

SOME VARIED VIEWS FROM HERE AND FRANCE THAT SHOW THE NEWS AT ONE SWIFT GLANCE

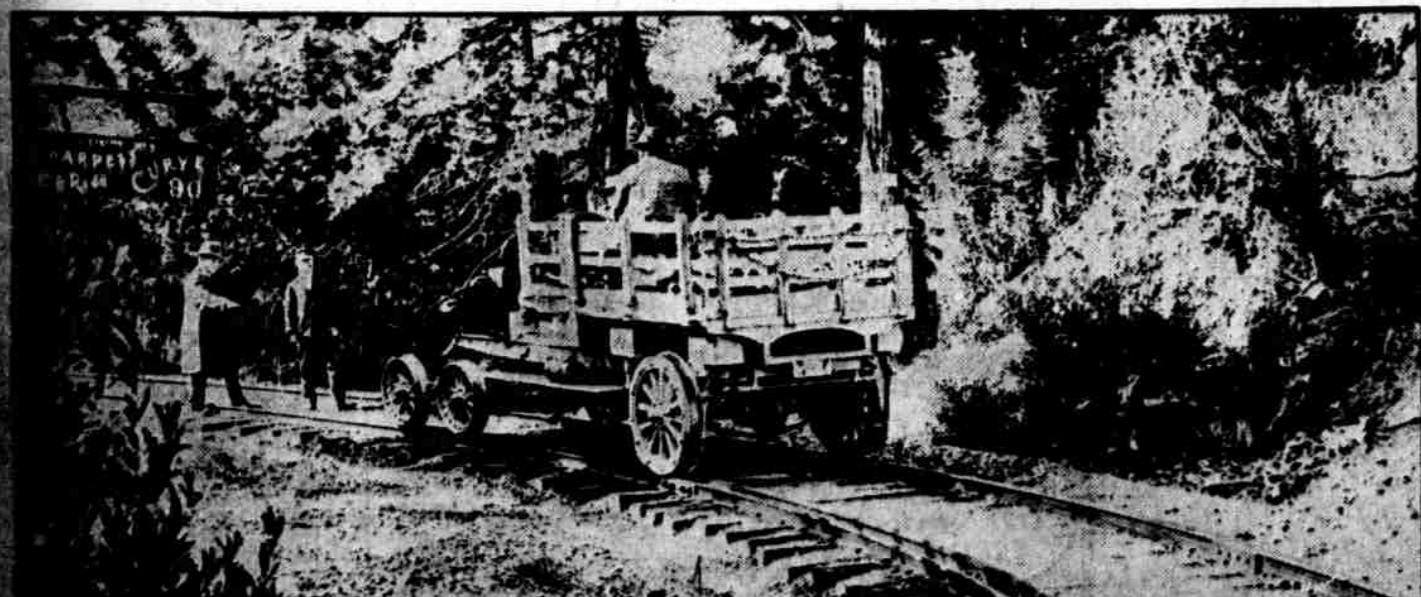

A JOB THAT'S SEINE, and far from vain, is catching fish in France. With rod and reel, Red Cross girls feel, their day holds some romance. British Official W. N. U.

AT BRIGHTON BEACH the life-guard "peach" announces her arrival. Who would not be, half drowned at sea, that she may aid survival? International Film Service

FRENCH MOTHER'S DAY, when our men pay floral tribute overseas, showed chivalry thrives hardly where "Old Glory" greets the breeze. Committee on Public Information

MOTORTRUCKS HAVE DISPLACED LOCOMOTIVES in California on the Mount Tamalpais and Muir Woods Railway and are doing the work more efficiently. Underwood & Underwood

PROMINENT AMONG THE AMERICAN FORCES at the front in France are Major General Harbord and his staff, which includes First Lieutenant Richard Norris Williams, 2d (second from right, above), of Philadelphia, who was national singles tennis champion in 1916. Committee on Public Information

FORK FOR THE NAVY! Let Congressmen fuss. For piggy brings "bacon" to save the U.S. Western Newspaper-Union