

Evening Public Ledger

and
THE EVENING TELEGRAPH

Philadelphia, Monday, July 29, 1918

RESUME OF THE DAY'S INTERESTING NEWS HAPPENINGS VIVIDLY PORTRAYED BY PHOTOGRAPHS

THE LEERING GERMANS, who were wont to entertain themselves with boasts of what they would do to our "green" troops, now are respectful of Yankee prowess, particularly in marksmanship. The gunner in above photo is engaged in insuring this same respect.
Committee on Public Information

A GREAT MANY American soldiers wounded in the fulfillment of their duties overseas some day will recall the period of their convalescence with great pleasure. Little wonder, when you consider how well these lads are faring at such hospitals as that at Paignton, England, illustrated above.
Western Newspaper Union

A NEW ART has sprung out of the inspiration of the Great War, typical of which is this latest work of the French sculptor, Boisseau.
Underwood & Underwood

A DELIGHTFUL little person is Miss Peggy Frank, of Jacksonville, Florida, who endeared herself to crowds at Long Branch Horse Show.
International Film Service

AN ARDENT ADMIRER of the splendid service rendered by the patriotic women workers of Great Britain is Mrs. Lloyd-George, here shown talking to two women saddlers at the equipment and ordnance stores at Woolwich.
Underwood & Underwood

FERRATILE YOUNG WOMEN are these members of the Jersey City police reserves, who have mastered the mechanism of the Lewis machine gun.
International Film Service

OUT AT BRANDYWINE SUMMIT the patriotic lads who are members of the Boys' Working Reserve live in tents while engaged in lending valuable aid to nearby farmers, who are unable to do the crops without the usual number of farmhands.