

WOMAN'S NEWEST PROBLEM IS HOW PROPERLY TO BE GARBED FOR WAR WORK IN FACTORY AND FIELD

SPRITZLIAN, THOUGH BLOCCOLETE, describes this costume displayed at the fashion show in the Hotel Walton for the benefit of the Navy Recreation Fund.

GRACEFUL, FEMIN-INE, modest and useful
are adjectives applicable to this newest of garb for farmerettes.

DOBBIN SIGNIFIES his approval of the back-to-the-farm movement for young women by his look of thorough contentment.

OUT WYNNEWOOD WAY the farmerettes are wont to give greater attention to work and less to costume.

LIGHT COTTON
MATERIALS,
pleasing to the eye,
are used in the newest dresses for women war workers, as illustrated to the left.

AMERICAN GIRLS "treat" American boys in far-away France.
Committee on Public Information

A CORDIAL WELCOME from American hostesses awaits our army officers at their club in St. James Square, London.
International Film Service

TALENTED YOUNG WOMEN from back home entertain Yankee soldiers "over there."
Committee on Public Information