

Evening Public Ledger

and
THE EVENING TELEGRAPH

Philadelphia, Tuesday, July 16, 1918

HOW OUR NEW STATE MILITIAMEN ARE BEING TRANSFORMED INTO REAL SOLDIERS AT MOUNT GRETNA

THE FAIR, GREEN PERSPECTIVE of Camp Stewart makes a pleasing background for the guard mount of the First Infantry.

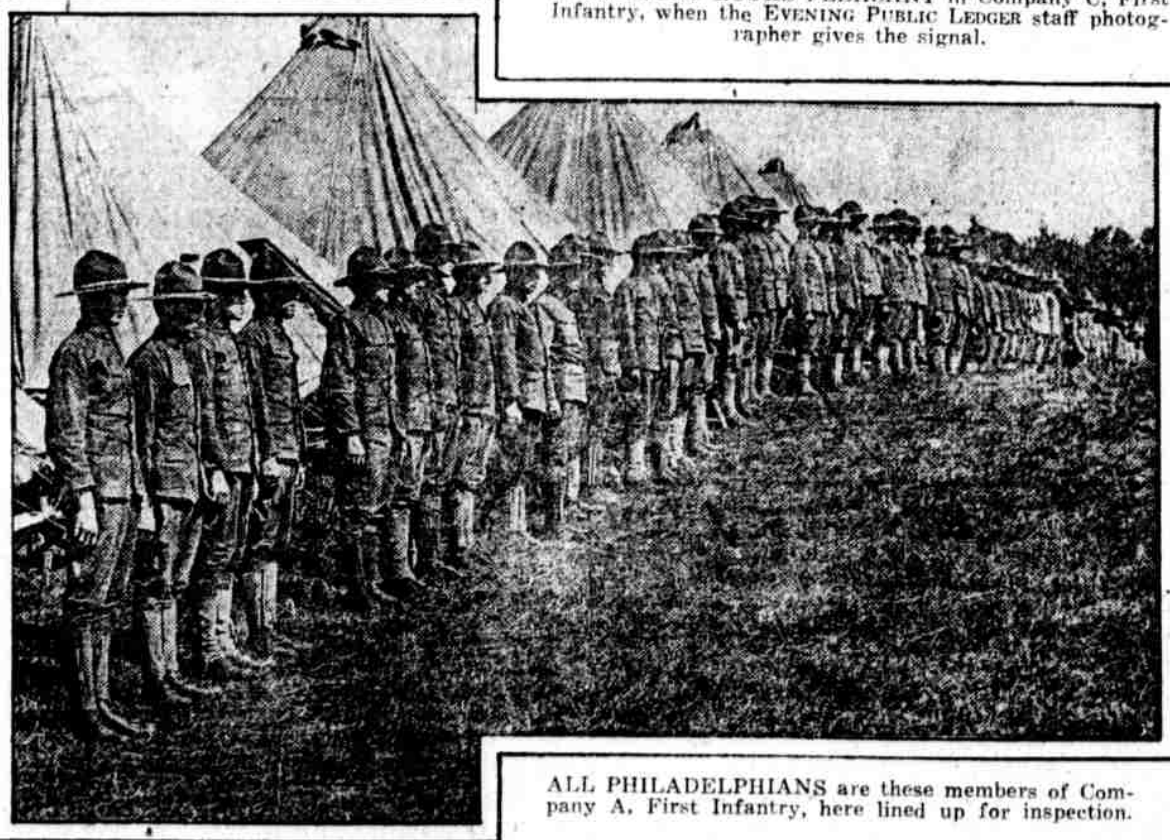

ATTENTION! ALL! while General Chas. T. Creswell and his staff make their inspection tour.

VERY POPULAR with his men is Colonel Groff, in charge of Philadelphia units of the First Infantry.

EVERYBODY LOOKS PLEASANT in Company C, First Infantry, when the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER staff photographer gives the signal.

ALL PHILADELPHIANS are these members of Company A, First Infantry, here lined up for inspection.

A "HUNDRED PER CENT KITCHEN" is the proud boast of these boys from Swarthmore and Media, who are seen doing the culinary honors for Company H, First Infantry.

THESE REVERENTLY BOWED HEADS mutely, but eloquently, attest the fact that the Sunday religious service conducted by the chaplain is a vital part of the life at Camp Stewart.