

A PAGE OF FUN FOR YOUNG AND OLD TO REMIND ONE THAT LIFE IS NOT ALL SHADOW

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

Gosh, ain't it light!
It's almost as good as a regular lantern, ain't it?
I kin see you jiss
as plain as daylight
Kin you see me very plain?

See! I should say so!
I kin almost read
this paper!

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she never realized that her father was a military expert until this war broke out and she heard him telling nearly every day just what General Foch ought to do next.

Rough Stuff
Women may like to be flattered, but we imagine that they must often get mighty tired of the guff that some men hand out.—Detroit Free Press.

Hooz Hooz
A glance at the birth records shows that there is a baby boy at the home of A. Kidd.—St. Louis Star.

Condensed Wisdom
One of the things a young man ought to be told is that if he cheats one man he wins the distrust of many.—Detroit Free Press.

Dog With a Bad Name
Young men should remember that he who is once a cheat is always suspected.—Detroit Free Press.

A Friend in Need
The time to be a friend is when the other fellow would be absolutely alone if you didn't go to him.—Boston Evening Transcript.

THE GUMPS—Andy Is Still a Bachelor

IT HAS BEEN SIX DAYS SINCE MIN ANDY'S GOOD WIFE LEFT WITH LITTLE CHESTER FOR A VISIT WITH HER MOTHER. THEY HAVE BEEN SIX BUSY DAYS FOR ANDY HE HASN'T PUT IN A DULL MOMENT BUT NOT A WORD FROM HIS WIFE YET. NOT EVEN A LINE SAYING THEY ARRIVED SAFELY. HE'S GETTING A BIT PEEVED.

HOW DO YOU DO?

SAY!—DID YOU SEE THAT? WHO'N DICKENS IS SHE. WASN'T SHE SWELL LOOKIN' THOUGH? AND DID YOU SEE THE LOOK SHE GAVE ME? OH BOY—
