, M JAMES E. Minnesoita Minn. MA, DANIEL, T. Rostbury, Mass. JAMES E. Minnesoita Minn. MA, DANIEL, T. Rostbury, Mass. JAMES E. Minnesoita Minn. MA, DANIEL, T. Rostbury, Mass. JAMES E. Minnesoita Minn. MA, DANIEL, T. Rostbury, Mass. MILLIAM O., Louisians, M ANDER W. Larksville, Pa. MIDARW, Larksville, Pa. MIDARW, Larksville, N. Y. MIDARM, L. Faimouth, KY. Privates

Hunger Big Problem

a considerable number, which the Bol "The all-important business here at sheviki wish to increase to many thou present is to get enough to eat. The sands to start out on this disagreeabl exiguous morsels doled out by the errand."

ment an provision commissariat, or otherwise obtained with great difficulty at ruin-ous prices, barely suffice to keep body and soul together. Men and women AUSTRIAN AUSTRIAN POST frequently succumb and sink down in the street from sheer exhaustion. The other day, opposite my windows, a shopman out of work was unable to proceed until charitable passersby re-vived him with scraps from the sector, on the Adige, has been demeager rations which they were carmeager rations which they were car-rying home to their families. "The Novya Viedomosti, putting it strongly, says that 'Hungry citizens seek ravenously among offal and rub-bish heaps and lick the paste off street posters and placards." Everything of any value that has not been stolen or requisitioned in pravmad in order to stroved by Italian assault troops. Along the front, as a whole, the activity is nowhere of marked intensity On the slopes south of Col del Rosso. Italian patrols invested the enemy's advanced posts, capturing thirty-one requisitioned is pawned in order to provide food. For the same urgent purpose the savings of years are used men and two machine guns. The enemy promptly replied by twice attackup and family treasures find their way into antiquarian and old curiosity ing in force the Italian advanced line.

but was repulsed. shops, which are multiplying at an The number of prisoners captured extraordinary rate, while other shops Tuesday by the Italians during the are closing for want of wares. operation of extending the bridgehead Sugar Fifty Cents a Lump

"The waning shop trade is gradually going over to street hawkers, many of of other ranks.

going over to street nawkers, many of whom sell trifles at unconciliable prices, such as small lumps of sugar sufficient for one cup of tea at the Russian equiva-lent of fifty cents each or more. Among these street vendors are former officials. Vienna, June 28. Another Italian attempt to storm Col del Rosso between the Brenta and officers and ladies from the bourgeoise the Asiago plateau has been frustrated. class, now undergoing the punishment of according to the War Office report. mpoverishment. The enemy was repulsed with heavy

NABE

SOHMER

"Almost everything political and mili-tary pales into the shade in comparison with this famine, which, it must be relosses, the announcement states, Italian forces attempted to cross the Playe at one point in boats. The effort failed, the boats being destroyed by the Austrian artillery.

Special

second-hand

HAZELTON BROS. 140.00

Write for complete list.

WEYMANN

Everything Musical

1108 Chestnut St.

Victrolas Records

. $100.00

..... 135.00

..... 150.00

membered, connects also with extreme scarcity of all raw materials and manu-factured articles. The consequence is that the economic situation is far more that the economic sellitation and that the economic situation is far more pressing than the political troubles, and the Germans and Scandinavian neutrals are preparing on a vast scale to reap the benefits in the absence of competition the benefits in the absence of competition from England and other Allies. A large steamship company, with a canital of many million kroner, has already been formed in Sweden for the Russian trade. June End Sale of slightly used, rebuilt and and the first Swedish steamer has ar-rived in the Neva with samples of Swedish and German goods. Pianos

Long-Suffering Sinv

"The Russians are too much preoccupled in trying to provide for the indis-pensable needs of existence to do any-

LARGEST OLD BOOK STORE IN AMERICA Students turn TEXT

HARDMAN 150.00 your school WEBER books into CHICKERING 150.00 BOOKS STEINWAY 200.00 Many other bargains in War Stamps BOUGHT by selling your not needused Pianos and Players. ed text-books to us and use the money to help finance the War. Books Bought-Libraries Purchased Leary's Book Store Ninth Street, below Market

Berwick, Pa., June 28.—A man has a rfeet right to shoot a yowiing cat that as kept him awake for two nights, no witer if it is in violation of a borough rimaine against shooting or if the minal beiongs to the shooter's own ster-m-law, decided Justice Carey in is four here.

charge of discharging frearms in the barer-in-law, decided Justice Carey in his Court here. Charge of discharging frearms in the borough on information sworn out by Miss Gertrude Newman, his sister-in-law and next door neighbor.

14

$4.98

Style B

$4.98

Style C

The Knight of the White Horse Prefers Murad at any cost.

Strange Makins of the Highest Grade Tariash ward Egyptian Operators in the High

Skirts $4.98 Soft, All - Silk Satin Narrow or wide stripe.

Silk

or

Satin

Perfect fitting and graceful in line. The twoinch box pleats, front and back. with narrow accordion pleats at 時間 side, produce a very charming effect - pleated belt, pearl but-tons. TH effect.

Two tassels. $4.98

Style C-Very pretty plaid, in Taffeta; t w o-inch box pleats all around. Yoke satin, stockinette or Jersey silk; white, black, tan, liberty blue, sand.

FRONT & DAUPHIN STS.

PHILADELPHIA

18 Cents