

Evening Public Ledger

and THE EVENING TELEGRAPH

Philadelphia, Tuesday, July 2, 1918

LIGHT AND SHADE IN THE WAR NEWS OF THE DAY AS REVEALED BY THE CAMERA'S KALEIDOSCOPIC EYE

A BRAND-NEW TYPE OF SHELL which the French are using is shown here for the first time. The time mechanism in its nose is revolutionary.
Kadel & Herbert

EVEN LITTLE ENGLISH GIRLS ARE PREPARING to make up Britain's depleted manpower by taking daily exercise to fit them for heavy and strenuous war work later.
Underwood & Underwood

IT'S WELL TO BE PREPARED for any contingency in France, as these Americans, who have donned gas masks before playing billiards in a Y. M. C. A. hut, realize.
Underwood & Underwood

THE LANGUOROUS STRUMMING OF UKULELES has given place to energetic Red Cross work in far-off Hawaii, and the inhabitants of Honolulu have formed many units. Chinese, Japanese, Portuguese and Americans are included in the unit shown above.
Kadel & Herbert

AMERICAN LABOR REPRESENTATIVES found everything in Paris immensely interesting on their inspection tour conducted by General Nois. They examined with particular care the big artillery pieces captured from the Germans.
French Pictorial Service

ALL IS NOT WAR for Americans in France, many of whom held high carnival in feminine togs at the Memorial Day sports at a base hospital.
Kadel & Herbert

THE FIRST AMERICANS WOUNDED AT THE MARNE in halting the third great German offensive on the western front this year were brought back to base hospitals in the smoothest and most efficient manner.
International Film Service

AMERICAN GIRLS IN FRANCE are aiding the United States army by driving motorcars for the Y. M. C. A. at the various resting camps.
French Pictorial Service