FEAR'S OF DRASTIC TAXATION

LEGISLATION OFFSETS EFFECT of Stock Market to Respond as Expected.

Gossip of the Street

DOSSIBLE drastic taxation legislation was the principal reason given in the Street yesterday for the faiure of the stock markets to respond to the encouraging news which continues to come from the European front. Tight money was also given as a secondary reason. 'No one would owledge that the news of the sinking of the big troopship Justicia had the slightest effect on stock prices. Nor did any one give the excessive heat as a cause for the duliness of the markets. Some brokers say they look for a still further decline in most of the standard issues; others give the same opinion in the form of advising clients to be cautious in buying on reactions for the present, while a few remain optimistic and Business Questions Answered Kindly let me know if I am compelled to ay license in any town or city in the United tates or Canada to dispose of and receive leneys at time of sale of an article I manfacture myself.

In most towns you will have to get a awker's or peddler's license. The mount varies, as each town controls his.

The best plan is to call at the city hall and find out what the license fee is. I want to congratulate you upon your work in the paper, and I know that many hundreds appreciate it as much as mwest, and an amount of the offer to answer questions. I want to thank you heartily.

Preferring to Fight

William Spencer and John McKenny, two of the workers at the Pennsylvania shipyard, at Gloucester City, have gone to Camp Dix for training. The company asked for exemption for both, but it seems that their papers were not filed in time. Five other boys from this yard who went at the same time to the same camp refused to claim exemption, saying they "prefer to fight."

The Pusey & Jones shipworkers yesterday received a letter from Carlton Crane, one of their former co-workers, saying he had arrived in France with the troops and expressing delight at being "over there." The sights there have already impressed Crane so much that in his letter he advised all American boys to "take them in" and do their bit with a gun at the same time.
